

4-H Club Members Complete Projects

By J. A. F.

4-H members in three 4-H Calf and one Potato Clubs, and a Forage Club, completed their projects at Milton Fair.

Mr. C. C. Morrow, Superintendent of entries at the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair, judged the 4-H Halstein Calf Club. Mr. Don McLaugh of B. H. Bull & Son, Brampton, judged the Halton 4-H Jersey-Guernsey Show; and Mr. Eric Brown, Production Services, Loxdale, Fieldman, Canada Department of Agriculture, judged the 4-H Beef Calf Club Show.

The Halton 4-H Forage and Potato Club exhibits were judged by Professor Fulkerson of the Field Husbandry Department, O.A.C. Mr. Fulkerson also scored the 4-H Homemaking and Agricultural Club exhibits, the Junior Farmer exhibits and the Junior Institute exhibits.

The exhibits are scored on three standings, A, B, and C, and the 4-H Club members are scored on their work throughout the year out of a total of 1000 points. The results in each division are as follows:

DODGES DOG DENYS DODGE

A Damage estimated at $100 resulted when cars driven by Norman Orval Sica of Norval, and Mark Doucette of 25 Tyers Ave. collided on Guelph Street Saturday.

B According to police report the Shea car, a 1958 Chev, was proceeding west on Guelph when it collided with the oncoming Doucette car, a 1958 Dodge Shea told police he was trying to avoid hitting a dog when the accident occurred. Col. R. D. Whitson investigated.

Arthur Maybanks, Alice Robinson Wed In Queen Street United

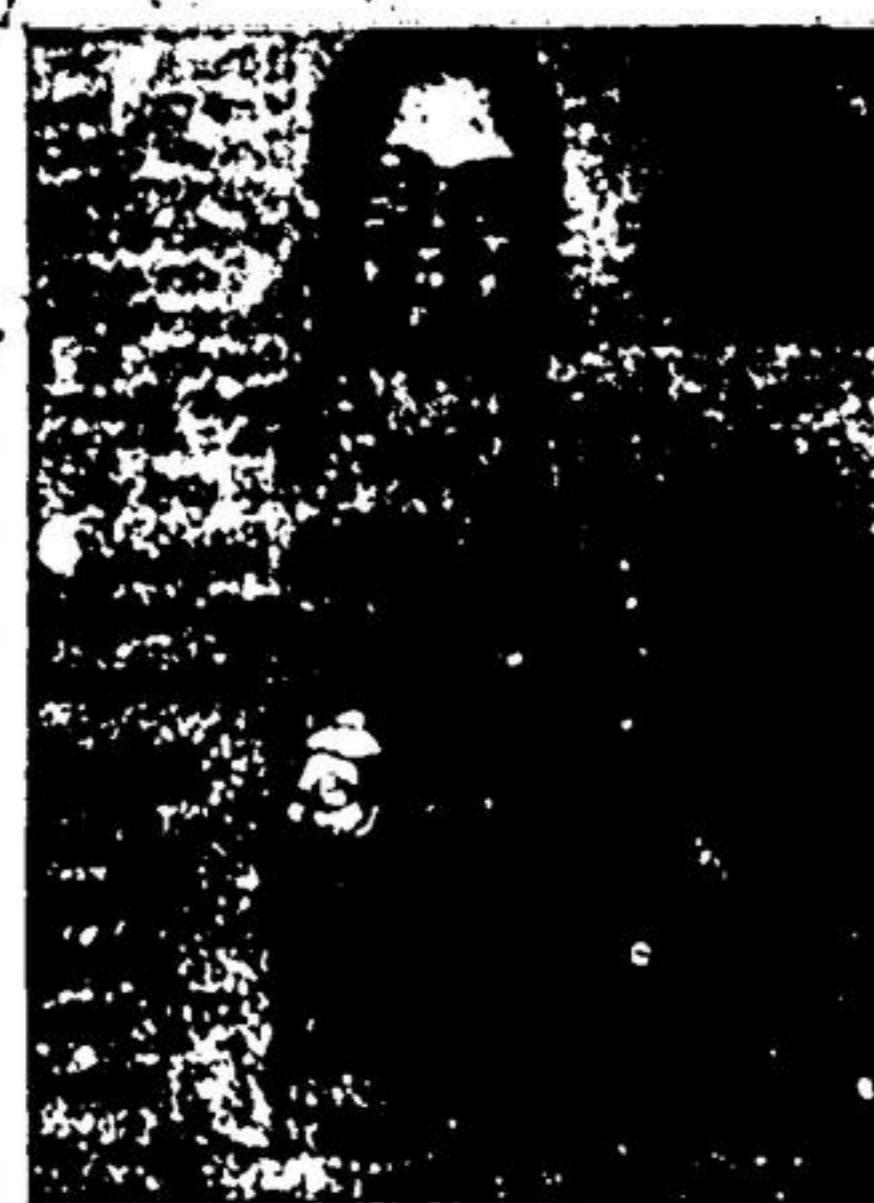

A quiet wedding was solemnized at Queen Street United Church, Toronto, at 3 p.m. on Saturday, September 17th, when Arthur Maybanks, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ern Robinson, Toronto, became the bride of Arthur William Maybanks, son of Mrs. Lily Maybanks, and the late William Maybanks of Georgetown white streamers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white tulle gown of pure silk and white accessories. The bride's sister Miss Donna Robinson was junior bridesmaid, wearing a yellow dress over a frosted white organza of orchid taffeta. She carried a bouquet of yellow sweetheart roses and white carnations with white streamers.

Following a reception at the home of the bride's grandmother they left for a short honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls. For travelling the bride chose an Alice pink chiffon taffeta dress with white accessories, and complemented her ensemble with a shoulder knot of red sweetheart tulle. On their return the couple will live in Georgetown.
