Play and Music are Presented at Manor

By Muriel Thompson

A very accomplished and friendly choir of ladies who have sung for the residents on several occasions came to the Manor on Tuesday night, March 13, to present another in a series of excellent programs. This choir is known as the Burnthorpe Home and School Ladies Choir, and these ladies were singing for the residents at the annual Christmas party at the Rosary School for several years, as well as once before the Manor.

Sixteen Ladies

There were sixteen ladies in the choir and their president, Mrs. N. Moore was with them. The song was "Happy Days are Here Again" and was followed by gracious greetings extended to the residents by Mrs. Feast. The choir sang to groups of songs. The first group of four songs included "The Surrey with the Fringe on Top" and "Sleep, Kentucky, Sleep." The second group was a medley of three spirituals: "Oh Yes," "Jacob's Ladder" and "Olden Slippers."

Hearty Laughter

A very amusing play that used much hearty laughter on the part of the residents was presented. When the stage strains parted, a group of four ladies after having spent the afternoon playing bridge in the living room of one of the ladies. In the accompanying dialogue it soon became evident that one of the ladies paid undue attention to her state of health and was constantly complaining about it. When she suddenly imagined that she was suffering from food poisoning in the salad, all the other ladies imagined it too, and some hilarious behaviour was the result. The title of this very amusing play was "Just Imagine!" and it had been directed by Mrs. E. Sanderson. The parts of the four bridge players, a maid and a neighbour were played by Mrs. N. Moore, Mrs. E. Stuart, Mrs. W. Stor, Mrs. M. Reeves, Mrs. O. Ellis and Mrs. I. McQuigan.

Five Numbers

After this very enjoyable play, the choir sang another group of five numbers, all appropriate for the Easter season. These included "Easter Bells" and "The Prayer of Thanksgiving" set to a traditional Dutch air. The visitors and residents spent a very happy time together when coffee and cookies were served, and a fitting climax came to a wonderful evening when Mrs. Moore recited, by request, "Albert and the Lion." A program by these ladies is always greatly enjoyed and the residents hope that there will be many more similar programs in the future.

Played Bingo

On Wednesday afternoon, March 29th, a small group of ladies and gentlemen assembled in the auditorium to play twelve games of bingo. Since the games had been planned by the Hobby Class, Mrs. S. Allen and Mrs. S. Lockie called the numbers. Three prizes were won by Mrs. O. Howard, and two by Mrs. C. Smith. One prize was won by each of the following: Mrs. E. Fisker, Mrs. B. Lantz, Mrs. B. Tinline, Mrs. A. Collier, Mrs. F. Brown, Miss B. Richardson, Miss M. Thompson and Mr. Norman Viggers.

Easter Service

An Easter service that was earnest and sincere in every respect was conducted in the chapel on Easter Sunday afternoon, April 2nd. The service had been planned by the Oakville Milton Camp of the Gideons and was conducted by members of Winnet Memorial Baptist Church in Oakville. Mr. John Nichol, music director at the above church conducted the service, led in the singing and played violin accompaniments for the hymns. Mr. Stan Wright offered prayer and words of testimony were given by Joanne Bayham, Barry Bayham, Mrs. Helen Routledge, of Oakville and Judy and John Hills of Milton. Anne Belong played an accordion solo, "Crown of Thorns" and Harland Routledge sang a solo "Down for His Glory" set to the traditional Italian melody "O Sole Mio." Miss Joanne Bayham was at the piano for all the accompaniments.

Brian Bridle

The sermon was delivered with impressive sincerity by Mr. Brian Bridle of Burlington, a student at the London Bible Institute. He described the various characteristics of the great love shown by Christ for mankind in leaving His home in Heaven in order to come to earth and die on Calvary's Cross. He closed his inspiring sermon by reciting a lovely little poem, "For Me" Ray Reimer brought this reverent little service to a close with a prayer. The communion table was adorned with a bouquet of spring flowers and two Easter lily plants for the service. Before the service began, the congregation enjoyed a fine recital of organ music played on the new Baldwin Electronic organ that had been delivered at the Manor two or three days before.

HORNBY

Best Hike Ever For Nineteen Cubs

Nineteen Cubs of the First Hornby Cub Pack with their leaders Geoffrey Drew, Book and Mrs. Irene Saunders, had the best hike ever, as some of the Cubs described their day. The Spring Ramble and Cook-out was on Tuesday, April 4, between the Fifth and Sixth Lines above the Coyne side-road. Each six made their own camp fire and cooked their own dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bradley visited with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Given and family near Acton on Sunday.

