

CURLING CHATTER

FROM THE COUNTRY CLUB

Parking space at the front of the club is sometimes at a premium, especially when another meeting is being held at the club. A floodlight on the east end of the parking lot would be a convenience the curlers would appreciate those dark, stormy nights. And while we're at it, more light at the driveway entrance would make it easier to find where to turn off Maple Avenue.

Ten Commandments for Curlers

Here are ten commandments clipped from another paper that makes good reading:

1. Thou shalt have no other game before me, for I am the roarin' game which was in the beginning (even in the stone age) is now and ever shall be.
2. Thou shalt not come out upon the ice with the old broom. Thou shalt not quicken the pace of a dying rock with last year's broom.
3. Thou shalt learn thy turns, both the out and the in, for the skip will not hold him guiltless that throweth the wrong turn.
4. Play not a running shot when thou art asked for a guard, lest thou raise their own shot, so sending thy skip in the air; such a play getteth his goat, queereth his game, causeth him to swallow his cud and revile thee openly.
5. Thou shalt hearken diligently to the defeated skip when his voice is lifted up in lamentation against the punk ice, and thou shalt not turn thy face from him when he blameth his third man. Even so shalt thou secure a listener against the day of thine own defeat.
6. Thou shalt not strew straws from thy broom in the path of thine own or thine adversary's rock; neither shalt thou spit in front of them causing them to become pork, for even pork is an abomination to some, so also is a hog in the sight of a skip.
7. Thou shalt have no discourse with thine adversary while his foot is in the hack and his hand is on the rock, but if thou wilt thou canst pray for him.
8. Thou shalt not push or kick a rock into the house from behind stealthily for the opposite skip will rise up in righteous indignation over the edge of the broom handle and thrust thee hence from the sight of curlers and the days of thy curling may be ended, for this is an unpardonable sin.
9. Thou shalt not covet thy opponent's rock nor his lead player, neither shalt thou slich from him his third man who is his mainstay and a wall of defence in the day of battle.
10. Thou shalt honor thy opposing skip by substituting only players of the same ability as those present, causing him to praise thy name for fairness and sportsmanship, for many there are who destroy their good names by such conduct, causing their opposing team much bitterness of spirit.

There are still some vice skips who are not marking the score on the sheet. This list of standings is as complete as possible, but it sure would lighten the load if the scores were marked promptly on the board, instead of having to chase around buttonholing skips and team members for the score, because of somebody neglecting their job. Will you please Co-Operate?

KID Hockey

Parents Please Note:—Many hockey rinks across Canada are this week celebrating Minor Hockey week in Canada. Many special programmes are in progress in various arenas to show the parents the work being done with our youth today in this, one of Canada's greatest of sports.

The encouragement he gets today may well be the factor in the citizen he will be in the future. Upon us he may lean for a start in hockey and good sportsmanship, but your good parents, are the main pillar. To you he looks for his guidance in life, love, and companionship.

So if only for one Saturday morning, make a big sacrifice. Don't send your boy to the arena—TAKE HIM. First game starts 7 a.m. through 1 p.m.—NO CHARGE.

Penalties Plentiful when Combines, Toronto Tangle

A near riot prevented a regularly scheduled Industrial League hockey game from being completed Sunday afternoon. A game between a Toronto team and the Combines was cut short by about a minute and a half when the officials were unable to retain order. A Combine player, Paul Marshall, started the fireworks as the game drew to a chaotic close and both teams came off the benches to get into the melee. All the players but four took penalties ranging from 5 minute misconducts to 20 minutes and every player that left the bench was assessed a 10 minute misconduct. Up until the time of the fracas the referee had called 13 penalties, 7 to Combines and 6 to Toronto. Incidental was the fact that Toronto won the game 5 to 3. Gilbert scored twice and assisted on another to pace the winner. Braudon also talked twice and Downs counted nine for his. Sackfield and Bode were packed up five assists between them.

Edwards won the draw with 25 points.

The top three teams in the 9 o'clock draw were a Richmond Hill foursome skipped by Al Galbraith, a Tam O'Shanter rink, skipped by Martin Berman and
