

WHOSE TIME IS UP?

LIONS GUNSLINGERS Orinny Otto and Buck Jones seem to have the drop on Deputy Sheriff Scott as he starts to write out a ticket for John Zappa's car. Officer Jones is overparked. As to just whose time is up, it's 7-7.

Weed Control News

1960 REVISED WEED ACT

Ten years have elapsed since the Ontario Weed Control Act was last revised. This year, however, the Provincial Parliament has enacted certain revisions and amendments which were explained to County Weed Inspectors at a meeting held June 1st at the Ontario Agriculture College, Guelph.

Many of the changes are minor and fairly unimportant to residents, so in this article I will try to describe a few points which may be of interest to people within this area. In reality the 1950 Act has been repealed and replaced by the 1960 Act which I believe is more applicable to growing municipalities such as Halton County.

Administration falls largely on the shoulders of the Ontario Department of Agriculture who in turn appoint inspectors whose responsibilities include enforcement of the Act. They are headed by one referred to as Chief Inspector Mr. A. H. Martin, Director of the Field Crops Branch, Ontario Dept. of Agriculture, Parliament Bldg., Toronto. Next in command are District Weed Inspectors whose responsibility it is to oversee the work carried on in a number of counties by County Weed Inspectors appointed by the county and local weed inspectors appointed by the council of a local municipality within a county.

Section 3, subsection (1), states clearly that it is the duty of every citizen to destroy noxious weeds on his or her property as often as every year as is necessary to prevent the spreading of

Had Bake Shop In Palmerston 50 Years

A number of one of Georgetown's oldest street families, Mrs. Albert H. Baird, 96, died in Stratford on May 29th. She was the former Charlotte Jane Baird.

Mrs. Baird was the daughter of John and Isabel McKenzie Bessie and was born near Palmerston on a 5th Line farm. Later, she moved to town with her parents into the house at the corner of Market and Park St. where she resided, John H. Baird, now lives. There she spent her days making up and baking for the bakery which she operated with her husband on January 1st, 1910.

Mrs. Baird had lived for a short time in Palmerston where she had a home until her death at 96 years of age. Her son, Mr. Baird, now lives in Palmerston.

A somewhat different approach, however, must be used by inspectors in dealing with properties which are located in areas of high density and in areas where the family crops are protected. In such cases the inspector must have prescribed notice from a local newspaper or by registered mail to the owners and occupants of properties which noxious weeds must be destroyed. Provision is now made for such citizens to appeal to the Chief Inspector if they feel the request to be unreasonable.

Such appeal must be made within four days after service of the order. This time limit should be ample as the inspector must give the resident at least seven days to destroy the weeds before any forced action can be taken.

TV's Captain Andy In Town Saturday

CHIEF TV's Captain Andy will be in town Saturday with the members of the Georgetown Junior Fire Brigade.

He'll arrive at the fire hall early Saturday evening for a grand tour of the town aboard one of the Georgetown Fire Department trucks, and will probably drop in on the goings on at the Hotel.

Artificial Respiration School Demonstration

On June 2nd at the Stone School, through Mr. and Mrs. Walter Steiner, arrangements were made for a demonstration of artificial respiration by J. Bennett of Georgetown, a qualified instructor of the St. John Ambulance Corps. About forty attended and took part. At the close of the demonstration, a social hour was spent with the ladies of the community very much.

Mr. Gordon L. Smith of Toronto who is retired from the Financial Post has moved into the community on part of the Bert Sinclair farm where about a hundred years ago his late grandfather, William Glass Stewart, taught school.

On May 22nd David Presswood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Presswood had the misfortune of having a fire cracker go off in a pop bottle, smashing the bottle and hitting him in the eye. He has been in Guelph General Hospital where they have hopes of retaining partial sight.

Several ladies of the community attended the district annual of the W.I. at Lowville on the 24th of May. Mrs. George Henderson Sr.; Mrs. K. C. Lind say, Mrs. McClure, Mrs. George Burt, Mrs. Hayes, Marchington, Mrs. Dave Williamson, Mrs. Tom Applegate, Mrs. William Norton, and Mrs. Clara Wilson.

100 Children Compete in Bike Safety Road-E-O

One hundred out of the hundred and fifty cyclists who turned up qualified to compete in the Bike Road-E-O sponsored by Canadian Tire and the Georgetown Police Department Saturday at the Drexel Shopping Plaza.

