

FUTURE FINANCING of hospital ways and means of providing from 1,000 to 1,500 active treatment beds annually to keep abreast of Ontario's increasing population and other hospital problems will go under the microscope for study at the 36th annual convention of the Ontario Hospital Association. This will be held in Toronto's Royal York Hotel on October 24, 25, and 26 and will attract 3,000 or more delegates. Convention theme is "Looked in service hospitals and their communities." Here, Carol M. Carty of Toronto puts hospital problems under the microscope.

Local Boys Join in Brigade Celebration

Boys of Christian Service Brigade of the Maple Avenue Baptist Church are celebrating Brigade Week November 13-20 with special group activities.

The boys are taking part in the Sunday evening services at the church on November 13 at which time special recognition will be given to outstanding members of the group.

At their regular weekly meeting the boys will be hosts to all who care to attend the open house on Friday, Nov. 18th at 7:30 p.m. The new charter for 1960-61 will be presented along with the new membership cards for each battalion member for the coming year.

Boys who will receive special awards at this meeting are Bert Tripp, David Smethurst, Geoffrey Olivier, Ken Gould, Gary Leslie, Dick Page, Donald Gamble, Elliott Klinchuk.

Mr. Robert Olivier is captain of Christian Service brigade 1235 and is assisted by Lieutenants Ken Gould and Abe Teasdale. There is a committee of four men to supervise Mr. Palmer, Mr. Ganton, Mr. Page and Mr. Gartner.

All boys 12 to 18 years of age are given a special invitation.

Bahá'u'lláh ... IN BAHÁ'U'LÁH

The following are the words of Bahá'u'lláh, the Founder of the Bahá'í World Faith:

"This day a door is open wider than both heaven and earth. A new life is, in this age, stirring within the souls of all mankind."

"Verily I say this is the Day in which mankind can behold the Face and hear the Voice of the Promised One. The call of God hath been raised and the light of His Countenance hath lifted up upon all men. It hath bethen every man to blot out the trace of every idle word from the tablet of his heart and gaze with an open mind upon the proofs of His Mission."

"The Revelation which from time immemorial was acclaimed as the purpose and promise of all the Messengers of God hath now come."

For our part, we fully realize the magnitude of these statements and do not present them lightly. Bahá'u'lláh, we believe, is the Promised Christ . . . the Manifestation of God to our age.

If you would enjoy an invitation to an evening discussion, or would like more information please let us hear from you.

Tel. 7-3444 — Tel. 7-9044

SPECIAL LOW C.N.R. FARES TO THE ROYAL AGRICULTURAL WINTER FAIR

TORONTO, NOV. 11-19

For individuals—One way fare and one half for the round trip.

For two or more—C.N.R.'s new Group Economy fares.

For larger groups—low party fares.

Full information from your agent.

Now by C.N.R. the cost is so low it's better than driving.

BY TRAIN
37-40
CANADIAN NATIONAL

HORNBY

Milton Bowlers Sponsor Euchre Party at Hornby

A euchre and bridge party and Mrs. Gear Sinclair and Mr. sponsored by the Milton bowls club was held at the Orange Hall on Wednesday evening. Congratulations to Mr. and November 3rd with nearly one hundred people attending. Mrs. Wilma Hamilton was the winner with the high bridge score.

Mrs. Harold Beattie low score, men's high, Jack Williamson and men's low, Alfred Ball.

The euchre prizes were won by Mrs. E. Telfer ladies high, Mrs. Charlie Thompson ladies low, men's high, Earl Allerton and men's low, Jack Elliott. Ted Jennings won the lucky door prize.

The ladies of the bowling club served lunch.

The W.M.F. and Afternoon W.A. held their November meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson with 14 members and one visitor present.

Mr. Harold Robson, Mrs. Doug Leiby, and Mrs. Gear Sinclair were appointed as the committee to convene a bake sale. The fifth line group was in charge of the program. Mrs. W. Coulton read an article on "Why we stopped giving to charity". Mrs. Roy Wilson gave a paragraph from the study book "Africa". The meeting ended with prayer.

