All organizations reported an industrious and fruitful year. The church school has been well attended and has recently added a very successful Young Adult Class which is very ably instructed by William Campsley.

Scouts, Cubs Entertain At Big Variety Night

A wonderful show! This was the phrase most often heard Monday night as First Georgetown Cubs and Scouts presented their annual Variety Night in St. John's Church Hall.

After the singing of O Canada, Mr. Ernie Forgrave, chairman for the evening, gave a short resume of the worth of Scouting, pointing out that it builds character and teaches good citizenship to boys. He mentioned that Scouting is carried on even in such remote places as the Fiji Islands and Zanzibar.

Under the direction of Mrs. Tracy Barrager and assistants Mary Whetter and Art Sweetie "A" Pack presented the first skit entitled "Mowgli's Acceptance into the Pack." It told the story of how Cubs are accepted into a cub pack.

"C" Pack for their part presented two skits under the direction of Dave Hastings and assistants Mrs. Jack Layman, Roberta Hawes and Bert Sweetie. The first skit entitled "Tommy and his Vibrant Vibrations" entertained with "Old MacDonald Had a Farm." The vibraphone was composed of nine cubs, each singing one note. Boys in this skit were Tommy Hayes, Bob Bull, Bill King, Keith Bottomley, Jack Pignatelli, Ron Rankin, Mike Walsh, Bill Quackenbush, Richard Forster and Ken Connelly.

Next Mrs. Jack Layman and her "Bevy of Beauties" accompanied by Mrs. Del French on the piano, stopped the show with a glimpse of our future fashions for milady, from glamorous furs and skating costumes to scanty bikinis. Boys in this skit wore: Bill Schenk, Peter Nieuwhof, Iver Hansen, David Clark, Steve Howard and Tommy Dean.

After a brief intermission the Scouts from Frank Bryant's troop displayed their abilities. Patrols under leaders Jack Haynes and Bob Paul portrayed a typical early morning rising at Scout camp, a never to be forgotten experience (or night mare).

Patrols under the leadership of Larry Stoffer and David Howard next presented a shadowy, gruesome operation, not too successfully, we understand the patient died.

An enjoyable interlude followed with Roberta Hawes singing some lighthearted and amusing camp songs with appropriate actions supplied by cubs David Clark, Steve Howard and "Bikini" Dean.

The final skit of the evening by patrols under Neil Young and Terry Lane was pantomimed to a recording. It was an amusing act portraying all types of dogs from a Mexican chihuahua to a dainty poodle.

A very successful and enjoyable program closed with Cubs, Scouts and guests joining in the National Anthem.
