Kid Hockey

by R. A.

Well, once again the young hockeyists of Georgetown have invaded their home of hockey, to John Street. The din and the hub bub of early Saturday morning has come to fever pitch already.

Hairy eyed coaches and managers are trooping in as usual, and surprise is quite a turn out of parents for our first effort. Good show, folks, keep up the attendance, in fact, in view of the old saying, "Remember the old saying, don't send your hockey slogan, don't send your boy to the arena, BRING HIM."

Now, although a few blades need sharpening and new sticks feel chunky, the boys put on a real effort for the first morning of our 1960-1961 season.

There are still a few boys registered, but not on teams. Hurry, and get in boys remember three weeks and then you're on a waiting list.

All games played on Saturday, October 29th were exhibition and points for these games do not go in the record book; however Saturday, November 5th is the first of the regular schedule, and from here on everything is for keeps.

A word here of appreciation. When one walks into our arena this year it's much better and brighter. Lobby meets the eye. Dressing rooms have been renovated, and the brightness in the ice arena itself almost warrants sun glasses. This all adds up to somebody's been working awfully hard. Hats off to our new arena manager, Jerry Asbury and his assistant, Mr. Paul Keenan.
