Showboat Gets Paint Job Was Town Resident Cast Learns New Routines

As April 28th, the opening date of the Rotary Minstrel Show draws nearer, the rehearsal tempo quickens.

The mainstay of the show, the chorus, have been re- eph's Hospital, Guelph, on Sathearsing for two months, and bid fair to_rival the famous Waring group. While the endmen are digging deep into their harvest of corn to provide their own brand of humour. Skits, blackouts and satire are all to be found in the script. However, any similarity between the script and the performance may be purely coincidental. In addition, the world renowned Georgetown Ballet Company is working out at the bar.

Surrounding Jack Gunn, as Mr. Interlocutor, will be married in St. George's Angli- route to Armstrong Brothers andmen Bill Fisher, Ross Norton, Bill Hamilton, Bill Carr, Garnet Collett and John Ord.

There are at least six nights of performances ahead for the Showboat, April 28, 29; and May 5, 6, here in town, and May 12, 13, in Scarborough.

President Mrs. H. Puckering opened the meeting, reading a poem "The Unfinished Song." Ladies sang the hymn "Ride on in Majesty" and Mrs. Clarence Anderson gave a scripture reading from Luke. Mrs. Herb Dolson took the prayer and an Easter poem was read by Mrs. R. S. Leslie.

Betty Jean Anderson and Mrs. J. A. McDonald provided special music for the day. Mrs. Leslie Young introduced guest speaker Miss Ida White, who is home on furlough from Bhil mission field in India. She gave a clear picture of Indian mission work, pointing out how the fields support each other in different branches of the work. Her closing thought was that it is a privilege for all to belong and work together in.

Kinsmen

It was Initiation Night at the Kinsmen Club last week, when three new members Ernie Mackenzie, Jack Finlay, and Bob Bradley, became Kinsmen. The ceremony was conducted by Jack Spence, assisted by Clare Burns.

During Bantam Hockey Week, the Kinsmen are running films two hours every afternoon for the boys, and the need for volunteers is urgent. The clubdonated $120 to a needy family with a blind and retarded child.

The team of Danny Hewitt and Rob. Gibbons won the Kintest efficiency award. Trev. Moores was the individual wiinner. The next meeting will be Nomination Night.
