Items of interest about YOUR Hospital

The last two weeks have been heavy ones for the Hospital Association and the Board of Directors.

To the general public the advertisements about the annual meeting may have been confusing also, when it is recalled that it is less than six months ago that the last one was held. This was necessary, as the Ontario Hospital Commission insists that elections be held in a certain period, before they can approve the bylaws. And this, of course, is a must before the Hospital opens.

The general state of officers and directors remain the same and the board of directors remains intact. The committee chairmen were also returned, with one exception, where the Management and Finance committees were divided, to allow for the very heavy work that will be encountered by these two groups. Committees were also given the option of adding to their groups as they see fit.

The Administrator, Mr. Graham Gilhooly, reported to the annual meeting of the Board of Directors regarding various recommendations, etc. His report was most interesting as well as pointing up to the degree of completion the Hospital has reached.

Construction is steadily forging ahead, and it is expected that nothing will arise to prevent the grand opening the middle of June. Painting is now being carried out, and the various key personnel are working hard on their various departments.

A special committee has been set up by the board of directors, to be in charge of any donations and requests that are given the hospital from time to time. This group will consist of board members and interested citizens who played such a vital role in the financial campaign. Additions to the committee will be made from time to time.

All our readers will agree that the financial end of this project is among the most important, and one that may not be stressed too much. The officers and directors would appreciate any help they can have in this connection, and would appreciate a call or visit from anyone with suggestions. By the same token, since the financial campaign, there are a fair number of new families located in Georgetown May we respectfully suggest that you might consider pledging anything you see fit, towards a community service that is sure to benefit you and yours thru what we hope will be a long and happy residence in town! Don't put it off, give one of the directors or the Administrator a ring today! They'll be only too happy to call at your convenience to talk it over.

The official opening of the Hospital is now just two months away, and plans will be taking form in the near future for the Official Opening, guest speaker. The committee in charge is meeting very shortly to make the necessary plans. It is hoped that at that time, every citizen of the community and district will be able to be present to see through the Hospital. It is expected that tours will be arranged so that everyone will see through the building with a qualified guide, who will be able to explain everything and answer questions.

NOVEL TICKET SELLING USED FOR MINSTRELS

Georgetown's group of minstrel show promoters, the Rotary Club, are trying a new system of selling their tickets this year.

Tickets have been distributed to homes in town and some one will call back at the homes in a few days. It is hoped by this method that no-one will be missed, and that anyone wishing tickets will be able to obtain them. Two tickets are left at each home, and may be returned, purchased or exchanged.

Tickets that are not going to be used may be returned to the person calling, or may be placed in an envelope and returned to the local Rotary Club.

The Club hopes that citizens will support this fund raising effort, and hope to realize the ambition of a 'full house' on each of the four nights.

Monday's dinner meeting was given over to the discussion of the various plans for the big 'Showboat'.

The president, Mrs. K. Webb was in the chair and the meeting was opened by repeating the Mary Stewart Collect and the Lord's Prayer and singing "O, Canada." The roll call was answered with the payment of dues, followed by the minutes and the financial report by Mrs. Don Murray.

It was decided to have another money raising project in the near future to add to the funds already raised towards a wheel chair or some other equipment for the Georgetown Hospital, the details to be planned at the May meeting.

In the absence of the Public Relations convenor Mrs. H. Smellie, a film on the work of the Unitarian Service Committee of Canada which was started by Dr. Lotta Hiltchmanova, was shown by Mrs. Don Murray and son Don. The film showed scenes from Korea, Greece and India where the Unitarian Service is helping. The Norval Institute has an adopted boy in Korea so were especially interested in the scenes from Korea. A large number of hand-made articles made by children and adults helped by Unitarian Relief were on display and proved very interesting.

A social half hour was enjoyed with Mrs. R. Crawford and Mrs. H. Gollop assisting the hostess in serving lunch.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. L. May on Thursday evening, May 4th, and the roll call is to be answered by naming a beauty spot in Ontario.

In 1916 forest fires in the vicinity of Porcupine, Ontario, caused the deaths of at least 224 people.

The question was once asked "Am I my brother's keeper?" The present day answer is still yes. It is the duty of everyone that is strong to help the weak. In that way, we differ from animals.

Businessmen will agree that because of the fast growth of automation and more complicated business methods, in ten years' time, unless a person has better than average education, he will be unable to exist in a competitive business life. This will be at a time when the present public school child will be entering the business world. It is imperative therefore, that the child of today be equipped in the very highest standard of education for the days that he ahead.

The Way
Parents of Georgetown, are you in favour of the slogan —

Would Help Organize Opportunity Classes

38 Langstone Cres.

Dear Sir:
Congratulations to Mrs. Treahy! Her remarks regarding opportunity classes for our public schools are, I believe, the unexpressed desires of all the intelligent parents in Georgetown.

For those of us who are not acquainted with such classes, I should be obliged if I may have space in your paper to present to the people of Georgetown, the need, the importance and the way to meet the need for such a project in our public schools.

The Need
There are approximately 45 pupils in the public schools in town whose I.Q. is within the range of 50 to 80. These children are not retarded in the usual sense of the term, but are slow in learning.

With a little extra tuition, these children can be educated to play an average part in life. Without help the child will be a misfit and will acquire an inferior and harmful complex.

A few interested citizens in our town have realized the need and have approached the public school board on two occasions for consideration to such a proposal. Their efforts were in vain.

One of the main arguments against such a programme is, that children would be embarrassed by being identified as being below average. I would ask what is more harmful to a child than being unable to keep pace with the progress of the average student and being left to fight a losing battle?

This is not a new idea. Opportunity classes are in operation as close as Milton and have proved successful.

The figure 45 quoted above may appear small, but because of neglect in this generation, that figure will triple in the next. In the following generation, there may be 400 people in Georgetown who suffer because of the present neglect.

The Importance
The question was once asked "Am I my brother's keeper?" The present day answer is still yes. It is the duty of everyone that is strong to help the weak. In that way, we differ from animals.

Businessmen will agree that because of the fast growth of automation and more complicated business methods, in ten years' time, unless a person has better than average education, he will be unable to exist in a competitive business life. Local Woman's Sister Is Accordion Champion

Mrs. E. Walker, of Shelley Street, has a sister, Miss Lona Reed, who has achieved fame in music circles. Miss Reed of Sudbury, has been acclaimed Accordion Champion.

She won this honour Sunday at Hamilton by beating out contestants from all over Canada. She now will represent Canada in the International competition in Italy this fall.

Making the achievement more notable is the fact she has only been studying the accordion for four years. Miss Reed, who teaches at the Prem Accordion School in Sudbury, received other awards in Hamilton. Her accordian band won first prize in band competition, and three of her pupils won first prizes in their class.

Musical talent seems to run in Mrs. Walker's family, her brother, too, teaches guitar in Sudbury.

Yours very truly,
—Robert McNeilly
