HELPS SWELL BLOOD BANK

MISS MURIEL NEWNS of 221 Church Street is attended by Mrs. Alister Macintosh, 10 Montrose Crescent, after giving blood at the Red Cross Blood Depot, last Wednesday. It was the second such case in the city this year and received more than two hundred to contribute.

Four Blood Donors to Get Special Certificates

Have Given Blood 20 or More Times

The Georgetown branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society held their second blood clinic this year in the Knox Church hall, Wednesday, December 14. The clinic was very successful with over 200 donors.

Mrs. Ferguson and Mrs. McPherson, chairmen of the clinic, were assisted with the general duties by Mrs. York, Mrs. Goodwin, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Macintosh, Mrs. Barber, Mrs. Tuck and Mrs. Rosemary Jordan.

The nurses assisting were Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. McIntosh, Mrs. Thompson, and Mrs. Lawson.

The typists were Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Lytle, Mrs. Brown, and Mrs. Bradley.

The Coca Cola was donated by the Coca Cola company and the Women's Auxiliaries of the Knox Church served coffee and doughnuts.

Transportation to and from the clinic was looked after by Mrs. Kirby and the men from the Volunteer Ambulance Services helped by setting up the hall for the clinic.

Mr. Albert Bolton, from Hamilton, business administrator of the Red Cross Blood Clinic, visited the clinic during the afternoon. Dr. Chamberlain was on call for the clinic.

There were four donors who had donated twenty or more times and they are receiving special certificates.

A letter received recently from Red Cross headquarters at Toronto, stated "Area 4" which is Hamilton, Dept. has collected over 46,000 donations in the past year. This is the highest number since the opening of this depot in 1949.

Success of these clinics has been possible through the continued efforts of the clinic chairmen, convener, committee, volunteers, depot staff and of course the splendid response of the donors.

Mother Shipton's Prophecies

Because of the uncanny manner in which the prophecies of Mother Shipton have been coming to pass during recent years, considerable attention has been attracted to this strange creature of four centuries ago. Even those who have in the past scoffed at the weird predictions of this ancient "witch" are now stirred by curiosity to wonder what will next occur in this direction.

Several years ago the Herald printed the prophecies, and recently they were again drawn to our attention by Mrs. W. Bowman, "R.R. 3," who brought in a clipping from the Gravenhurst Banner.

Mother Shipton, we are told, was born in Yorkshire, England in July 1489, and died about 1559. In books of information she is described as a half mythical English prophetic, baptised Ursula Southall, who later married Tony Shipton, a builder. According to tradition, she was the child of Agatha Shipton and the Devil.

The following extracts from her amazing prophecies were taken from a scrap book made more than forty years ago and owned by a Rochester woman, says the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

A house of glass shall come to pass.

And the centre of a bishop's see.

Around the world thoughts shall fly.

In the twink of an eye Through the hills men shall ride And neither horse or ass bestride.

Under water shall walk, Shall ride, shall sleep, shall also talk.

Iron in the water shall float As easily as a wooden boat.

Gold shall be found and shown In a land that's now unknown.

Fire and water shall wonders do.

And England shall admit a Jew Three times three shall Jew's estate.

He led to dance a bloody dance Before her people shall be free.

Three tyrant rules shall see, Each springing from a different dynasty.

And when the last great light is won, England and France shall be as one.

And now a word in uncouth rhyme Of what shall be in latter time In those wonderful far off days Women shall get a strange new grace.

To dress like men and breeches wear And out of their beautiful backs of hair.

And ride astride with brazen brow As witches do on broomsticks now.

Then love shall die and marriage cease And babes and sucklings so decrease.

That wives shall fondle cats and dogs And men live much the same as hogs.

In eighteen hundred and ninety six Build your houses of rotten sticks, For then shall mighty wars be planned, And fire and sword sweep through the land.

And those who live the century three In fear and trembling this will do.

Fly to the mountains and to the glens To bogs and forests and odd dens.

For tempests will rage and oceans will roar And Gabriel stand on sea and shore.

And as he toots his windrose horn Old world shall die and now be born.

In the war men shall be seen In white in black and also green.

So strange but yet they shall be true The world upside down shall be And gold shall be found at the roots of a tree.

When pictures look alive with movements free, When ships like fishes swim below the sea, When men outstripping birds can scour the sky, Then half the world deep drenched in blood shall die.

