Prominent in Church Work at Stewarttown

The Stewarttown Community was saddened on Thursday by the death of Mrs. Mary A. Baily, 77, a long time resident of the village and a most valued member of the congregation of St. John's Anglican Church. The service in the church Sunday was a memorial service to honour Mrs. Baily, the Rev. J. E. Maxwell remembering her as a worker, with and for God, as one who chose to serve and not to be served, to give and not to receive. She patterned her life after that of Dr. and Mrs. Alistair Macin- St. Paul. She had served faith-10 McIntyre Crescent, fully in every branch of her
