Tea Party, Variety Show Are Week's Manor Features

By Muriel Thompson

A pleasant little form of entertainment was provided for the residents on Thursday afternoon July 28th, when twelve young girls belonging to the Summer Teens group of the Oakville-Trafalgar Recreation Commission came to the Manor to entertain them. The girls were under the supervision of their director, Miss Dagmar Langer. Before the program began, all the residents in attendance were presented with paper bouillonieres made by the girls themselves, and these were worn during the afternoon. Miss Langer expressed the pleasure felt by the girls in coming to the Manor and then announced the start of the variety program. The program opened with a square dance, The Rakes of Mallow performed by a set of eight girls, with Miss Langer as caller. This was followed by an exhibition of baton twirling performed by four girls, Carol McDonald, Susanne Harbom, Margaret Meddley, and Anne Richardson. Carol was dressed in a black and gold costume while the other girls wore white costumes. Next came the Highland Fling, expertly performed by Isabel Graham with the other girls humming the music. The rest of the program consisted of the singing of a variety of old-time ballads ranging from "I've Been Working on the Railroad," to "Four Leaf Clover." During a social period when cold drinks and cookies were served, the residents and these wholesome young girls had an opportunity to become acquainted with one another and the residents took this opportunity to invite these young girls and their talented director to come again soon. Mr. Bud Brown accompanied the girls and did his share in making this afternoon such a pleasant one.

Since Sunday, July 31st was the fifth Sunday of the month, the church service was conducted by the Oakville-Bronte-Milton Camp of the Gideons. The leader of the service was Mr. Ralph Morton, and the speaker was Mr. Clayton Cole of Pretoria, South Africa, who has come to Canada to study for the Christian ministry and manual Baptist Church in Milton. Mr. Cole had delivered a fine sermon at the Manor about a month prior to the present service and his sermon on this present Sunday was both eagerly anticipated and rewarding. After reading Chapter 3 of Philippians as the Scripture reading, Mr. Cole chose verses 13 and 14 of this chapter as his text. He explained that although Paul had been a leader of the Jewish people and had strictly observed all the Jewish laws and ordinances, he desired to forget all those things and count them well lost if he could but follow Jesus. We too like Paul, can find peace and happiness in Jesus, who should be our Goal and our Saviour.

On Sunday afternoon, August 7th, the Gideons came again to conduct another inspiring service in the auditorium. The lead-

Northern Honeymoon Follows Dore - McGuigan Wedding

Margaret Mae McGuigan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McGuigan, 16 John St. West, became the bride of Bernard Neil Dore, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dore, in Knox Presbyterian Church on Saturday, July 30th at three o'clock. Rev. Alex Calder officiated with Mrs. Edgar Gowland at the organ and Mrs. Ken Ewen as soloist, singing "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Perfect Love." The church was decorated with tall standards of pink gladioli. Mr. McGuigan gave his daughter in marriage. She chose a floor length white nylon gown over satin, fashioned with scalloped lace neckline and long lace sleeves. The skirt fell from lily points at the waist and had sequin flowers, applied on the skirt. A cap headpiece of pearls and sequins held the finger tip nylon tulle veil; the wedding bouquet was of red and white roses.

Miss Ida Crapps, friend of the bride, was maid of honour and bridesmaids were the bride's sister Betty and Jackie Anderson, niece of the groom. All of the attendants' gowns were fashioned identically of organza over satin with matching tulle veil hats, they carried pink button mums and white tulle and they wore white shoes and gloves. The maid of honour was in pink and the bridesmaids in mint green.

George Heynigton, Ballinacraig, a friend of the groom was groomsmen with Bob McGuigan, brother of the bride and Tom Quintal, nephew of the groom, acting as ushers. The wedding reception was held in the Legion Hall and Mrs. McGuigan received for her daughter wearing a blue nylon and lace sheath with white accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses. Mrs. Ivan Anderson, sister of the groom assisted her wearing a full skirted mauve dress with matching duster, white accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Dore travelled to Northern Ontario for the honeymoon and she chose a full skirted blue dress with white organza overskirt, white accessories and a corsage of red sweetheart roses. They will live in Glen Williams. Mrs. Dore is employed at Alliance Paper Mill and Mr. Dore at the Georgetown Hydro.

Guests attended from Brampton, Milton, Toronto, Aurora, Detroit, Guelph, Port Credit and Georgetown.

