LEGION NOTES

The Legion hopes that many more children of public and separate school age will enter the contest to name the new location of the Cenotaph. It has been our contention for many years that not enough attention is given to the instruction of our young people in the basic reason for a cenotaph existing, as well as the reason for November 11th. We find as time goes by less attention is paid to the memory of those who paid the supreme sacrifice, not only by children, but by the adults as well. We hope that there is any need for a great deal of flag waving or beating of drums to mark the lamentable fact that the cream of western civilization's young men were slaughtered in two wars within a few decades. However, we do think that a great deal more attention could be given to the sacrifices made not only at the schools, but among our adult population. To this end, it would seem that Branch 120 has made a commendable start by renewing interest in the cenotaph. Surely sometime in the future there could be a further effort made, by the branch running a competition for the best essays on the theme "Remembrance."

Very rarely do we read a history of any war, as well written and informative as Leon Wolff's "In Flanders Fields," a history of the Flanders campaign in 1918. We would commend it to anyone for study. Certainly it may give you a different concept of the strategy, ability and even the intelligence of those directing the 1917 campaign, but it is surely an interesting one, made up as

Receives Certificate In Assessing Course June Promotion List Wrigglesworth School

Assistant assessor here for the past five years, C. J. Hibbert has been successful in examinations concluding the Assessment Practice and Principals course, a three year correspondence training course offered by the extension department of Queens University. The course certificate and notification of his success were received recently by Mr. Hibbert who completed the different exams at John Ross College, Guelph in April.

The course involves a year introductory and two years senior training and enables those attaining a pass mark to the letters A.M.A. Two other county candidates were also successful. A Georgetown resident for nine years Mr. Hibbert for four years commuted to his hometown of Toronto where he was employed in the Canadian National Telegraph line office. He resides with his wife Peggy and thirteen year old son Randy at 15 King St. East.

Mrs. Barnett Hostess Anglican Women's Club

Members of the Anglican Women's Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Barnett-Norval for their final meeting of the season last Thursday evening. Mr. William Walker, president was in charge of the evening which took the form of a pot luck supper. The supper was served on tables which were beautifully decorated by Mrs. Barnett. After the supper, singing followed. It was decided to hold the opening meeting of the fall season during the second week of September. Mrs. Walker graciously thanked Mrs. Barnett for her hospitality and all who had contributed to make the evening such a happy occasion.

LEGION NOTES
The last two big winners have been Mrs. M. Hunter, Norval, and Mrs. M. Adams, Guelph St. The "50-50" club is still doing nicely and anyone not in it, should join. The odds are very good.
The picnic was an excellent one by all reports, with a good program arranged by the sports chairman.
There's a big dance this Friday night, and it is hoped a good crowd will be on hand. All proceeds in aid of Hospital Fund.
May we clear up a slight misunderstanding here and now. The contest to name the park is for all children attending any school in the district and up to and including Grade 8 students. Any misconception is entirely due to the writer, who was asked to insert the ad in the Herald and did so, thinking that the term "public school age" covered the necessary territory. Unfortunately this led to misunderstanding on the part of some, a fact for which we are genuinely sorry. We have nothing but contempt for any type of discrimination, and certainly do not practice that which we despise in others. The Legion executive, were naturally unaware of the particular wording of the ad, as they had left it to us to insert.