The theme song and Lord's Prayer opened the W.A. meeting. The lunch committee made final arrangements for the bazaar. Church calendars were given to the members to be sold. The president closed the meeting with prayer.

The members of the D.O.T. held their annual dinner at the Orange Hall. Approximately eight people enjoyed the turkey dinner catered by the Hornby Women's Institute.

Euchre was played with the prizes being won by Mrs. Delbert Downs, high, Mrs. Fuller low; men's high was won by John Wallace and low man's by Howard Bradley. The music for the dance was supplied by Mr.

Solicitor's Mother on Home and School Panel

The largest meeting of Home and School people ever to be held in Canada is planned for Toronto on Thursday, November 17th, when a group of noted press and broadcasting persons will interrogate Home & School leaders on the place and worth of the movement in the Canadian picture, in an unheated program at Massey Hall at 8:15 p.m.

Arnold Edinborough, editor, Saturday Night, will chair the program. The interrogation team will be Miss Lotta Dempsey, columnist, Toronto Star; Miss Gwen Grant (CBC Open House) hostess; John Collingwood Read (independent radio commentator); J. Bosco St. John (Education writer, Globe & Mail); Frank Tampane (columnist, Toronto Telegram).

The Home and School group will consist of five members of the Executive of the Canadian Home and School and Parents Teachers Federation; Mac Bedford, Saskatoon; Mrs. G. C. V. Hewson, Toronto; Mrs. R. V. McCullough, Red Deer, Alberta; Jack Sault, Shelburne, N.S.; Douglas Walkington, Hudson, Quebec. Mrs. Hewson is the mother of local solicitor George Hewson.

As a curtain raiser to the main program, all 19 members of the Executive, drawn from nine provinces, will appear on stage briefly to meet Ontario Federation members, and other parents in the audience.

"We want to dispel any idea of press and public that we are a 'sleeping giant' and reluctant to talk about what we are doing," says Mr. Walkington, president of the Canadian Federation. "Home and School is by far the largest voluntary organization in Canada and we are proud of what we are — of our beliefs, our achievements, our strength, our aims — and we are glad of this opportunity to face public questioning, however searching, by this group of distinguished interrogators."

Admission to Massey Hall will be free. Reserved seats may be obtained (while they last) from Home and School, 350 Dundas St. West, Toronto (Empire, B-1307), or from presidents of most Home and School Councils and Associations.

face public questioning, however searching, by this group of distinguished interrogators."

After a short illness, Thomas James Fisher died at Milton District Hospital on Saturday, October 29th, 1960, in his 81st year.

Born in Esquerring Tap on Sept. 8, 1879, he was the youngest son of a family of eight of the late William Fisher and Mary Miller Fisher. He attended Waterloo public school and was a member of Boston Presbyterian Church in Esquerring later transferring to Knox Presbyterian Church, George Town.

On September 15th, 1909, he married Lillian Agnes Wilson and farmed on the 5th Line, Georgetown, until he retired to Georgetown in 1944 where he enjoyed good health until a few weeks ago. He lived at 29 Charles St.

As a "curtain raiser" to the main program, all 19 members of the Executive, drawn from nine provinces, will appear on stage briefly to meet Ontario Federation members, and other parents in the audience.

"We want to dispel any idea of press and public that we are a 'sleeping giant' and reluctant to talk about what we are doing," says Mr. Walkington, president of the Canadian Federation.

"Home and School is by far the largest voluntary organization in Canada and we are proud of what we are — of our beliefs, our achievements, our strength, our aims — and we are glad of this opportunity to face public questioning, however searching, by this group of distinguished interrogators."

After a short illness, Thomas James Fisher died at Milton District Hospital on Saturday, October 29th, 1960, in his 81st year.

Born in Esquerring Tap on Sept. 8, 1879, he was the youngest son of a family of eight of the late William Fisher and Mary Miller Fisher. He attended Waterloo public school and was a member of Boston Presbyterian Church in Esquerring later transferring to Knox Presbyterian Church, George Town.

