Ashgrove Institute Views Pictures

On Tuesday evening, October 18th at eight-thirty, 25 ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Russell Hepburn for the V.C.I. meeting. President Mrs. Francis Thompson opened with the ode and creed. In the absence of the secretary Mrs. Len Wize, the assistant Mrs. Gordon Wingfield read the minutes of last meeting and called the roll which was answered by many farm safety rules. Correspondence was read and items of business discussed. Mrs. Millie Bird reported the Institute had 102 entries in the Georgetown Fair. Mrs. C. B. Dick and Mrs. Cecil Wilson gave splendid accounts of the Area Convention in Guelph in September which they had attended. Mrs. Vera Pickett reported on the progress that has been made on the cemetery up to the seventh lane and thanks was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wingfield for cutting the cemetery grass this summer. The motto "Native never" was given by Mrs. ...
