

Four Bridal Attendants Miersma-Hill Wedding

Calvary Baptist Church at Guelph, decorated with standards of mauve and white chrysanthemums was the scene of the marriage of Diane Sylvia Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hill, 91 John Street East, when she became the bride of Otto Miersma, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Arthur Miersma, 7 Rexway Drive. Rev. Bruce Woods officiated at the double ring ceremony on Thanksgiving Day, October 10th at twelve o'clock. Mr. Lauris Wimburn of Newmarket was the soloist singing O Love Divine and Tender and O Perfect Love. Mr. Ross Philips of Guelph accompanied him on the organ and played during the wedding.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white nylon over net and tulle gown fashioned with a bouffant skirt with appliques of champagne tulle. The fitted bodice had a scalloped neckline of champagne lace trimmed with a ruffled collar. The sleeves were short puffed nylon as were her mittens. A crown of red pearls and rhinestones held the fingertip veil in place. She carried a white baby with a mauve orchid, stephanotis and streamers.

Mrs. Hank Muller, sister of the bride was matron of honor in a street length gown of orchid tulle trimmed with a bouffant skirt and cummerbund topped with a short sleeved jacket. She wore a picture hat of the same material. Mrs. Linda Hays and Mrs. Brenda Hays, friends of the bride were bridesmaid, dressed identically in a deep mauve shade with headpieces of matching materials trimmed into bows and net. All attendants carried colonial bouquets of shaded mauve and white baby mums with stephanotis. For the flower girl in a dress of deep mauve styled in the mode of the attendants. She wore a dutch style sun bonnet of matching material and carried a basket of shaded stephanotis. Master Peter Miersma, brother of the groom was ring bearer.

Arthur Miersma was groomsmen for his brother. Carl Hill, brother of the bride and Bart Miersma brother of the groom were ushers.

Mrs. Hill received for her daughter at a reception at the Jack O'Lantern in a room hung with hat and gloves to match and black accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations. Mrs. Miersma assisted in a beige lace suit with mint green hat and gloves and beige accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. An evening reception was held at the home of the bride also.

Mr. and Mrs. Miersma travel led to Niagara Falls for their honeymoon staying at the Sheraton - Brock Hotel. She chose a mauve jersey wool sheath, small orchid shade hat, black and white accessories and a corsage of mauve orchids.

Mr. Miersma is on the staff of the Miersma Barbershop, 7 Rexway Drive and she is a member of the office staff at Smith & Stone Limited. They will live at 91 John Street East. Guests attended from Newmarket, Brampton, St. Catharines, Toronto, London, Milton, Glen Williams, Lunenburg and Georgetown.