The Christmas Women's Institute meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Fred Nurse on Tuesday afternoon, December 15th with the president, Mrs. Francis Thompson opening by all singing "Jingle Bells." See reports Mrs. Len Cox read the minutes of the November meeting and called the roll, which was answered by "My First Christmas Recollection" and many humorous incidents were given.

Plans were made to assist a needy family for Christmas with each member offering something towards it. Every one was in favor of the meet- ing starting at two o'clock. Thank you notes were read from sick ones remembered, after which the program was turned over to Mrs. James Carney who called on Mrs. Milton Bird for the motto "Each loving thing must have its start, as a dream and prayer in some man's heart."

Vocal duets by Mrs. Francis Thompson and Mrs. H. Bird, Birthday of a King, and Put Christ back into Christmas were much enjoyed. All sang some of the lovely Christmas carols.

Two grand contests, one on Merry Christmas and second one was guessing the pictures of TV personalities, then Mrs. Bob Alexander and Mrs. Ford Wickson conducted a demonstration on Christmas recipes and also for entertaining during the holiday season.

They had some wonderful goodies on display and also gave out the typewritten recipes and at the close all sampled the finished product along with the lunch.

Mrs. Ernie Tindale thanked the hostess for use of her beautiful home and everyone who had made such a grand Christmas meeting possible. A social hour concluded the afternoon.

A lovely White Gift service was held Sunday morning when the children brought their gifts and placed them in a white basket at the front of the church and they will be sent to a very needy place where children might not receive any gifts.

It's time again to say May Peace and Joy be yours this Christmas season. The cheery Christmas candles and gleaming holly too, are not a bit more bright or gay, than this glad wish for you.

Merry Christmas Everybody.

Family Dinner Marks 92nd Birth Date

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Tindale celebrated a family dinner on Monday at Moffat for her mother Mrs. W. Dingle who was celebrating her 92nd birthday.

Members of the family were present and their mother received many lovely gifts.

Wives of men serving with Canada's 4th Infantry Brigade Group find health clinics waiting to serve them and their children overseas in much the same fashion as those left in Canada. In each of the "dependent patches" of Weil, Heiser and Soest, a doctor is on call at all times and nursing sisters help the newcomers.

The clinics are planned to look after the dependents only. The soldiers are treated by the doctors attached to their units by the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps. An RCAMC doctor attends all clinics, and one is on call at all times, day and night. The doctor on duty must stay about his quarters after hours, so is less than five minutes away from the clinic at any time.

No chances are taken with the patient's health. The attending doctor treats about 85 per cent of all cases, but a serious one is shipped off to the British Army Medical Hospital at Islington where immediate attention is available to all Canadian personnel.

Soest has the largest clinic attendance, we noted, as the PMK and "economy" population is almost double that of the other communities. Well over 1200 cases are handled each month, dropping off during the summer but jumping back with the coming of cold, wet weather and respiratory infections. Little difference is noted in disease incidence here and back home. People are about the same wherever they are.

Births to the Brigade run to about 600 a year, with an average of 30 in the Brigade Headquarters area at Soest. The British Military Hospital handles all.

Normal clinics are held each morning and Monday afternoon.

When mothers and their children attend New babies are checked over at the Well Baby Clinics on Tuesday after- noons and mothers are expected to bring their infants in weekly for the first month. After that they come in every two or three weeks for "weighing in."

The natal care is the rule for Thursday afternoon, and specialists attend Friday afternoon to examine cases referred to them.

Perhaps one advantage over clinics at home is the follow- up available for checking up on every hospital case.

A charge of $3.00 is made for day calls at the office, and $2 for each subsequent call, with a $3.50 charge for night calls. House visits, day, are $4.00, with each subsequent call $3.00. Extra patients seen at the same call are charged $2.00. House calls at night cost $5.00 — and this may include the husband home from "work." Radiology costs $5 a treatment, with subsequent treatments of the same area, $2.50. Inoculations and regular clinics are free.

We met Major F. J. Evans, a native of Prince Edward Island, who had just taken over the Soest Clinic from Major Brian St. L. Laddy, a native of Ireland. Major Evans received his degree from Ottawa University, and did his post graduate studies at Kingston and Toronto.

Assisting is Capt. L. Fournier of Quebec City, and Nursing Sister Lieut. M. June Horrocks of South Burnaby, B.C.

Augmenting the Staff are Mrs. Muriel Campbell, Reg. Nurse of Brockville, and Mrs. Jean Fortiery, Reg. Nurse, of British Columbia, both married to officers serving over here.

German nationals assist with administration, driving and other non-medical departments.
