

Joy and gaiety, parades and winter sports are considered the obligation of everyone attending the Quebec Winter Carnival. Those who do not join in the festivities are dealt with accordingly and, as seen here, their sentence is a trip to "Bonhomme Carnaval's" snow jail. All that is required for release from the jail is a smile. Convenient services are provided by Canadian National to Quebec City where the carnival is staged between January 26 and February 14.

Heart Attack Fatal For Glen Williams Curler

Rev. Ronald Stuble was assisted by Rev. Kenneth Richardson in conducting the funeral service on January 17th in St. Alban's Anglican Church for John Hepburn, 56, Mr. Hepburn, a Glen Williams resident, died at North Halton Curling Club the previous Saturday after suffering a heart attack while participating in a bonspiel.

He was born in Aberdeen, Scotland, coming to Canada as a baby with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. John Hepburn. The family lived in Hamilton, then in Glen Williams and later returned to Hamilton where Mr. Hepburn married Isobel Thornberry.

They lived in the city for a time, then came to Glen Williams where Mr. Hepburn had his own carpentry and contracting business. He was employed at the Apple Products plant for several years, then operated the Glen Taxi, and for the past few years had the

Georgetown Guests at Wedding in Brampton

St. Paul's United Church Brampton was decorated with white chrysanthemums and tall white candles on Friday, Dec. 30 for the candle-light wedding ceremony between Margaret Viola Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Graham of Brampton and Charles Alexander Lowe, son of the late Mrs. and Mr. Charles H. Lowe of Brampton.

Officiating at the ceremony was Rev. John A. McDermid and the soloist was Mrs. Betty Reid who sang "The Wedding Prayer" accompanied on the organ by Mr. David Esplan of Brampton.

Given away by her father, the bride wore an imported white silk organza gown over crisp bouquet taffeta. It had a draped sabbina neckline encrusted with mother-of-pearl sequins and tiny seed pearls. The bouffant skirt was full length and the entire dress was embroidered with appliques of hand-clipped Alecon lace. Her headpiece was a crown of mother-of-pearl sequins and seed pearls with a veil of English illusion with appliques of lace. She carried a posy of garnet red sweetheart roses and white stephanotis on a white Bible.

Mrs. Elizabeth Houghton, cousin of the bride and resident of Willowdale, was the matron of honor and another cousin Mrs. Beth Toole of Mount Albert was bride's attendant. They both wore street-length gowns of imported peau-de-soie in a garnet shade. The bodices were draped and the skirts very full. They carried nosegays of white gardenias, carnations and baby mums. They wore matching peau-de-soie bows as headresses and matching satin slippers.

The best man was Mr. Elzin Burrows of Georgetown and Mr. Charles Houghton, of Willowdale acted as usher.

For the reception held at the Brampton Golf Club the mother of the bride wore a street-length gown of Indonesian blue with a lace bodice and draped skirt caught at the waistline with a self bow. She had a matching hat and shoes, a brown fur stole and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

When the young people left for their honeymoon in Buffalo, Niagara Falls and New York, the bride was wearing a beige Italian knit suit with matching hat with Cigalli brown accessories and a brown fur jacket. On their return they will reside in Brampton.

Out of town guests attended the wedding from Hagersville, Hamilton, Dundalk, Inglewood,

Attend Funeral of Brantford Grandmother

Mr. and Mrs. Basil R. Price, 13 Elizabeth St. are in Brantford to attend the funeral of Mrs. Edith Judge, whose death occurred on Monday at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence J. Hawke, Mrs. Judge was Mrs. Price's grandmother.

Mrs. Judge leaves one son Wilfred and one daughter, Mrs. Hawke, both of Brantford; a brother Frank Gofton of St. Louis, Missouri, and 5 grand children, and one great grandchild.

Funeral service will be conducted this afternoon at Hill and Robinson Chapel, Nelson & Queen Streets, Brantford.

The first cross was erected on Montreal's Mt. Royal by Maissoneuve in 1642 when he founded the city.

