APPROVED BY POSTUROMETER

RUNNERS-UP in the Posture Queen contest at Georgetown High last week. Lois Niven (centre), and Ineke Weststeyn (right), receives 2nd and 3rd place awards from Phys. Ed. instructor Mrs. Volney Ray who organized the project. The posture of the entrants was tested by a Posturometer supplied by D. A. Gay of Georgetown Chiropractic Clinic.

HORNBY

Light Bulb Sale Will Aid Camp Construction

A group committee meeting of the First Hornby Cubs and Scouts was held at the home of Irene Saunders, Tuesday evening, May 2.

The paper and bottle drive was reported as very successful and tentative plans were made to collect papers, etc. in the spring and again in the fall each year.

Bill Hill, vice president of the Georgetown District Council and John Bussell outlined plans made at the district meeting for a light bulb sale on the last Saturday in May. It was stressed that any funds resulting from the sale of bulbs would go towards Hornby's share in the purchase of a permanent Scout and Cub camp site at Hillsburgh.

Negotiations for the site have been completed and it is hoped that camping facilities will be well under way this year. The camp will be for all of Georgetown, Hornby, Norval, Glen Williams and Ballinafad area Cubs and Scouts.

John George, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Feenstra was baptised by the Rev. J. E. Maxwell at the morning service at St. Stephen's Anglican Church on May 7th.

Mrs. Gordon Lee spent a few days in Buffalo, U.S.A. with friends last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Shubert and family whose home was recently destroyed by fire moved into a house at Hornby on Saturday, the former Bell residence.

The auction sale of household goods of the late Robert Bell attracted a large crowd on Saturday afternoon even though it was pouring rain.

Belated birthday greetings to Mrs. Floyd Downs on May 8, to Sonny Hill on May 11, to Charles Hill on May 14 and to Pat Drewbrook who will be two years old on May 16.

Ray Archer who attends the Toronto Art College is home for the summer months.

Ten members were present at the May meeting of the Hornby Afternoon W.A. and W.M.S. of Hornby United Church. A bale was packed to be sent to the Fred Victor Mission in Toronto.

The president asked the group if they would save the church papers, magazines and cancelled postage stamps as they could be used abroad. Mrs. G. Sinclair read the Scripture and Mrs. R. Wilson read the third chapter of the study book. Mrs. W. Coulton read two letters from her sisters in Ceylon and Singapore and they were quite interesting to the ladies. The Canada Packer labels were counted to be used to obtain linen tablecloths. It was reported that a quilt is now ready to be quilted.

Mrs. Sampson and Mrs. Sinclair assisted the hostess to serve lunch.

Stuart Winch left Thursday with friends for a fishing trip in the Ottawa district and returned home Sunday.

Mrs. Harry Price left Monday for Sault Ste. Marie. She is attending the Grand Lodge for the Orange Ladies and expects to be away for a week.

The Hornby Afternoon W.A. catered to the Junior Farmers Bowling League banquet on Saturday, May 6, at the Orange Hall. Approximately thirty-five enjoyed the turkey dinner after which awards were given to the various bowlers.

Irene Saunders is visiting with Miss Alma Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brunk and family in Peoria, Illinois for a week. Mrs. Howard Bradley and Mrs. Peter Belford returned home from there on Sunday. Johnny and Judy Saunders are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robertson and family.

The monthly meeting of the Hornby Evening W.A. was held Monday in the church hall.

Mrs. W. Coulton gave the devotional based on a favourite verse from the Bible. A vote was taken to send twenty-five dollars to the General Fund. A committee was appointed for two showers in May and conveners for two wedding receptions in June. An invitation to Bethel's Blossom Tea was read and the ladies were also invited to go on the Institute bus tour. Films are to be shown at the next meeting.

Mrs. G. Howden and Mrs. O. Greston served lunch.

Orville Greston returned home Friday night from Port Arthur where he has been working since January 3rd. Now he will be working in Oshawa.

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. Arthur Aselton who is a patient in Milton District Hospital.

DID YOU KNOW?

The bowerbird of Australia believes in building a glamorous background for his courtship. He constructs a waterproof grass tent, states a Reader's Digest article, then surrounds it with moss, and lays on it colorful flowers, bright fruit, vivid fungi. Brilliantly hued insects are brought until his castle glitters with natural gems. And all of these decorations are lovingly replaced as they fade.

Night School Continues
Jean Ruddell is Chairman

After a few weeks of uncertainty, the fate of night school classes has been determined — they will resume in the fall, in response to the warning that the classes might be abandoned due to lack of interest, a good crowd turned up at last week's meeting of the Night School Committee. Gratifying to the members was the appearance of many new faces.

History
Chairman Jean Ruddell outlined the history of the night school, then explained the reason, (poor attendance at last meeting) for calling this special meeting. Miss Ruddell then turned the meeting over to J. L. Lambert who called for nominations for officers.

Committee
However, a motion was passed that a committee at large be nominated, then they themselves would elect the officers. Sixteen members were appointed to the committee, Mrs. A. Armstrong, Miss Dorothy Stone, Mr. G. Baker, Mrs. R. Hansen, Miss J. Ruddell, Mrs. J. T. Haynes, Mrs. J. Glynn, Mr. John Mintern, Miss Joyce Kenward, Mr. H. Savings, Miss J. Taylor, Mrs. J. Milton, Mr. E. Yeadon, Mrs. P. Beer, Mrs. R. Hess, Mrs. Antone Egg.

