Golf Ladies Start Their Bowling Season

North Halton lady golfers made their annual changeover from five irons to five pins on Monday. Their first afternoon of bowling resulted in Mrs. Stan Finlay's team rocketing into an early lead with six points, followed by Mrs. Ken McCauley's team, 4 points, Mrs. Len Ward's team, 3 and Mrs. Jim Kitchin's team-trails with just 1.

Mrs. Kitchin had the day's best triple, a 566, beating Mrs. Cyril Brandford's 553, and Mrs. Finlay's 544. Mrs. Kitchin also rolled the high single, 243, which was duplicated by Mrs. Finlay. Mrs. Brandford's 233 was second high.

The best average so far belongs to Mrs. Kitchin, 180, while Mrs. Brandford stands just five pins back with 184 and a close third is Mrs. Finlay with 181.

BALLINAFAD

Church Ladies Plan Thankoffering Services

Fourteen members answered roll call for a Thanksgiving from the home of Mrs. Arnold McKenry, hostess for the October meeting of the Ballinafad W.A.

The president opened the meeting with hymn 241 and Mrs. Percy White led in a devotional with scripture readings from Luke 17: 11-19. Hymn 441 was sung to close the devotional.

Plans were made for the Thankoffering service November 6th at which Mr. Yung Miao Lee will be the speaker, and for a Christmas Card making project.

William Sinclair prepared the poem "Home for Homeless" the aim of her topic being that people might become more aware of this problem and what local churches can do about the refugee situation. There are still 2,275,000 refugees.

Mrs. Mike Norton and Mrs. Elwood Snow assisted with refreshments after the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Himes spent Thanksgiving week end in Montreal with her son.

Congratulations and best wishes are extended to Miss Beatrice Hiltz who this week is observing a special birthday.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davis on the birth of a daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wright, a son and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Snow, a son.

CGIT met for their regular meeting on Monday night with perfect attendance. The Young People's group also met Sunday night to plan for the Youth dinner next Friday night.

Congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. T. Given who this week are observing their 25th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Smellie of Fergus are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. Black and family.

Ontario St. Home Damaged by Fire

Smoke damage was extensive in a fire which broke out in the Ontario Street home of Benny Lorrman on Wednesday.

The blaze, believed to have started from an overheated chimney, started above a fireplace inside the wall and firemen had to rip off a section of partition to get at the flames. An estimate of the damage has not been made. Studding and the upper part of the wall suffered the brunt of the fire damage.

The call was turned in at about 3 a.m.

STENOGRAPHIC PROBLEM

"How do you spell tennis?" asked the junior stenographer, struggling with a modern dictaphone letter.

"Which one?" asked the office manager. "Coun or Horse?"

"Well," said the nervous stenographer, "like in 'I haven't seen him since'."

KEEP LOOKING

Trucker "Trey, gal. centre. I haven't found the slightest sliver of chicken in this chicken soup."

Waitress: "Well, let me tell you something, Big Buddy, you won't find any horse in the horseshish, either."
