Christian Businessmen Visit Manor for Service

Thursday, May 19th, was brought to the Manor, Mrs. S. Allen called the numbers. Mrs. E. Hills won two prizes and one prize was won by each of the following: Mrs. O. Howard, Mrs. M. Forbes, Mrs. A. L. Smith, Mrs. E. Bond, Mrs. W. Mathias, Misses B. Richardson, E. Hannant and M. Thompson and Messrs. J. Bagley, B. Robertson, and E. McKinney.

Mother's Day, Sunday, May 8th, was a very happy day at the Manor. Many visitors called to see their relatives and friends. At the noon hour every young resident wore a carnation corsage to dinner.

On the afternoon of Mother's Day, the first service ever to be conducted at the Manor by the Christian Business Men's Committee of Oakville was held in the dining room. Mr. Geo. McAllister conducted the service and Mrs. McAllister presided at the piano for all the music.

view of the dances, which formed a large portion of the program. The first number was a hornpipe danced by three young girls dressed in Highland costume. These young girls were June Adams, Christine Tritton and Lois Rothwell. This was followed by the Shean Truitt danced by Jeanie Adams, who was also dressed in Highland costume. Mr. George Adams played the bagpipes for the dances. The same three dancers came back to dance the Shaird Dances, always a popular favourite. Miss Phyllis Bonkin then played a very enjoyable melody of old time favourite on the piano. Little Linda Parsons recited two very appropriate recitations, 'The Young's Breakfast' and 'God's Masterpiece'. June Thorpe aroused great admiration with her two vocal solos, 'The Bible Tells Me So' and 'Oh, What a Beautiful Morning'. Two more dances won the hearts of the audience, the Wambey Dance, 'The Sailors Hornpipe', performed by Jeanie Adams and The Irish Jig performed by Lois Rothwell and June Adams.

Jane Thorpe, repeated, by request, her lovely solo 'The Bible Tells Me So'. Mr. George Williams gave the thank you speech to these kind and generous ladies, the pleasure of whose visit had been so keenly anticipated and so delightfully realized.

Rev. D. A. Powell conducted the service and Mrs. H. Waters played the piano at the church service on Sunday afternoon, May 15th. Mr. Powell read as the scripture lesson Chapter 2 of Zechariah and then based his sermon on this chapter. Explaining that the man with the measuring rod was making measurements and calculations for the new city of Jerusalem after the old city had been destroyed to the Babylonians. Mr. Powell said that this young man had encountered the prophet who ordered him to put away his rod. This chapter teaches us that spiritual things must always overshadow earthly things, and that we cannot compute everything in life. We must walk humbly with God and try to see his final plan for humanity.