Some youngsters got their fishing poles out over the weekend and tried their luck along the creeks. The club were really biting and a few suckers have been caught. Soon it will be smelt fishing time again.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Pat Flippance on the birth of their son at the Oakville, Trafalgar Hospital on Sunday, April 9.

Birthday greetings to Earl McDowell on April 15, to Korie Sue Learmont on April 18 and to Geoffrey Drew-Brook who will be three years old on April 18.

Get well wishes to Susan Cramp who is confined to bed at her home, to Hugh O'Connor who has been sick at home and to Mrs. Jack McCarver who is recovering from an operation in the Oakville Hospital.

Walter Coulton assisted Rev. John Hill at the morning service at Hornby United Church last Sunday. Mr. Coulton is entering into the lay ministry and has just returned home from a two week's stay at Five Oaks near London.

The Hornby Evening W.A. held their April meeting in the church basement on Tuesday with Mrs. Harold Learmont presiding. A Biblical skit was given by four of the members for the devotional. Films were shown on Ontario Summer Resorts and enjoyed by the fifteen members present. Lunch was served by Barbara Snow and Adele Leslie.

Darlene Leslie, Susan Grevton and Eileen Bradley were three Hornby girls who helped make up the party of forty girls and the leaders of the First Drumquinn Brownie Pack and Girl Guides for their bus trip, Tuesday morning to Toronto. Their first stop was the museum. The girls found it an interesting place to visit. They had dinner at the Wedgewood Restaurant and saw a show at the Runnymede Theatre. The girls arrived home in the evening quite tired after their busy day.

The W.M.S. and Afternoon W.A. held their April meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Stringer with thirteen members present. The Sixth Line ladies were in charge of the program for the W.M.S. The second chapter of the study book was given by Mrs. Doug Leslie. The theme song and the Lord's Prayer opened the W.A. The president reported that the quilt had been finished. Mrs. R. Wilson and Mrs. S. Price assisted the hostess to serve lunch.

WHAT COUNCIL DID

Weber, Sargent Road Improvement Slated

Spring brings birds and flowers and road problems, as councils down through the years have come to expect. So it was no surprise April 9 to have questions by a ratepayer about what is planned for East Georgetown roads this year.

Ted Turnbull, who introduced himself as a spokesman for Delrex Ratepayers Association, asked for relief from dust in the subdivision, and enquired what ratepayers can expect on the four main roads, Delrex Blvd., Sinclair Ave., Sargent Road and Rexway Drive.

The dust problem is a common one at this time of year, he was told by Mayor Hyde, who explained that if council goes overboard in dust control, it leaves less money for permanent improvement.

"We're keeping pot holes filled as they occur, but we can't do too much about dust," he said.

Road chairman Sargent said it is hoped to give Weber Dr. and Sargent Rd. a complete treatment this year. Other roads will be receiving somewhat less surface treatment, depending on how road money holds out.

Saying that he was speaking for a ratepayer, Mr. Munro, Deputy Reeve Elliott said Mr. Munro is concerned about the plans for converting the old Delrex office building into apartments. The large structure doesn't fit in with the surrounding area, and residents had bought their homes expecting it would be torn down, he said.

"I agree that it is not a good plan to have an old building in the midst of single family dwellings, but in an R4 zone there is no legislation against it," said Cr. Cass.

Mayor Hyde said it is doubtful in council could hold up a building permit, but asked the zoning administrator to check carefully before a permit is issued.

Next week was proclaimed Retarded Children's Week, at the request of North Halton association which is embarking on a local drive for financial support to build a new school on the 7th Line.

Requested by the National Union of Public Service Employees for a morning conference to negotiate a new contract for the union local, Mayor Hyde said councillors are working men and said an evening meeting would be more in order. Council agreed to meet the evening of April 12th for talks.

Symbol of Planned Saving

To city people the silo is a symbol of farming; But for farmers, it's a symbol of saving, too—planned savings! Like a Savings Account at the Royal Bank, it's a practical way of storing up wealth for future use. It takes careful planning, though, to make both bank account and silo serve you to best advantage.

Whenever you're working out your farm plans, feel free to come in and discuss them with your Royal Bank Manager. He knows a lot about farming matters, especially the financial side. So regular chats with him can be very much to your advantage. Drop in next time you are near the branch. He'll be glad to see you.

P.S. The Royal Bank Farmers Account Book will help you to run your farm. Ask for your free copy at your branch.