Chairman
By motion it was decided that the chairman be elected immediately. As a result, Miss Jean Ruddell will serve as chairman again this year.

The next meeting will be held May 30th, to formulate plans for the year, and to elect the officers from the aforementioned committee-at-large.

THE MAIL BAG

Endless Patter? Not Everyone Thinks So

Apt. 3-45 Main St. N. Georgetown, Ont.
May 5th, 1961

Dear Mr. Editor:
Once again I call on your generosity to allow me the privilege of using your mail bag column to reply to Mr. McNeilly's letter of this week.

I wish to express my sorrow that my endless patter is so irritating to him, however.

Judging by the many phone calls and messages I have received I am pleased to note that he is in the minority, and many people find my letters extremely interesting.

In which case I am afraid Mr. McNeilly will have to endure my endless patter in the interests of the many who enjoy it.

In his letter of this week he states "Both individuals missed the point", of his letter, well, perhaps the point was a trifle too hard to find.

But, I cannot say the same of his reaction to the two replies his letters invoked. It is quite apparent that both hit the point right on target, a bulls-eye.

Yes, Mr. McNeilly, to the contrary, I am interested in facts, the ones I find in my newspapers, not politics, and this is my sole reason for any interest I take in this issue. I want to stay in business and keep my property for which I have worked and saved a lifetime, I have no wish to lose it through excessive taxes I can no longer meet.

Mr. McNeilly states: "The Heslop proposal was not in its entirety the answer to our needs." Then why criticize our council for not wasting valuable time in its discussion?

At least he agrees with Council on a balanced economic program, and I must point out to him that the thousands of dollars poured down the drains for roadwork in East Georgetown would not have been necessary with a balanced control of housebuilding in that area.

Again, not many people know that because of the building boom in the 1950's we had to abandon our sewer disposal for which we are still paying, in favor of larger facilities to take care of our increased population. So now we are paying for two sewage disposals instead of one, and the end result, is a 50% hike in water rates also. We cannot cope with the mistakes of the 1950's, only bear them with as much fortitude as possible through the many years it will take to pay off in taxes the debt laid upon the unfortunate taxpayers. We must therefore stay awake to the same danger in the future and profit by experience with the mistakes in the past.

As for ward voting, since I have no political aspirations, I cannot answer that question. But a thought has occurred to me. Would the proponents of this measure be hoping that some day, "the tail of the dog would wag the head?"

The taxpayers in all of Georgetown would do well to investigate for themselves because if taxes are increased by demands caused by residential building, all Georgetown will have to foot the bill, both new and old residents.

Mr. McNeilly speaks of 90 acres of industrial land a few miles out of town. We are interested in industrial land right in Georgetown selling for only 100 dollars an acre, and I understand that we have one of our Councilors to thank for the good job he did for us in gaining at least one industry now in process of expanding. It would be to our great advantage if we could get a few more like this.

To close this portion of my endless patter Mr. Editor, I have a confession to make, I did not deem Mr. McNeilly's letter worthy of a reply however, I make it on request of a lady reader of The Herald who made it on a dare.

Social and Personal

Mrs. Dean Harley, 13 John St. W., Mr. and Mrs. Terry Harley and daughter Elissa Gay Harley, 134 Maple Avenue E., and Linda Harley, 21 Ewing St., visited recently with Mrs. Don Adams, and family, R.R. 2, Welland, and Mr. Adams in Welland County Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Tracy, and family of Little Current, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. S. Madden, Albert Street and her brother, the Rev. Ewart Madden and family of R.R. No. 1, Norval.

Mrs. Ed Beauchamp of Windsor was a visitor last week with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Braithwaite, 169 Prince Charles Drive, Braithwaite, who moved here from Windsor a few years ago, are returning there to make their home.

Don Barrager and Harold McClure were in Oakville one evening last week where Mr. Barrager received his diploma for junior piloting from the Canadian Power Squadron. He has been taking lectures for the past year at the Oakville club.

Mr. McClure received his diploma last year.

$30,000 Bull on to Mexico Viewed at Station by Many

Rosale Citation R, the Holstein bull that put a $30,000 feather in the cap of local exporter Craig Reid, was given the royal ride to Mexico.

The bull and several of his Canadian-bred daughters occupied the place of honour and curiosity in a special car in front of Georgetown station for several hours last Thursday before beginning the long haul to his new home on the Mexican ranch of Don Marcos Ortiz. The bull was purchased by Senor Ortiz last month from H. J. Wilcox and Sons of Beeton.

Part of the royal treatment given Rosale Citation R were special wheels and bearings on the open car which cushioned the ride. He was put on the car here Thursday morning and left at about 3 p.m. for the U.S. border at Detroit. When he reached Laredo, Texas, he was transferred to a passenger train for the ride into Mexico. The trip took six days.

Craig Reid accompanied the shipment in the caboose. Thirty-three thousand dollars is the highest price ever paid in Canada for a dairy animal.

PROCLAMATION!
CLEAN-UP DAY

SATURDAY, MAY 13th

On Saturday, the Georgetown Jaycees have planned a Clean-Up Day and intend to make a thorough clean-up of the highway shoulders through town.

Council, at the suggestion of the Jaycees, has authorized me to proclaim Saturday as Clean-Up day in Georgetown.

This is only one phase of a job in which every citizen can share.

I urge every resident to make a special effort that day to tidy up his property and to make our town a shining example of cleanliness and beauty.

E. T. (Ern) HYDE,
MAYOR