On September 15th, 1909, he married Lillian Agnes Wilson and farmed on the 5th Line, Georgetown, until he retired to Georgetown in 1944 where he enjoyed good health until a few weeks ago. He lived at 29 Charles St.

He is survived by his widow, a daughter, Beta (Mrs. A. G. Hunter of Burlington), and a son, Lloyd, of B.R. 3, Georgetown. Seven granddaughters, a sister, Mrs. Gertrude Currie, a brother, George, of R.R. 3, Georgetown.

As a "curtain raiser" to the main program, all 19 members of the Executive, drawn from nine provinces, will appear on stage briefly to meet Ontario Federation members, and other parents in the audience.

"We want to dispel any idea of press and public that we are a 'sleeping giant' and reluctant to talk about what we are doing," says Mr. Walkington, president of the Canadian Federation.

"Home and School is by far the largest voluntary organization in Canada and we are proud of what we are — of our beliefs, our achievements, our strength, our aims — and we are glad of this opportunity to

face public questioning, however searching, by this group of distinguished interrogators."

After a short illness, Thomas James Fisher died at Milton District Hospital on Saturday, October 29th, 1960, in his 81st year.

Born in Esquerring Tap on Sept. 8, 1879, he was the youngest son of a family of eight of the late William Fisher and Mary Miller Fisher. He attended Waterloo public school and was a member of Boston Presbyterian Church in Esquerring later transferring to Knox Presbyterian Church, George Town.

On September 15th, 1909, he married Lillian Agnes Wilson and farmed on the 5th Line, Georgetown, until he retired to Georgetown in 1944 where he enjoyed good health until a few weeks ago. He lived at 29 Charles St.

He is survived by his widow, a daughter, Beta (Mrs. A. G. Hunter of Burlington), and a son, Lloyd, of B.R. 3, Georgetown. Seven granddaughters, a sister, Mrs. Gertrude Currie, a brother, George, of R.R. 3, Georgetown.

As a "curtain raiser" to the main program, all 19 members of the Executive, drawn from nine provinces, will appear on stage briefly to meet Ontario Federation members, and other parents in the audience.

"We want to dispel any idea of press and public that we are a 'sleeping giant' and reluctant to talk about what we are doing," says Mr. Walkington, president of the Canadian Federation.

"Home and School is by far the largest voluntary organization in Canada and we are proud of what we are — of our beliefs, our achievements, our strength, our aims — and we are glad of this opportunity to

face public questioning, however searching, by this group of distinguished interrogators."

After a short illness, Thomas James Fisher died at Milton District Hospital on Saturday, October 29th, 1960, in his 81st year.

Born in Esquerring Tap on Sept. 8, 1879, he was the youngest son of a family of eight of the late William Fisher and Mary Miller Fisher. He attended Waterloo public school and was a member of Boston Presbyterian Church in Esquerring later transferring to Knox Presbyterian Church, George Town.

On September 15th, 1909, he married Lillian Agnes Wilson and farmed on the 5th Line, Georgetown, until he retired to Georgetown in 1944 where he enjoyed good health until a few weeks ago. He lived at 29 Charles St.

He is survived by his widow, a daughter, Beta (Mrs. A. G. Hunter of Burlington), and a son, Lloyd, of B.R. 3, Georgetown. Seven granddaughters, a sister, Mrs. Gertrude Currie, a brother, George, of R.R. 3, Georgetown.

As a "curtain raiser" to the main program, all 19 members of the Executive, drawn from nine provinces, will appear on stage briefly to meet Ontario Federation members, and other parents in the audience.

"We want to dispel any idea of press and public that we are a 'sleeping giant' and reluctant to talk about what we are doing," says Mr. Walkington, president of the Canadian Federation.

"Home and School is by far the largest voluntary organization in Canada and we are proud of what we are — of our beliefs, our achievements, our strength, our aims — and we are glad of this opportunity to

face public questioning, however searching, by this group of distinguished interrogators."

After a short illness, Thomas James Fisher died at Milton District Hospital on Saturday, October 29th, 1960, in his 81st year.

