

PRETTY CHEERLEADER

PRETTY LOUISE HARRIS, a cheerleader from Lawrence Park Collegiate, Toronto, is shown above with the handsome trophy awarded annually by the Manufacturers Life Insurance Company at the All-Ontario Interscholastic Track and Field meet. The meet was held in London on Saturday, May 28th, and the Ontario District Interscholastic Athletics Association schools won the coveted trophy as they checked in 95 points to finish in front of schools from nine Ontario districts.

WHAT COUNCIL DID

Endorse Resolution Asking National Unemployment Study

"They must be all Gays," said Mayor Hyde jokingly as council on May 24 endorsed a Peterborough council resolution calling for a national study of unemployment problems to guarantee employment for all adults who want to work. The Peterborough council claims that there is more unemployment at present than at any other period. Reeve Sargent and Cr. Kelly were in opposition to the endorsement, saying that it is not matter for a local council to deal with.

Another resolution, this from the Paris council, was tabled to urge strong support from the mayor and Cr. Cass. This asked provincial funds for increasing education costs and "reasonable salary demands by teachers" and extension of public day care to single women. Cr. Cass said he does not wish to be quoted that he thinks present teaching salaries are too high but that teachers have a strong organization and that salaries will reach the "too high" stage if unreasonable demands continue. Mayor Hyde said towns are in bargaining positions with powerful teaching federations. A majority agreed, however, with Cr. Elliott who claimed it is a school board matter, rather than a council one.

"I'll bring it up again some day," promised Cr. Cass. "And if a favourable vote is asked, I'll vote for it," said the mayor.

A letter from Delrex Developments asking approval of an industrial sign erected near the firm's new building on the highway was channelled to the town planning committee for recommendation. The letter explained that the

Presentation to Manor Staffer Before Marriage

By Muriel Thompson
One of the most delightful occasions of her approaching marriage, Miss Bella Richard presented to the Manor Staffer a very graceful ballet arranged to the music of Drago's Serenade, danced by Mary DeGabriele. Mary wore a very attractive pink ballet costume and her dance was very much enjoyed. Also greatly enjoyed was the next number, a Spanish Dance, expertly performed by Andrea Cumella who was dressed in the lightest colours so much loved by the Spanish beauties. These two dances were performed to the music of a record played. Two accordion duets came next. They were played by Brian Golden and Tony DeGabriele, with Joey DeGabriele conducting. Although these young boys have been students of the accordion for only a few months, they performed like veterans. The titles of their selections were The First Waltz and Home Sweet Home. Joey Vantrun also played two selections on her Hawaiian electric guitar. They were My Waltz and Honolulu Waltz. Mr. Viggers played a solo on the bones to music of the record player. The long awaited draw of the almanac and cash quilt came next. One of the visitors of the evening, Mrs. Thomas Bradley, drew the two tickets. The almanac was won by Mr. Andy Sarge of Georgetown with ticket No. 554 while Mrs. R. E. J. McKernan of Gray St. Bradford, won the cash quilt with ticket No. 443. The sale of tickets for the double draw netted the Hobbs Class $117.25 and the members of the class take this opportunity to thank all those who sold them. The money is to be used for the installation of a loud speaker in the new auditorium, a convenience that will be greatly appreciated by all the residents but especially by those with poor hearing. After the draw the residents viewed very pretty colour slides showing beauty spots and historic buildings in England and Italy. These pictures had been taken by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bradley. Mr. Bradley ran the projector and Mrs. Bradley read the commentary. Such famous places in England as the Houses of Parliament, Windsor Castle and Madam Tussaud's Wax works and such historic places in Italy as the Leaning Tower of Pisa, St. Peter's Basilica and the Vatican were depicted on the screen in all their colour and beauty. Many thanks are due Mr. and Mrs. Bradley for showing these very attractive slides.

An especially enjoyable portion of the program followed the showing of the slides. Miss Josie Vantrun, who has been the dining room waitress for the past three years, was called to the front of the room in order that a presentation might be made to her on behalf of the residents. On the occasion of her approaching marriage, Miss Bella Richard presented to the Manor Staffer a very graceful ballet arranged to the music of Drago's Serenade, danced by Mary DeGabriele. Two very appealing solos. If You Were the Only Girl in the World and The Lullaby were sung by Miss Josie Vantrun. Four very disconcerting looking hoboes made their appearance and sang a song appropriate to their "profession". They were Norman Jones, Jack Robinson, John Colman and Maurice Ballantine. An eye-opening fashion show staged by nine gentlemen dressed in the height of mid-sixties fashions came next. Fashions in ladies clothes from sports clothing to bridal gowns were modelled by these "Hollywood beauties". A fashion commentary was read by an other gentleman and appropriate music was played as each "model" made "her" appearance. The same gentlemen who had previously appeared as hoboes now made their appearance as professional base-ball players. When the batter made a home-run only to discover that he had hit a foul ball, the four players sang You Gotta Have Heart. Mr. and Mrs. Ballantine presented another clever novelty number, My Wild Irish Rose. The program, so full of hilarious fun and entertainment, closed on a serious note, when the entire company of visitors assembled at the front of the room to sing the hymn breathe on Me, Breath of God. The serving of tea and cookies, the latter donated by the visitors, provided a social hour during which many expressions of thanks for such a fun-packed evening and many requests for another visit were heard on all sides.

Rev. J. E. Graham of St. Paul's Church, Milton conducted the church service on Sunday afternoon, May 22nd. After reading Chapter 4 of St. Luke's Gospel as the Scripture Lesson Mr. Graham delivered a sermon on the general topic of racial discrimination. Having quoted a verse written by St. Paul to the Galatians, a verse which begins with the words "There is neither Jew nor Gentile," Mr. Graham said that these words started a revolution thirteen centuries ago, a revolution that has fought for the rights of all peoples and whose leader is Jesus Christ. In spite of this revolution human relations are our most serious problem today and this problem has brought about hatred, misery and war. If this problem is not solved by the application of Christ's teaching, war and chaos are the inevitable result.
