Delrex President Sees 1961 Building Upsweep

Industrial and commercial buildings (or additions) valued in excess of $450,000 were com pleted in 1960 in Georgetown. Rex Heslop said today.

- "This is converent evidence of industry's taith in this community, Mr. Heslop added He is president of Delrex Develop ments Limited.

Most of the work was done by Rexwill Construction Com pany. Two exceptions were the Carretal office building and an addition to Avian Industries Limited.

Mr. Heslop also said there are indications, locally, of in creased construction activity in 1961 compared with the vol ume last year. He also remin ded that Toronto interests are now constructing bowling allers on Mountainview Road. The investment in this will approx imate $150,000 Other baildingin the same price range are contemplated.

Buildings, or additions, com oleted in Georgetown during 1960 and their building permit Caluation were listed by Mr

Heslop as follows. Graham Bell (new bl.) $157,000 Canada Bread (wareh'se) 15,000 Varian Associates Delrey Developments Ltd (office building)

Form Men's Club at St. Andrew's United

With a remarkable attendance of 54, a new men's organization was launched last Wednesday, when St. Andrews Men's Club was formed.

At this inaugural meeting, Mr. Al. Cottrell of the District Council of Men's Clubs for Halton Presbytery, gave a short history of Men's Clubs, Emphasizing how much the individual can get out of belonging to such a group.

The Men's Club of First United Church in Port Credit, the local club's sponsor, arranged the programme for the evening. While the Georgetown club are not calling themselves A.O.T.S., which stands for "As One Through Service" as most United Church clubs do, they are, never theless, affiliated with the national body.

This meeting, as all luture meetings, was held at St. Andrews Church, with supper being catered by the St. Andrew's Ladies' Fed. eration.

The following officers have been elected for the vear: President, David Baker, Vice Pres, Fred Bennett; Sec Treas., Keith Me Leish: District Council Representative, Doug Ward.

The Co-Chairman of the Committees are as follows: Membership, Jack Reed and Ernie Keller, Programme Fred Bennett and Doug Ward; Projects, Frank Ferguson and Frank Kimber-
