36 CASES
29 CONVICTIONS
Convictions were registered in 29 of 36 cases which came before the local courts this week.
Of 18 cases tried under local by-laws, 13 drew convictions, 2 were dismissed and 1 was withdrawn. All twelve charges laid under the highway traffic act were also upheld by the court.
Four convictions were obtained under the Liquor Control Act and 4 under the Criminal Code were remanded.

Marchmont, Sykes Tops At New Golf Club
Norm Marchmont and All Sykes emerged as top golfers from the Georgetown Golf and Country Club's first annual Field Day Saturday.
Other major prize winners were Cliff Hibbert and Wayne Preston who registered low nets and Bill Buchanan for the long cut drive. A turkey supper was served to the men after the competition, and prizes were awarded by club professional Jim Burton.
Two club titles will be decided this Saturday. Dave Marchmont and Norm Marchmont are scheduled to play the final round of the Director's Trophy Handicap Match and Harry Chapell and Bill Marchmont will meet to decide the club championship.

Rev. R. J. Stubley is New Rector At Glen Williams and Norval
At a joint service of Evening with the congregations of St. Alban's, Glen Williams and St. Paul's present, the Bishop of the Diocese, Rt. Rev. W. E. Baghall, D.D., announced the appointment of a new rector for the parish of Norval, Glen Williams.
The Rev. R. J. Stubley, E. Th. rector of Norwood, Ont., will begin his new duties on November 1st. Mr. Stubley is married and they have one child.
Following the service which was arranged by the student in charge, Mr. Glen Fritchard, with Rev. K. Richardson, singing Evensong, Rev. J. D. Rathbone as the Bishop's chaplain, the congregations met for a social hour in the parish hall. The combined choirs of Norval, Glen Williams and Georgetown rendered the music under the direction of Mr. H. Lambie with Mrs. Reg Williams at the organ console.

DAVID HART, B.A.
The Certified Public Accountant's firm of Walter H. Pope welcome a new associate this week, Mr. David Hart, B.A. He is well known locally, having lived here as a small child and again for several years as a teenager. His father Jack Hart was the downtown Bank of Commerce Manager before being moved to St. Catharines in 1936.
David Hart attended Georgetown High School from 1944-1946, and from there he went to the University of Western Ontario where he took the Bachelor of Arts degree and worked in Economics. When there, he worked for the insurance company of Toronto, where he was employed until 1948. He is married to the former Elaine Bradley of Toronto, daughter of Mr. Arthur Bradley. They are residing at 4174th Street, Georgetown.
David has already started on his second year of the arduous course of study leading to the Certified Public Accountant's degree. This year's work is administered by the University of Toronto.

TAKE NOTICE
That the Committee of Adjustment for the Town of Georgetown will hold a hearing on Thursday, the 28th day of September, 1960, at the hour of 8 p.m. at the Municipal Building, Georgetown, to hear the application of Leonard Sypfers and Mary Sheehun for relief from By-law No. 5391 (as amended) as and By-law 2123 and 20 according to Registered Plan No. 32 for the County of Halton.
