Church Ladies Hear New Minister's Wife

Mrs. Ewart Madden of St. Andrew's United Church was guest speaker at the autumn Thank Offering of the Afternoon Auxiliary of St. John's United Church W.M.S. Mrs. W. Brownridge presided and opened the meeting with call to worship and prayer. Mrs. O. M. Brewster conducted the devotional and gave an inspiring message stressing the thought that people are here that Christ may be in them and work through them. She cannot bear fruit if He is not in us.

Mrs. Madden brought a very thought-provoking message, challenging the members to make good use of the "rod that is in our hands" as God spoke to Moses. She felt anxious to see who were going to be the best of our adults with what He has blessed us with.

Mr. Francis Thompson added much enjoyment to the meeting with a lovely solo. We thank God for him and was accompanied by Mr. Ken Harris on piano.

Guests were present from both churches, St. Andrew's and St. John's, and the attendance was most encouraging.

Refreshments were served to close a very enjoyable and inspiring afternoon.

Surprise Party Marks 25th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John Kollasi, 11 Academy Road, went to Toronto last Saturday evening to attend what they thought was to be a shower for friends of theirs and were completely overwhelmed when they discovered that it was a surprise party for them on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary.

One hundred and twenty-five friends and relatives had assembled in the Holy Eucharist Parish Hall, Toronto, to honour the Georgetown couple. They were given a wonderful banquet and a full orchestra was there to play for the evening's dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Kollasi received many individual gifts and a basket containing 102 silver dollars as well as the heartfelt good wishes for many more years of happiness. Guests attended from Niagara on the Lake, Ottawa, Brampton, Rochester, N.Y. and those attending from Georgetown were Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Yates and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yates.

Criticizes Treatment of Roads in East Georgetown

Supervisor of Roads that will not penetrate water. These roads of course have failed to break up and will continue to do so despite the effort of patching a few days after the rain.

As an avid reader of the paper, I have during the past few weeks found the editorial Mail Bag letters very interesting, especially the ones from Mr. H. N. Martin and Mr. R. McNally, who were pointing out the fact that we have a few men who are "weak links" in our road department.

Mr. McNally has understandably pointed out that we have a few men who are "weak links" in our road department. I would like to see the road department in the hands of a few men who are "strong links" in our road department.
