

BETTY FEIST'S FAMOUS FLASHETTES

A PARADE would not be a parade without some baton twirling young maidens and for Saturday's spectacle the Georgetown Lions have employed the best. They're Betty Feist's Famous Flashettes and Drum Corps of Hamilton who made such a hit when they marched here earlier this year in the Koozie parade.

Church Groups Elect Officers for 1961

The Christmas meeting of the Hornby United Afternoon W.A. and W.M.S. was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lew Sampson. Fourteen members were present. The banquet committee made final arrangements for the banquet on December 16. The Seventh Line and Mrs. Stinger assisted the group were in charge of the program. Mrs. Winch, Mrs. Robson, and Mrs. Sampson read a story on several of the better known Christmas Carols. Everyone joined in with them to sing the choruses. The meeting at the Hornby Slumberettes 411 Homemaking Club last Saturday was opened by prayer. The W.A. opened in the usual manner.

After discussing the subject it was decided to give the General W.A. $200.00. The homes for next year's meetings were listed and the lunch committees were appointed. The election of officers followed. For the W.M.S. president Mrs. L. Sampson; 1st vice Mrs. D. Leylie and the secretary treasurer Mrs. H. Robson. For the W.A. president Mrs. R. Wilson; 1st vice president Mrs. A. March; an attraction. Mrs. A. Marchment, Mrs. May, Mrs. Stinger assisted the hostess to serve lunch. A bale valued at $100.00 was packed Robson, and Mrs. Sampson read to be sent to the Fred Victor Mission, Toronto.

The girls fitted their garments and did more sewing on them. Names were drawn for Christmas gifts for their next meeting on December 17. The hostess served a delicious lunch less served a delicious lunch. Several children and grown ups from the Hornby district were seen at the Santa Claus parade in Milton. The Hornby Garage entry with two clowns in attendance proved to be quite an attraction. Mrs. Howard Bradley visited with Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Edwards in Toronto on their six birth wedding anniversary on December 1.

Work on the new rectory that is being built next to the St. Stephen's Anglican Church, is really progressing. The contractor from Oakville is now laying the cement blocks for the cellar. The senior pupils of Hornby Public School held their first Fun Fair on Friday evening at the school. They made twenty-seven dollars from their bake table, flower table, touch and take and used books. Miss Carol Ward was the winner of the Christmas cake in a draw. The money is to be used for sports equipment.

Action For Peace Urged

Women as givers of life and teachers of the young can do much to close the gap on world differences, the Women's Federation of Kingston Road United was told Wednesday. The speaker was Mrs. G. N. Swanson, secretary of Voice of Women. "We women to-day must decide whether through our enterprise, example and enthusiasm, women will go forward to strengthen their position and take their rightful place as full partners in every phase of society," said Mrs. Swanson. "Or are we to allow foundations already laid to crumble into dust and be forgotten as we sink into inertia and boredom." She urged her audience to join VOW. "Join us as individuals, and also take the idea back to your groups," said Mrs. Swanson. VOW she described, as a movement dedicated to resisting war and the threat of war and to turning the minds of men to peace. The group is attempting to establish a branch of their organization locally.