On Friday evening, August 12th thirty five residents assembled in the dining room to play a few games of bingo and to spend an hour watching the showing of pretty coloured slides with Mr. Stan Allen as the superintendent at the projector. In the bingo games, the numbers for which were called by Mrs. Allen. Mrs. E. Flaxman won two prizes, while one prize was won by each of the following: Mrs. W. Mathias, Eddie Dowdle and Wm Hughes. The first few coloured slides were of personal interest to the residents, since they were pictures of themselves taken by Mr. Allen at various social events during the past year. The remainder of the slides had been taken during a trip enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Allen when they attended a Superintendent's convention at Fort Frances, Ontario in June. The natural beauty of the Rainy River and Lake of the Woods areas with their numerous wooded islands and lovely waterfalls made these slides very attractive. The last of the evening's slides showed Mr. Allen and his friends enjoying the pastime of fishing in the North Bay area and proved that "the big ones do not always get away".

The Christian Business Men's committee of Oakville sent another group of friends to the Manor to conduct the church service on Sunday afternoon, August 14th. The leader of the service on this occasion was Mr. Harland Routledge and the speaker was Mr. Leonard Rayburn. Mr. Routledge read Chapter 13 of St. Matthew's Gospel as the scripture reading and Mr. Rayburn brought out some very relevant points in his explanation of the parable of the sower. Mrs. Art Hall was the pianist for the afternoon, and Mr. Art Hall played an enjoyable violin solo. "Oh, the Precious Blood of Jesus" and "The City Four-Square" several familiar hymns, accompanied by both the piano and the violin were sung. One of these, "Shall We Gather at the River" was sung by request in memory of Mrs. Lela Campbell who had been present at the church service of the preceding Sunday but had passed away suddenly during the intervening week.

Kilborn and Associates for detailed engineering drawings at the Kelso reservoir site. A committee was formed to consider grants on small farm ponds. It was agreed this committee will not interfere with pond grants by the County of Halton.

LEGION NOTES

by Leslie Clark

Once again this week we record the loss of one more well known soldier of this district. Jack Murray, who was company sergeant major of 'B' Company, 12th Regiment, and took that local militia group to Niagara Camp over twenty years ago, providing one of the largest units of the regiment, in what was the biggest camp Niagara had seen in many years. Many of the local business people and Main St. merchants went with him in that, their first taste of military life, and certainly he will be remembered as a real gentleman and a fine NCO. He was a vet of both wars. His son, Ken Murray, is presently RSM of the regiment.

Our most sincere regrets to his family, in the loss of one they loved.

The $9.50 was won this week by Mrs. M. Cook. The draw is still having good results, and we think will pick up again to even greater heights, in the weeks to come.

There will be a dance on Friday night for the Hospital Fund, and it is hoped a good crowd of members and friends will attend. Remember, Friday night, in the auditorium.

We believe judging for the name of the park is now underway, and will be announced in the next couple of weeks.

And with the summer soon a thing of the past, darts and cribbage will soon be starting once more. How time flies!

A number of the Brampton senior NCO's were visiting in the branch, and naturally, started discussing various incidents (and characters) they remembered from war days. A 120 executive member joined the group just as they were discussing some escapades of his. Suddenly he interrupts "You're wrong! That wasn't the time I stole the sixteen hundredweight it was when I sold the colonel's bicycle in Ghent for money for a party." Nice that the boys got it straightened out.

Final arrangements were made for the purchase of gravel rights at the Kelso Dam site from Peel Construction Co. Ltd. at $2,000. The Authority and the Tap of Nassagaweya are permitted to use gravel from the pit on the property.

Approval of the Dept. of Planning and Development was received for a $1,850 survey and preliminary engineering study of the proposed four hour development stretching from the lake shore to the Queen Elizabeth highway at Oakville. Oakville has been declared 95 per cent benefiting, and the remainder of costs will be shared by the four other participating municipalities.

The Authority decided to write to the Ontario Water Resources Commission noting pollution still exists in the creek below Milton.

ask the man who chose gas

Before you install any type of automatic heating in your home, why not "ask the man who chose gas"? We're confident most of the answers will sound like this:

- "Cleanest fuel ever"
- "Dependable—even in the severest weather"
- "— the records prove natural gas is the safest automatic heating fuel"
- "Quiet as a kitten"
- "Costs no more than other automatic fuels"
- "Heating payments are easy—I distribute them evenly over a 10 month period from September to June"
- "If you need service—It's free"

Now is a good time to install natural gas automatic heating equipment. No down payment—no charges 'til September and be sure to ask how you can receive a big $50.00 allowance.
