Valentine Decorations Enhance IODE Dance

The Harvey Smith Orchestra from Guelph played a return engagement Friday for the annual Valentine dance sponsored by Countess of Strathmore Chapter, IODE.

The Arena Rose Room was attractively decorated for the dance, with a beautiful wishing well in the centre of the floor, and hearts, cupid and flowers in strategic locations so dancers could make no mistake in knowing what day the IODE was marking.

Refreshments were served during the intermission, and there were lucky spot dances to add interest.

Guests at the dance included Miss Hilda Erwin, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Armstrong, Sandy Best M.P. and Mrs. Best, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Early of Inglewood, Mr. and Mrs. David Godden, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Baines, Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth McCauley, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Rapp, Fort Credit, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Linton, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Heslop, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Beer, Mr. and Mrs. Denny Charles, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Noble, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pope, Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blehn, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Sykes, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Penrice, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Eason.

Marty Really Donnie

A caption under a picture of a Georgetown Bantam line erroneously identified the right winger on the line as Marty Wheeler. Though Marty is a valuable member of the young team the player named was Donnie Norton. Donnie and company are soon to be involved in OHA playoffs and later will participate as hosts in the Bantam Hockey Tournament.

Jaycees Offer 1962 Sponsorship

Next year the Bantam Hockey week will be sponsored by the Jaycees; it was decided at their meeting last week. The decision was prompted by a visit from Red Asseline, who outlined the problems involved in such a venture.

New appointees to the Industrial Commission representing the Jaycees, will be Gordon Sampson and Bill Sunnucks.

A three man committee, Mike Armstrong, Ross Norton, and Vern Inglis, were asked to report on the possibility of holding a ladies' night in the not too distant future.

LEGION NOTES

Ralph Hawes the entertainment chairman, asks us to remind everyone that he is serving refreshments after next Thursday's meeting, and also is showing some films.

Once again the Legion helped the public speaking contest by providing trophies for it. President Dave Capperault presented them last Tuesday night at the school finals at Wrigglesworth School.

Our thirty third anniversary takes place in March, and we hear that various plans are being laid on. We believe that Friday, March 10th is the date set for an anniversary dinner and dance for members and their wives.
