Install Mrs. Earl Hornby Businesswomen's President

The Georgetown Business & Professional Women's Club held their final meeting of the season at House Tannenhof, Huttonville. Guests for the dinner meeting were Miss Irene Abbott, Regional Advisor of District 4, Mrs. Jessie Black, past president of the Hampton Club, both of Hampton, Miss Gladys Fraser, Miss Margery Mackenzie, Mrs. Silas Smith, Mrs. Ila Pollock and Mrs. Joe Chapman.

Following dinner Miss Abbott installed the new officers in the candlelight ceremony. Miss Marion Robinson presented the newly elected officers to be held in the fall and urged everybody to be preparing for it. Before closing the meeting with the benediction and creed she wished everyone a pleasant summer.

Blind Manor Residents Are Guests at Picnic
The lovely, spacious grounds of Apply College at Oakville, were the scene of the Annual Picnic for the registered Blind of Halton and Peel Counties on Wednesday afternoon, June 22.

The picnic was planned by the Advisory Board for the Blind of Halton and Peel Counties. These Boards are part of the well-known National Institute for the Blind. Two women residents of the Manor, Mrs. Ruth Tomline and her escort, Miss Marjorie Thompson, attended the picnic. Through the kindness of Miss H. Tremayne, who is connected with the work for the Blind, they were taken to Oakville by car.

A loud-speaker had been set up on the grounds of the College and when the crowd had assembled, greetings were extended by Mr. Stan Hill, M.P.P. for Halton and Mr. John Leard, second vice-chairman of the Halton Advisory Board. The Originals Club Band of Toronto played a band concert for an hour. They played several medleys of airs from Oklahoma and Gigg. A Scottish medley and a medley of Strauss Waltzes, as well as the march 'Tenderloin' and a group of familiar old ballads known as 'An Old Timer's Waltz' were greatly enjoyed.

Several contests such as guessing the number of beans in a bowl and the number of
