District Guests Attend Wilson-Russell Wedding

In a double ring ceremony in Streetsville United Church on April 29, Norma Louise Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Russell, 35 River Road, Streetsville, became the wife of Donald Bruce Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Wilson, 200 Martin St., Milton.

Given away by her father amid standards of white stocks, white and mauve chrysanthemums and ferns, the bride wore a gown of pure silk organza, gardenia white with Alencon lace trim. The bodice, fitted to the waist, had a scoop neckline with brocaded appliques trimmed with sequins and pearls, and long sleeves with petit point. The floor length skirt was very full with softly draped trim on the hip line. Her headpiece was a crown of sequins and pearls with French illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis, white feathered carnations and in the centre a white orchid.

The matron of honour was Mrs. William Russell, Streetsville, and the bridesmaids Mrs. Walter Wilson, Milton and Miss Jean Moore, Streetsville. Their street length gowns of orchid silk organza had fitted bodices and curved necklines with matching lace inserts and bouffant skirts. Their headpieces were of flowered matching silk organza with tiny veils. They wore white pearl chokers and matching earrings, the gift of the bride. Their bouquets were cascades of white shastas, lavender pinocchio mums and hyacinth florets.

Miss Debbie Wilson of Milton, the flowergirl, was attired in white silk organza with lace trimmed neckline, puff sleeves and orchid sash. Her headpiece was a white flowered band and she carried a basket of mauve and white mums and sweet peas.

Young Ricky Russell, the ringbearer wore a white suit with short trousers.

The best man was Walter Wilson of Milton and the ushers were William Russell, of Streetsville and Lorne Thomson, Ballinafad. They wore white dinner jackets and black tuxedo trousers.

For the reception in Milton Agricultural Hall, the bride's mother received wearing a lilac brocaded sheath gown, beige shoes, purse and gloves and a lilac hat. Her corsage was of two-toned pink roses and stephanotis.

The mother of the groom assisted wearing a mauve iridescent sheath dress with matching jacket and beige accessories. She wore a corsage of pink sweetheart roses and white hyacinth florets.

For her honeymoon trip to Florida the bride wore a light blue suit with beige accessories with a white orchid corsage. On their return from Florida

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will reside at 198 Martin St., Milton.

Among the guests at the wedding were the bride's two grandmothers, Mrs. Elmer Russell and Mrs. Townley Brocklebank, both of Streetsville, and the groom's grandfather, Mr. John Wilson, of Hornby.

Donald's music teacher, Mr. Percy Waddington of Waddington's School of Music from Hamilton, acted as toastmaster.

Out of town guests included friends from Burlington, Cooksville, Port Credit, Malton, Weston, Lakeview, Cheltenham, Brampton, Cobourg, Alliston, Hamilton Toronto, Ballinafad, Willowdale, Thornhill, Hornby, Milton and Streetsville.

Scout District Council Promotes Lamps for Camp

Lamps for Camp, a project for several years of 2nd Georgetown Scouts and Cubs is being undertaken this year by the district council as a fund raising project.

However, to compensate for the revenue loss to the troop, another project is being planned, a bottle drive, which will add to 2nd troop funds.

The matter was decided when Sam Meltzer, president of the district scouts and Bill Bellegem, district commissioner, met last week with the group committee of 2nd Georgetown, whose activities centre at St. George's Anglican Church.

Guides, Mothers See Camp Films At Annual Banquet

With many of the Girl Guides looking forward to a holiday at Guide Camp this summer, coloured slides on camp life at Camp Kiawa, Dunville; Don Lake World Camp, and the World Camp in Belgium, shown at the annual Mother and Daughter Banquet for Guides on Friday evening held more than usual interest. The event, held by the 3rd Company, took place in the auditorium of St. John's Church.

The event was planned by Mrs. Harry Shortill, assisted by Mrs. Claude Kentner, Mrs. Ken Howat, and Mrs. Garfield McGilvray. About 80 Guides and their mothers attended the banquet.

Many Opportunities For Church Women

On Thursday, May 11, 1961, the Evening Auxiliary held a meeting at the home of Mrs. D. Smith. Ten members were in attendance and roll call was exchange of plants.

Mrs. N. Sinclair presented the devotional entitled "Hannah, a Praying Mother."

A business discussion followed in which all were urged to remember the clothing sales for overseas distribution. All good, used clothing will be received at the home of Mrs. Leo Jamieson.

Mr. F. J. Shortill read an article by Dorothy M. Young, Home Organization Executive Secretary of the United Church of Canada, speaking to the Toronto conference. It was entitled "Church Women Get New Opportunities" and read as follows:

"Our chief work will be interpreting the 'United Church Women' to the public and in your own congregation."

Kitchener, Toronto Friends Fete Bride

Mrs. James Steele and her daughter Margaret were hostesses at a Kitchener shower at their home in Kitchener for Donna Joy Dowsett, prior to her marriage on May 13th to Richard Sienko, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sienko of Georgetown.

A bridge set was received at a party at the home of Mrs. H. Clarke, Kitchener, with Mrs. C. Dowsett as co-hostess. Girls from the Toronto - Dominion Bank where the bride was employed presented her with a floor polisher and linen at the home of Mrs. Vern Bristow.

The Young People's group of Highland Baptist Church presented a plaque to the bride and groom. Gale Innis of Toronto entertained friends of the bride at a linen shower. A presentation of a silver cream and sugar was made by the bank employees and the bridegroom received a picnic chest from a group of Toronto friends.

ies abroad is only one facet of church work. Because human need is everywhere, the work of United Church Women will be everywhere and there is no time for duplication of effort."

The meeting closed with the W.M.S. benediction, followed by a social hour. A surprise birthday cake was prepared in honour of Mrs. C. Beaton who celebrated her birthday on Thursday. The members were all glad to see Mrs. P. White at the meeting, the first since her injury in February.
