Three Local Graduates Receive Ryerson Diplomas

Three Georgetown High School Graduates have received diplomas at the Ryerson Institute of Technology.

Numbered among the 535 graduates are: Ellen Diane Hillock (Furniture and Interior Design), Donald W. South (Mechanical Engineering Technology) and Michael Leon Lambert (Merchandising Administration).

In his farewell address to the graduates, Principal H. H. Kerr described graduation as crossing the border from academic life to the work-a-day world. Graduates could "defer to the various options offered." Point out that each received a sound education in the technologies but in the humanities, that each developed a disciplined sense of values to aid in shaping his life on high moral standards, a Disciplined power to think gained by wrestling with assigned problems and projects designed to stretch the students' minds, each gain of a forward look with flexible attitudes that make graduates expert to cope with exciting developments of the future, and students developed a desire to excel in the performance of their duties.

Diplomas were presented to the graduates by Dr. Claude Bissell, president of the University of Toronto.

Expresses Opposition Capital Punishment

The Editor
Georgetown Herald
22 Main St. N.

Dear Sir:

Capital Punishment

Editor's Note: Mr. Fowler's letter is in answer to a letter published in the April 28th issue of the Herald.

As far as I'm concerned he had parachute. His shoulder with house and church and the men who directed the fire, councils, police and crowd that's all we owe to God. But I don't believe that He is a great spectator but tried to prove that pet projects on themselves.

Carol Chessman didn't believe in God but God believed in Carol Chessman. He allowed him to live twelve more years. Twelve years that made the little man in death row a world figure? He had a duty to do. What I don't know God knew but if God allowed him to have twelve more years of life than the smug judge [illegible] he's for that I think the man must have carried out his duty these years to the best of his ability because after the first four years God took him home. Home where there [illegible] pain, or hate — home forever.

HORNBY

Presentation Party for Harold Brain and Bride

A presentation party was held at the St. Stephen's Anglican Church Hall on Saturday evening, May 7, in honor of Joan and Harold Brain, who were recently married.

Euchre was enjoyed, with prizes for the high score being won by Mrs. Pat Flippance and Glenn Saunders. The consolation prizes went to Miss Cris Lamb and Harold Brain.

The Rev. J. E. Maxwell gave the presentation address and little Judy Saunders and Valerie Ella presented the gift of a beautiful wool blanket to the honored couple.

Harold and Joan are moving to Port Arthur in a few weeks where Harold will be the assistant Parks Commissioner.

Mrs. Arthur Brain has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Al Neil, in Toronto.

Leanne Cheryl, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Brigden was christened at Ashgrove United Church on Sunday, May 9th, at the 11:30 a.m. service, by the Rev. J. Hill.

A buffet luncheon was given in their home. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Ervin and family of Milton; Mrs. Bruce Brigden, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clayson of Peterborough, great grandmother Mrs. Clayson, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Alderson and family, Mr. Edward Brigden, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Fisher and their three children, Joan Bell and Susan of Toronto, Gordon and Alfred Brigden.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Day and family of Jamestown, N.Y., visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ken Ella for a few days last week.

The stop sign at Hornby was broken off early Sunday morning by a car that failed to stop in time to make the corner. The car stopped short of Gordon Lee's home.

The Theme hymn and the Lord's Prayer repeated in unison opened the May meeting of the Hornby Evening W.A. with Mrs. Harold Learmont presiding. The roll call "Your morning smile" was answered by the 13 members present. Mrs. Stan Learmont of Grimsby was a visitor at the meeting.

Dates for two showers were announced and last minute details for the May 28th wedding were made final.

A skit "How Not To Conduct a Meeting" was presented by Doris Coulton, Doris Hill, Ruth Bousefield, Hazel Read and Betty Death. It was both hilarious and close to the truth.

Lunch of hot dogs with home made buns was served by Elva Howden and Lillian Howden.

• • •

The WMS of Hornby United Church held their May 5 meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gear Sinclair in Milton on Thursday afternoon. In the absence of their president Mrs. Lew Sampson presided.

After the business was over the Sixth Line group was in charge of the program. The scripture was read and a story was told. Mrs. Wrigglesworth read a chapter from the African book. The meeting closed with hymn and prayer.

• • •

The Hornby Afternoon W.A. held their meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gear Sinclair with 10 members present. Mrs. Wilson presided. Several dates were announced for the members and May 17 was set for church cleaning day. Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Wrigglesworth.

Mr. Gerald Watt of Elliot Lake is visiting with his father, Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace and son.

BALLINAFAD

DISTRICT PRESIDENT GUEST AT MEETING

Mrs. Velma Norris, Halton District president of the Women's Institute was guest speaker at the monthly meeting of Ballinafad WI.

The ladies met Wednesday afternoon in the church. Mrs. Frank Smith was program convener with Mother as the theme. A tribute to mother was given by Mrs. Lloyd Marshall. Mrs. J. W. Snow gave current events.

Three delegates were appointed to attend the District Annual in Lowville on May 24th. A donation was voted to the Retarded Children's Fund. Mrs. Archie McEnery and Mrs. J. W. Snow will represent the WI at the Halton TB and Health Association banquet.

SATURDAY BAKE SALE SUCCESSFUL FOR LADIES

Members of Glen Williams United Church W. A. held a very successful bake sale and tea on Saturday afternoon, May 7th. In spite of the rainy weather the ladies were quite pleased with the results of their work. The members are planning their bus trip.
