

Humphrey Foote in hunting season takes every trace of reason. He has only one rule, which is "Shoot it if it moves or twitches."

So when you hunt, don't play the foole.
BE SURE BEFORE YOU SHOOT! Shoot only what the law allows -- the life you save may be your own.

Through the trees the spear before Dorothy went, just past the trumpet, but how he wished that he had waded he found a farmer's spear lying.
