TOM PATTERSON, founder and planning consultant of the Stratford Shakespearean Festival, presents the annual Four Roses Award to 87-year-old Henry Palmer at the city's flower show. The award, donated by Four Roses Distillers Limited, is the first trophy won by former alderman Palmer since he relinquished public life for horticulture two years ago. Mr. Palmer was one of the festival's most ardent supporters during its formative years.

Church Ladies Present Shower for Bride-Elect

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thompson on the birth of their son on Sept. 15. The new office employees at their home in Streetsville had a cup and saucer shower on Monday night, August 29th, for Mrs. Phyllis Bradley. Mrs. Bradley received fourteen gifts and a miscellaneous shower. The party was given in honor of Mrs. Phyllis Bradley at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Hartrop with thirty ladies of the St. Stephen's Anglican Church attending. Miss Joan and Adele Hartrop were in charge of the party. Mrs. Irene Saunders, Doris Whaley, Irene Saunders and Marion Robertson won the gifts.

Mrs. Wilma Ellis and Mrs. Irene Saunders, sisters of the bride, to be assisted Phyllis to open the gifts. Phyllis thanked everyone for their lovely and useful gifts. Lunch was served. Relatives and neighbours of Peter Bradford gathered at the home of Mrs. Mildred Belzham of Dixie on Friday evening, September 1, to give a miscellaneous shower in honor of Phyllis Bradley. Thirty-five guests were present and an enjoyable evening was had by all. Birthday greetings to Mrs. Bradford were given by Mrs. Belzham who celebrated her 70th birthday on September 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Wan Brunk daughters, Cherie and Sandra, Miss Alex Bradley of Epsom House, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bradley for a week. Don's husband and Peter Sheldon moved to French River for the holiday weekend. The club leaders are busy organizing to start their fall activities. Dave Leslie sprained his knee and chipped his ankle in a ball game on Thursday evening. He was playing for the Streetsville Nash team. The W.A. and W.M.S. held their first fall meeting on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Catehon with ten members present. The W.A. turned in the box tops they had been saving dur-

Georgetown Daughter Joins Isle Of Man Wedding Celebration

Though the actual wedding anniversary was last New Year's day, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bridson of Ramsey, Isle of Man, waited until the family circle could be joined by their daughter Mrs. Sam Penrice of town, for a celebration. Mrs. Penrice and son Douglas spent the summer in her homeland and one of the happy features was a family party at the Regent Cafe to honour the occasion. Mr. Penrice, who flew overseas for a week's vacation missed the party by a day. Mrs. Bridson, who suffers from a rheumatic condition, was much improved in health and it was a great joy to her family that she was able to take part in the celebration. Present for the happy day were son Arthur, his wife and children Paul and Mary from Ellemere Port; daughter Mrs. S. Jones and daughter Sandra from Cheshire, Mrs. Penrice when we look around and see our children and grandchildren we feel it has all been worthwhile. Thank you for an evening we shall always treasure in our memories." Mr. and Mrs. Penrice and Jean, Mrs. Ethel Jones proposed a toast to absent members of the family, her husband, Steve and son Michael; her brother Bill, and son Douglas from Georgetown; and son Geoffrey from Andrews. Their eldest son Bill Bridson, who is pursuer of the Mona's Isle was unable to be present for the day. Other friends joined the family group including Mrs. E. Vessey of Ladest, Andrews who was bridesmaid at the wedding half a century ago. Following dinner, Arthur Bridson proposed the health of his father and mother, paying tribute to the ones who are affectionately called "Ma" and "Da", expressing the family's pleasure at his mother's improvement in health. "Their long and happy married life has been an inspiration to us, and I wish to assure them that they have always had our respect and love," he said. In his reply Mr. Bridson expressed thanks for the good wishes extended. "We have had a happy 50 years together," he said, "and

A pleasant little gathering in Limbhouse Memorial Hall on Saturday evening honoured two of our summer newly-wed couples — Mr. and Mrs. Harry Janssen and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Neutel. Mrs. Gisby was chairman for a short program of dialogues by Simon and Ronnie Janssen, and musical and vocal numbers by Rita Klosser and Ronnie Leferink. Mrs. Roughley presided at the piano for a song song. Mrs. Leferink read a humorous address written by herself. The young couples were presented with a pork juice server for each, and a chrome stepon kitchen can for Harry and Margaret and an electric kettle for Albert and Jane. Both made suitable thank yous. Lunch was served during which Daphne Bennett sang for Mrs. Luke Janssen, mother of Harry and Jane. David McDonald and Mrs. D. S. McDonald with the girls and on Monday the Angus McDonalds. Mr. and Mrs. Backy and family of Milton with the Earl Scotts on Saturday. Miss Heather Leslie and Mr. Alex Leslie of Ayrton have been visiting their sister, Mrs. Bodo Spitzer. Mrs. Raymond Davis and children of New Luskard at the bus Merediths on Tuesday last week. Mrs. Jas. Noble spent a few days in Toronto with Mrs. Geary recently. Mrs. Campbell and Miss W. Campbell have returned after spending the summer at their summer home near Minden. We shall miss the Cyril Clarke's who have moved to Georgetown. At the same time we welcome Mr. and Mrs. Bond and family to the Clarke house. Sunday School children will assemble with the congregation next Sunday at 9.30 for Rally Day and regular classes will begin at 10.30 on Sunday September 10 beginning the fall term. Holiday Bonfires spent last week with courses at Nobleton. Mr. and Mrs. Miles spent a few days in Toronto last week. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Benton spent the weekend with her parents at Meaford.
