Mrs. Thomas Parry, 179 Main Street North, has just returned from attending the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Dorothy Mary Bishop in Bournemouth, England. Mrs. Parry had planned to leave here on July 18th knowing that her mother was in ill health, however, she received word of her death and only arrived in time to attend the funeral which was conducted on the 18th of July. Mrs. Bishop was sixty-two years old and had been predeceased by her husband William ten years ago.

Surviving are Mrs. Parry and Mrs. Douglas Noble (Rosemary) of Bournemouth and a son Gordon of Crawley, England. Six grandchildren also are left. Two sons died several years ago.

Breaks Par In Match At Forest Hill Golf Club

Georgetown Golf and Country Club professional, Jim Hurton, was one of sixteen golf pros who broke par during the match at Forest Hill Golf Club, Monday.

Playing with Forest Hills amateurs John Sammit and Ivan Burnstone, Jim shot a 36-34 70 on the par 71 layout.

Only ten other pros including former North Halton pro Larry Edwards with a 60, bettered that score. Oakdale assistant George Knudson fired ten birdies in putting a fantastic 10 under par 81 which won the match.

Ted Arnold Top Golfer At Businessmen's Day

Ted Arnold emerged as golfer supreme at the annual Businessmen's Golf Day at the North Halton Golf and Country Club course last Thursday triumphing over some 104 competing golfers to top low net.

Jim Linton carded the day's low gross and other low gross prizes went to William Anderson, Gob Collier, Sam Mackenzie, E. Anzi, Stan Wade, Lorne Cross, L. Groule, Harry Sanderson, R. Tost, Cec McNamara, Bob McMenemy, Ernie Smith, Norm Herbert and Cec Greenlade.

Behind Ted Arnold in the low net department were Leigh Bradbury, Scotty Patterson, Bob Vasey, Bill Dwyer, Harold Hutchison, Don Barrager, Charlie Jenner, Irwin Noble, Ken McCauley, Iva Woods, Bill Breckenridge, Paul Armstrong, and Dr. J. H. Chamberlain.

Visitors who picked up prizes were: low gross, Bill Mory, 1st add Jim Robertson, and low net Peter Wright and R. Macey. The most honest golfers were C. Keaven, Rev Kenneth Richardson and Jack Creston.

The major prizes in the lucky draw went to Mrs. Dave Spicer and Wellington Wilson.

Glen Takes Honours In Invitation Tourney

Normally a host who invited seven guests to a party and then one by one whipped the ears off them might not be considered the perfect entertainer but the Glen Orioles did it Saturday and got rounds of applause from the 400 plus spectators who sat in on the Glen soft ball tourney in the Glen park.

The Glen stepped on Smith and Stone 5-4, Norval 7-4, and Alton 5-0 and finally Brampton 7-0 to take all the matches in the day long tournament.

High point of the day was Glen pitcher John Holly's perfect game against Alton, in which no Alton batter reached first base even on a walk. Holly stayed hot in the Brampton game when he hurled a four hit shutout after pitching but less ball going into the fourth. The final win was boosted by Bob Webster's round tripper in the Glen half of the 6th inning.

First round scores: Norval 5, Milton 3, Alton 4, Hillsburgh 0, Brampton 3, Geoph 0, Glen Orioles 5, Smith & Stone 4.

Second Round: Brampton 7, Norval 4, Glen Orioles 5, Alton 0.

Final: Glen Orioles 7, Brampton 0.

Limehouse Man Close To Kart Championship

Unless something just short of the supernatural happens, a Scott Motors mechanic, Al Ing, is well on the way to winning the 1960 Karting point champion when the Bridport track winds up an active season there next Wednesday night.

Al, who lives at Limehouse, was 17 points ahead of his closest competitor with two weeks to go and probably clinched the title last night.

A member of the North Halton Kart Club, Al has already captured the Mid Season championship in a 50 lap feature race some five weeks ago and is favoured to duplicate the feat next Wednesday in a similar marathon type event of 50 laps or more. If lady luck is smiling in the right direction he will probably come home with both the points trophy and the 1960 title.

Other local drivers making the Bridport point will be Bill MacCormack, Don Brinklow and Keith Hunter. The Bridport track is being closed pre-maturely this summer because of objections from nearby residents. The track is right in the town.

LOSE MONDAY GAME GLEN GIRLS STILL AHEAD

The Halton County girls softball title may rest in Glen Wilkins after tonight when the Glen girls tangle with Palermo in the 4th game of their best of 5 series for county honours. Palermo blocked the Glen chances for a three game sweep to the crown Monday night, in Hornby when they came up with a couple of big innings to upset their rival 13 to 7. The Glen team was just unable to contain the Palermo platoon which produced four home runs in the game including one with the bases loaded. The Pala carded four runs in both the 2nd and 7th innings. Held to a handful of scattered hits through most of the contest the Glen girls rallied in a last ditch stand in the 7th but the effort did after adding four more runs Betty Stafford pitched for the Glen and went all the way taking the loss, while Helen Baker started and went