THE DISTRICT at a Glance

BURLINGTON

Five Burlington girls, members of the Tiger-Kitten Majorette organization will leave Feb. 3rd as part of a party of 70 for a 10 day visit to the New Orleans Mardi Gras. The girls marched in Georgetown's Santa Claus parade.

STREETSVILLE

The Streetsville Lions have given the community's arena campaign a shot in the arm with a pledged donation of $18,000. The Lions' pledge represents about 10% of the total target.

BRAMPTON

Brampton's magistrate's court was reported to be nothing more than a junk room and in the opinion of the Grand Jury was a disgrace to the dignity of the law. The Grand Jury made this statement to presiding Justice D. Kelly at the Supreme Court Sittings last week. The jury recommended courtroom be given top priority in refurbishing and modernizing.

ORANGEVILLE

The spring-like weather that melted some of Orangeville's snow last week foiled at least one part time resident. A robin was spotted on one of Orangeville's main streets last Friday.

OAKVILLE

Following through the results of the plebiscite which favoured Sunday movies and Sunday sports the town solicitor on Monday submitted a by-law for council approval setting forth details in the manner in which activities should be regulated.

ACTON

One Acton district farmer, O. W. Manes of R.R. 2 Acton, can scoff at the superstitious who dread Friday the 13th. This month's Friday the 13th saw his 2 year old heifer give birth to triplets. The chances of it happening are one in 50,000.

MILTON

Milton people have become so weight conscious that a Milton dairy is now delivering low calorie food supplements with its daily milk deliveries. The obese Miltonites can have their dinner in two flavours, Chocolate or Egg Nog.

Chesterfield Destroyed In Guelph St. Fire

A chesterfield was completely destroyed by fire at the Guelph St. home of Mr. and Mrs. Gord Shoebridge Thursday.

Quick action by Mrs. Shoebridge who was alone at the time prevented the damage from being more serious by moving the chesterfield out of the house. Mrs. Shoebridge had doused the fire with water, but it was still flaming when firemen arrived to finish the job.

Mrs. Shoebridge was on the phone when she discovered flames licking out of the chesterfield. Fire Chief Bob Bonfield said the origin of the fire had not been determined.

WORDS OF THE WISE

None of the evils which totalitarianism claims to remedy is worse than totalitarianism itself.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Joseph Hall, Sr., 80 Queen St. has left for Florida and plans to stay in St. Petersburg until early April.

Thomas Forgrave, a student at University of Western Ontario, London, was home for the week-end with his father, Ernest Forgrave, 14 Union St.

Glen Ryan who is employed with Brazilian Traction Co. in Sao Paulo, Brazil, recently spent a day with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Marshall, 37 Charles St. Mr. Ryan is a nephew of the late Misses Katherine and Annie Ryan.

F/L John Wilson, who is stationed in Edmonton, Alberta, spent last week-end with his mother Mrs. Della Wilson of Victoria Street. Patti Wilson, a pupil at the Brantford School for the Blind also spent the week-end with her father and grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Carson Ray and children Glenn, Bruce, Kevin and Dennis, 81 Mountainview Rd., were in Peterborough for the week-end where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Stockdale and family. They also called to see Rev. and Mrs. Alex Calder and attended the morning service in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church where Mr. Calder is now minister.

Carolyn Biehn, who is attending the University of Western Ontario, London, was home for the week-end with her parents.

Little Theatre Rehearses

The members of the Georgetown Little Theatre are engaged in rehearsals and in preparations for their first production of the season. Under the direction of Mr. Michael Pelascheck, the group has been in active rehearsal for some time. With this presentation, the group hopes to continue its success it gained with "The Mayor of Toronto" early last year.

Anyone interested in the various aspects of the backstage work connected with the play may contact the following: Mr. John Goebel TR. 7-2429 or Mr. William Barratt, TR. 7-9550.

Stewarttown Hall Successful Euchre

A successful euchre was held at Stewarttown Community Hall last Wednesday evening, sponsored by the Esqueping Agricultural Society.

Twenty five tables were in play and prizes went to the following: Ladies, Mrs. John Brandon, Norval and Eva Chisholm, Milton; gents, Dan Kirk, Huttonville, and Chester Early, Norval; lucky tally, Mrs. Roy Currie, Milton.

