Anyone Interested
In Nursery School?

36 McIntyre Crescent
October 27, 1960

To the Editor:
Dear Sir:
This letter is addressed to you but it concerns the parents of our pre-school children. Has anyone thought of what an opportunity is waiting for someone interested in starting a nursery school here? Apart from being a business venture, there is a need and demand for one.

Georgetown is always interested in new businesses and industries. There is a buying center. The area apparently has been overbuilt.
If we had a nursery school, we could take a good deal of business from the area. We could have a good deal of business from the area. We could have a good deal of business from the area. We could have a good deal of business from the area.

Yours truly,
J. R. Colter

The church service on Sunday October 16, was conducted by Rev. D. A. Powell, rector of Grace Anglican Church in Milton with Mrs. Ray Waters, as pianist. Other welcome visitors were Mrs. L. G. Smith, leader of the Girls' Auxiliary of Grace Church, and two of the girls, Christine Hicks and Charlotte Comber. Mr. Powell read two scripture lessons, Psalm 24 and part of Chapter 22 of St. Matthew's Gospel. As the text of his sermon, Mr. Powell read verse 6 of Chapter 23 of Isaiah. This verse contains the words: "And wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times and the strength of thy salvation."

Mr. Powell explained that these words were spoken by the prophet Isaiah at a time of great fear and uncertainty for the Hebrew people and that Isaiah preached that the best foundation upon which a people can build is wisdom and knowledge. He said that knowledge is the high moment in Isaiah's life, the moment when he sensed the presence of God in the Temple. This experience changed his whole life and his life became a crusade in the service of God. Yet this experience had occurred amid the usual and familiar things in his life. Mr. Graham stressed the fact that God often comes to us among familiar things although many do not expect Him and spectators of our surroundings.

On Wednesday, October 12, an afternoon service was held at the church. The service was held in the auditorium and was a very interesting service. The service was held in the auditorium and was a very interesting service. The service was held in the auditorium and was a very interesting service.
