Local Man Takes Bride In Beachburg Ceremony

Blue dephatium petals and the bride, Mrs. Margaret Jones, were formed the setting in St. Augustine's Anglican church in Beachburg recently for the marriage of Miss Peggy Jean Anderson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Anderson of Beachburg and Mr. Don Wilkerson son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wilkerson of Georgetown. The pastor, Reverend W. L. Thomas, was the officiating clergyman at the double ring ceremony.

Traditional wedding music was played by the organist, Mrs. W. L. Thomas, accompanying the solemn Mrs. Desmond McGeorgie of Perrinton, cousin of the bride. Mrs. Howard Miller of Prescott was matron of honor and her bridesmaid was Miss June Johnson of Ottawa, cousin of the bride. Another cousin, little Miss Willa McGeorgie of Perrinton was flower girl. The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Theodore Wilkerson of Georgetown, as best man and the guests were led by Robert Johnson, Saucy St. Marie, cousin of the bride and David Lavalie of Beachburg. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a half-length gown of white tulle with lace and nylon tulle over tulle tulle. The long sleeves fell in livy points over her wrists and the bouffant skirt was fastened with three large peppermint falling over nylon tulle ruffles. Her fingernails were of soft pink with applied muds was held in place by a coronet of pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses, stephanotis and white carnations. Her attendants wore identical gowns of nylon chiffon over tulle, fashioned with bouffant skirts, coral collars leading into floating ribbons in the back to

Graduates Present Flag To Glen Williams School

Relating the points of the compass to life, W. L. McNeil, one of Halton's public school inspectors, talked to graduating students of the Glen Williams school when he was guest at a graduation banquet on June 28. 'Stand for New and represents the start, while 'E' is for Education, so important to a person's happiness, he said. And he pointed out that education is acquired in the classroom and in daily living, and must also include a measure of recreation. 'S' is for Self, and it is up to each individual to contribute the most he can to life. 'W' is for Work, without education it is no avail. The evening began with a turkey dinner in St. Alban's parish hall. Grace was read by Nancy Hunter and Bob Keenhead. Toasted the Queen Head table. Toasts were introduced by Henry Klosser. A toast to the school proposed by Eleanor Hill was replied to by a member of the staff, Miss Billie Bowers. Desmond Earl replied to a toast to the Home and School made by Danny Wagstaffe. A flag was presented to the school by the graduating class. Mrs. Spruel, a member of the

European Honeymoon Follows Bongard-Evans City Wedding

Lawrence Park Community Church, Toronto, was decked with white flowers when Miss Susan Lonsdale-Evans was escorted down the aisle by her father, Dr. Griffith H. D. Evans, for her marriage to Mr. David Strachan Bongard. Rev. Douglas E. Bradford and Dr. Ross J. Cameron performed the ceremony uniting the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Evans and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Strachan B. Bongard. For her wedding, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza over pean de soeur, its fitted bodice featuring a portrait neckline and short sleeves. The full skirt fell into a chapel train, and the whole gown was lavishly trimmed with Swiss rose appliques. A braided organza coronet held her short bouffant veil, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

HOW'S YOUR I.Q.?

TODAY'S INSURANCE PROBLEMS ANSWERED

Question: A car purchased by a friend was repossessed not long ago after he had paid for a whole year's Collision insurance. Can he get back any of his insurance premium?

Answer: Yes, the unused portion of his insurance money will be refunded either on a pro-rata basis or a short-rate basis, depending on the particular company. If cancelled by the insured it would be short-rate.
