Servicemen's Friend
During the War Years
A number of Georgetown servicemen who remember the Palmer family, who provided a home away from home during the war years in England, will regret to hear of the death of Mr. Palmer at his home in Farborough, Hants.

Mr. Palmer and his wife, affectionately known by the servicemen as "Mother Palmer" have a great many friends in town. Writing to the Herald, Mrs. Palmer says:
"I wonder if you will be kind enough to let all the boys know that my husband has died. He had not been very well for about four weeks and died of a heart attack in the early hours of August 13th."

Have heard from Bruce Harley quite recently, also Tommy Warner and we were hoping that they might be coming to England perhaps on the near future. Now I am alone, so very lonely. We shall be glad to hear from any of the boys at any time. I am sure they will all be sorry to hear my sad news. I send my love to them all. — Dorothy Palmer.

Norton Cottage, Ashby Road, Farborough, Hants.