Lunch was served at the close. Other euchres are planned for February 17 and March 10.

GLEN HOME AND SCHOOL

Preparing public school children for high school was the subject of a meeting of Glen Home and School members with Glen principal Ralph McKeown last Thursday.

The Home and School meeting also featured a film on fire prevention supplied by the Bell Telephone Co. Lunch and coffee were served at the meeting's conclusion.

Dancing Party For Church Men's Club

Members of the Brotherhood of Anglican Churchmen of St. George's entertained their wives on Friday at a dance and party in the arena Rose Room.

The fifty couples attending danced to the music of the Modern Aires and enjoyed a buffet lunch. A number of novelty events were planned, including crowning of a Queen of the Ball, chosen by a lucky number ticket, who turned out to be Mrs. Charles Harris, wife of a former churchwarden.

Jack Meades and Mrs. Sheldon Zavits were the mystery man and woman, and guests spent a good part of the evening asking questions to identify them. Spot dance prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. Ken Ewles, Pat Garbutt and Mrs. John Elliott. Lucky number door prizes were won by Mrs. Rex Day and Mrs. Alex MacGillivray.

THE GEORGETOWN HERALD
Thursday, January 26th, 1961
PAGE 9

Clare Francis was master of ceremonies and during intermission he introduced Ernie Barnes, retiring president of the club, who commended a committee headed by Terry Hammond for the excellent arrangements for the party. Mr. Barnes also introduced Rev. Kenneth Richardson, who spoke briefly and expressed his thanks to the men for the fine evening.

exciting new spring fabrics

STEP INTO SPRING

WITH FABRICS —

Fabulous fabrics fashion-keyed for you — the needlecraftsman. Yes, we've the newest in miracle blends — wonderful worry-less fabrics. There's nothing like the best — come see us.

WITH COLORS —

For Spring we blossom in new brilliance of tones. We flower in new lilacs, golds, and greens — its Tulip Colors!

WITH SAVINGS —

— Travel a fresh savings trail at Garner's, too. —

IT PAYS TO SHOP AT GARNERS

DAN RIVER
GINGHAMS
a new assortment
98c

DIANA PRINTS
Tebilized for tested crease resistance. Fine quality, washfast color.
69c

EVERGLAZE
COTTONS
Wabasso Prints
89c

STARSTRIP
ARNEL
1.79

WITH SERVICES —
BUTTONS AND BELTS COVERED —
SIMPLICITY PATTERNS, LIGHTNING ZIPPERS
EVERYTHING FOR SEWING

Garner's

THE MAIN ST. GEORGETOWN

Announcing Good News for GEORGETOWN DRIVERS

NOW — you don't have to go far to buy a REAL Economy Car

JUST 10 MILES AWAY 'CHIC' SIMPSON MOTORS IN BRAMPTON WILL SHOW YOU THE NEW

1961 RAMBLERS

AMERICA'S ANSWER TO THE DEMANDS FOR ECONOMY

AND THE NEW

Austin

THE MIRACLE CAR FROM BRITAIN

EASY TERMS? — OF COURSE
...AND A WIDE SELECTION OF ALL MODELS.

JUST DROP IN AND TAKE A TEST DRIVE — YOU'LL BE AMAZED AT THE HIGH PERFORMANCE OF THESE CARS!

H. E. 'Chic' SIMPSON

MOTORS

AT. 9-9597

QUEEN ST. EAST, BRAMPTON
ACROSS FROM MOSLER - TAYLOR

GL. 1-2490

It will pay you to get the FINEST IN PRINTING

Whatever your printing needs -

- BUSINESS CARDS • STATIONERY FORM LETTERS
- GREETING CARDS • RUBBER STAMPS • LABELS
- WEDDING & OTHER INVITATIONS • DRAW TICKETS
- SIGNS • MENUS • PROGRAMMES, etc.

You Name It — And We'll Print It at LOW COST

The Georgetown Herald

22 Main Street South

TR. 7-2201