

Rotarians are Hosts to 150 Senior Citizens

Turkey Dinner, Music Program Highlights

A toast to the Senior Citizens, proposed by John Ord, was followed by Fred McNelly, on behalf of the guests.

The president introduced the lead table guests, including, as well as those giving the toasts, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ritchie, an old and valued member of the Club, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Hill, M.P., and Mr. Sandy Best, M.P.

Entertainment was provided by some outstanding local talent with M.C. Steamer, Emmerson, pianist; Kenneth Harrison, Sandra Sprout, Barbara Evans, David Farnell, Roy and Christopher Clark, on the piano; and Tom Troutman and Tom Duce, who sang numbers were also given by members of the local brass band, Joe Wilcox, Norma Long, Wally Parker and Karl Allen.

Santa Claus paid his traditional visit, giving presents to everyone.

Guests arrived to attend the 8th annual Senior Citizens dinner, one of the coldest evenings possible. However, this did not deter over 150 senior citizens from attending on Monday in Knox Presbyterian Church hall.

During arrival of guests and dinner, music was supplied by Paul Barber on a Baldwin organ, to everyone's enjoyment.

Guests were registered at the door by Mr. and Mrs. Leslie M. Clark and were welcomed by Rotary president and Mrs. Ralph E. Friswell. Transportation was provided by Rotarians.

Responsible for catering for the turkey dinner were wives of the Rotary Club, the Rotary Annex, and they were helped in service by Georgetown Business & Professional Club members.

Toast included "The Queen" by chairman Frank, and Grace proposed by Dr. McAllister and

Christmas Lessons Told In Talk to Missioners

The Christmas meeting of St. John's United Church WMS was well attended and several lessons were welcomed by the President, namely Mrs. Susan of Cedarvale School, Mrs. W. G. Lewis and Mrs. K. McArthur. Mrs. K. Jones opened the devotional period with hymn 54.

"Christmas is a time of Gladness, Joy and Love," stated Mrs. Jones. "God's Angels Still Praise 'Lo I Bring you good tidings of Great Joy'. Christmas is a time of gladness in God's love in that He sent His only Son to our world. How shall we not rejoice in this great gift?"

Mrs. Ian Fleming in dedicating the love gift stressed the need for more kindness in our homes, communities, and through out the world.

Mrs. Sandra Sprout favoured with two lovely Christmas solos and was accompanied by Kenneth R. Harrison.

Mrs. O. M. Houston brought a very inspiring timely message telling of important lessons that are found at Christmas. Most important is that of Hospitality, then followed by Joy, Love, Peace, Hope, Worship then Telling and Giving. Mrs. Houston stressed the real value of these and asked that the ladies ponder these in their hearts not only at Christmas but all through the year.

A cup of tea was then served by Mrs. A. M. Nielsen, Mrs. V. Macdonald and Mrs. Clarence Hayes. Mrs. Val Stein moved a vote of thanks to all contributing.