Born in Esquerring Tap on Sept. 8, 1879, he was the youngest son of a family of eight of the late William Fisher and Mary Miller Fisher. He attended Waterloo public school and was a member of Boston Presbyterian Church in Esquerring later transferring to Knox Presbyterian Church, George Town.

On September 15th, 1909, he married Lillian Agnes Wilson and farmed on the 5th Line, Georgetown, until he retired to Georgetown in 1944 where he enjoyed good health until a few weeks ago. He lived at 29 Charles St.

He is survived by his widow, a daughter, Beta (Mrs. A. G. Hunter of Burlington), and a son, Lloyd, of B.R. 3, Georgetown. Seven granddaughters, a sister, Mrs. Gertrude Currie, a brother, George, of R.R. 3, Georgetown.

As a "curtain raiser" to the main program, all 19 members of the Executive, drawn from nine provinces, will appear on stage briefly to meet Ontario Federation members, and other parents in the audience.

"We want to dispel any idea of press and public that we are a 'sleeping giant' and reluctant to talk about what we are doing," says Mr. Walkington, president of the Canadian Federation.

"Home and School is by far the largest voluntary organization in Canada and we are proud of what we are — of our beliefs, our achievements, our strength, our aims — and we are glad of this opportunity to

face public questioning, however searching, by this group of distinguished interrogators."

After a short illness, Thomas James Fisher died at Milton District Hospital on Saturday, October 29th, 1960, in his 81st year.

Born in Esquerring Tap on Sept. 8, 1879, he was the youngest son of a family of eight of the late William Fisher and Mary Miller Fisher. He attended Waterloo public school and was a member of Boston Presbyterian Church in Esquerring later transferring to Knox Presbyterian Church, George Town.

On September 15th, 1909, he married Lillian Agnes Wilson and farmed on the 5th Line, Georgetown, until he retired to Georgetown in 1944 where he enjoyed good health until a few weeks ago. He lived at 29 Charles St.

He is survived by his widow, a daughter, Beta (Mrs. A. G. Hunter of Burlington), and a son, Lloyd, of B.R. 3, Georgetown. Seven granddaughters, a sister, Mrs. Gertrude Currie, a brother, George, of R.R. 3, Georgetown.

As a "curtain raiser" to the main program, all 19 members of the Executive, drawn from nine provinces, will appear on stage briefly to meet Ontario Federation members, and other parents in the audience.

"We want to dispel any idea of press and public that we are a 'sleeping giant' and reluctant to talk about what we are doing," says Mr. Walkington, president of the Canadian Federation.

"Home and School is by far the largest voluntary organization in Canada and we are proud of what we are — of our beliefs, our achievements, our strength, our aims — and we are glad of this opportunity to

face public questioning, however searching, by this group of distinguished interrogators."

After a short illness, Thomas James Fisher died at Milton District Hospital on Saturday, October 29th, 1960, in his 81st year.

Born in Esquerring Tap on Sept. 8, 1879, he was the youngest son of a family of eight of the late William Fisher and Mary Miller Fisher. He attended Waterloo public school and was a member of Boston Presbyterian Church in Esquerring later transferring to Knox Presbyterian Church, George Town.

On September 15th, 1909, he married Lillian Agnes Wilson and farmed on the 5th Line, Georgetown, until he retired to Georgetown in 1944 where he enjoyed good health until a few weeks ago. He lived at 29 Charles St.

He is survived by his widow, a daughter, Beta (Mrs. A. G. Hunter of Burlington), and a son, Lloyd, of B.R. 3, Georgetown. Seven granddaughters, a sister, Mrs. Gertrude Currie, a brother, George, of R.R. 3, Georgetown.

As a "curtain raiser" to the main program, all 19 members of the Executive, drawn from nine provinces, will appear on stage briefly to meet Ontario Federation members, and other parents in the audience.

"We want to dispel any idea of press and public that we are a 'sleeping giant' and reluctant to talk about what we are doing," says Mr. Walkington, president of the Canadian Federation.

"Home and School is by far the largest voluntary organization in Canada and we are proud