

Ed Peters, 31 Byron St. and Mrs. H. Y. Bradley, Toronto; 6 grandchildren and one great-grandson. He was the last of a family of nine. Funeral service took place on Saturday in Midland where Rev. Wilson Morden of Midland United Church conducted the service. Interment was in Penetang Cemetery. Pallbearers were his grandson Bob Peters of town, Richard Bradley and William Lamb, Toronto; Dean Forde, Montreal; James Kirkwood of town and Bert McMenemy, Grady Valley.

Mrs. Albert Raymond is sentimental. Each time she visits her bank Safety Deposit Box she scolds herself for not having her old fashioned family jewelry re-set . . . but somehow she hasn't the heart to change it. So it stays with her papers and securities, safe in the bank vault.

Ellen Ramsay doesn't own a diamond yet . . . but she'll have one soon in an engagement ring. Like most girls she has plans for marriage and her growing Savings Account in The Canadian Bank of Commerce is earmarked for wedding expenses and purchases for her first home. Precious jewels from the past . . . happy plans for the future . . . The Canadian Bank of Commerce helps protect both. Whatever banking services you need you can be sure they are readily available at any branch of The Canadian Bank of Commerce.