The entrants were divided into three age groups, 7 to 9, 10 to 12 and over 12, and judged by a panel made up of public and high school teachers. The events were opened by public school board chairman, Ed Wilson, board trustee Roy Hansen, and Canadian Tire representative, Frank Wallace, and were run off under the guidance of traffic safety officer Tyd Scott.

Those who failed to qualify owned bicycles which were not equipped with the required safety accessories.

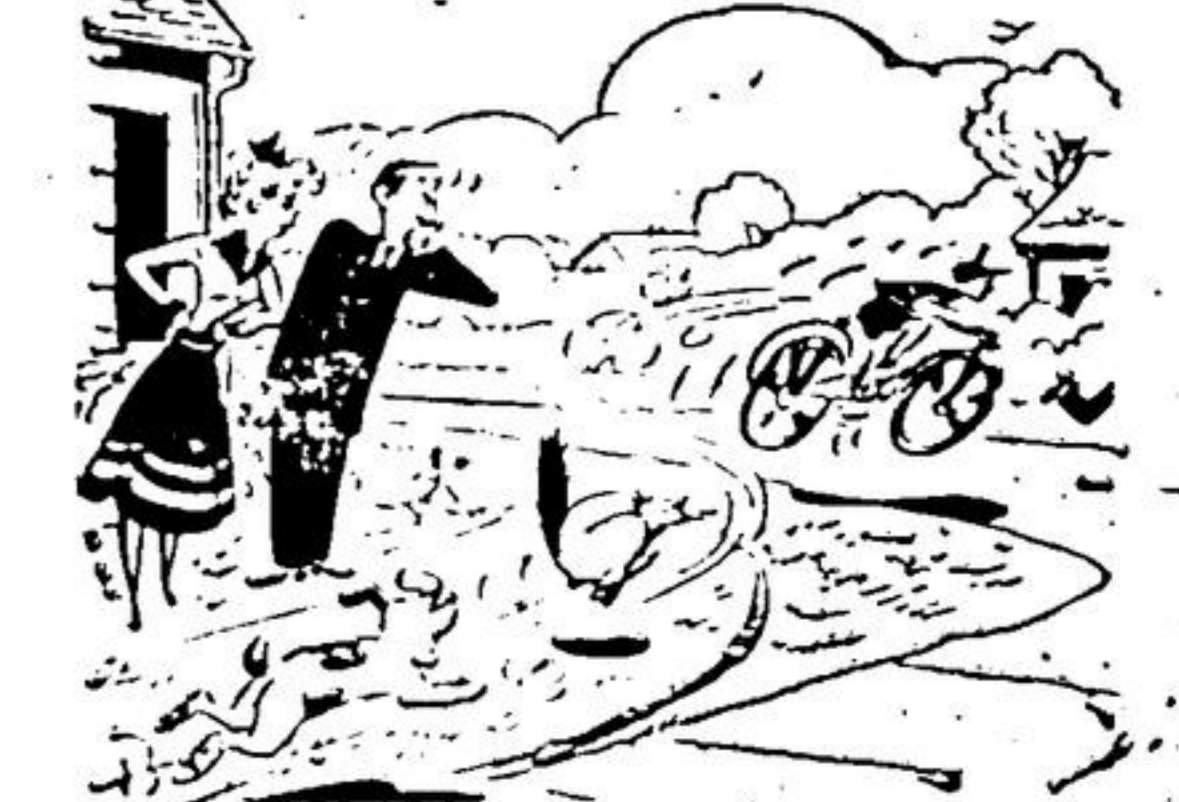

Harry McLoughlin of Kennedy Public School and Linda Stangret of Holy Cross were the best boy and girl cyclists among the junior set, followed by runners up Brent Barkhouse, (Harrison) and Jackie Pignatelli (Holy Cross).

In the 10 to 12 class a Park Public School pupil Norman Hansen, and Frances Linton of Harrison earned top honours. John Garland of Kennedy and Brenda Boyle of Holy Cross were runners up here.

Peter Booth of Harrison and Susan Trott of the same school topped the Elite grades in the events for the over 12 group, edging runners up Don May and Ingrid Langebeck, both of Park.

The judges were Harold Henry, Lynn McLaren, Doug Wray, Logan Macdonald and Glenn Emerson. The third source was Will Ford.
