Terra Cotta Park Opened On June 14th

Despite a drizzling rain, and a wet starting mist, The Hon. Ray Connell, Ontario Minister of Public Works, cut the ribbon yesterday, the official opening of Terra Cotta Conservation Area, on Tuesday afternoon June 14th. The area, first of a number to be established by the Credit Valley Authority, sprawls over 310 acres containing four ponds suitable for swimming, fishing and nature trails.

Mr. Connell, Ontario Minister of Public Works, cut the ribbon yesterday, the official opening of Terra Cotta Conservation Area, on Tuesday afternoon June 14th. The area, first of a number to be established by the Credit Valley Authority, sprawls over 310 acres containing four ponds suitable for swimming, fishing and nature trails.

Mr. A. M. Greenaway, Chairman of the Credit Valley Authority, lauded the foresight of the Provincial Government in setting up the conservation programme. "In years to come, Metro Toronto will be crowded out by the new surrounding towns," he said.
