CHAMPIONS OF THE HALLON BASEBALL LEAGUE 1959

124 Play Golf At Opening

One hundred and twenty-four golfers were joined by several other club members at a buffet supper Saturday which marked the season's opening for North Halton Golf Club.

Golfers had a perfect afternoon for a two-ball foursome, customary opening feature for the club, with a number of novelty prizes added to those for proficiency.

Following dinner, captains Dick Crichton and Mrs. Ron Kitchen welcomed members and announced that another tournament is being planned for the July 1st holiday. Ted Fenning announced that the club facilities have been booked for private tournaments on several Saturday mornings and asked the indulgence of members, pointing out that this is an important source of revenue.

Club pro Russ Kelly presented low gross prizes to Jim Linton and Mrs. Don Carter and low net to Alf Sykes and Mrs. Bill Dwyer. Second and third low nets were won by Ted Fenning and Mrs. Fred Helson, Gerry Inglis and Mrs. Russ Kelly.

Hidden hole prizes were awarded for low score on the 9th and 7th holes, and winners were Harold Crawford and Mrs. Ron Kitchen, E. W. Binkley and Mrs.

Bruce Walker. Prize for the scenic route went to Jack Crichton and Mrs. Bud Monckton. Dancing concluded the evening.

Bradford Cops Hockey Title from Port Dover

Before a record 1,350 fans, Bradford Fords slaughtered Port Dover Sailors, 11-2, to capture the Ontario Hockey Association Intermediate B title. Bradford took the best of seven final, 4-2, with one game tied.

It was the second provincial crown for the town. Its intermediate C club captured the 1957-58 championship.

Gary Vasey, captain of the Fords, and skip the high school principal received the J. Ross Robertson trophy from OHA executive Tim O'Neill.

Five players scored a pair of goals as the high-scoring Bradford machine really went to work in front of the rabid hometown fans. The two goal scorers were Phil Nicholas, Stan Thornington, George Davis, Brian Millon and Bob McCall.

Don Cosburn scored the other goal for the winners while Ernie Hollinzworth and George Bercham tallied for the losers. Bradford overpowered the opposition all year. They finished first in the Central Ontario league and never experienced any difficulty in their climb to glory.

HYDROPLANE CLUB FORMED IN 1959

The Oakville Hydroplane Club was formed in the spring of 1959 by a small group of local boat racing enthusiasts. The club meets at 37 Deane Avenue (a private home); but, because of its extremely fast growth in membership, larger meeting quarters may soon be required.

After two years, the O.H.C. has been recognized by the Canadian Boating Federation as one of the most active racing boat clubs in Canada today.

THE GOOD OLD DAYS

Do you recognize the faces in this picture? This question is addressed to our older sports fans, as this picture was taken on the public library steps in 1920.

The team was the Halton and Peel baseball champions for that year, defeating Milton in a sudden death playoff. The Georgetown team had capped the league winning six games and losing only one. Milton, Brampton, Limehouse and Glen Williams comprised the league.

The report of the playoff that year said that Perc Blackburn pitched an outstanding game.

Here's how the tournament's financial picture looks:

DIAMOND IN THE ROUGH

A spell of dry weather has enabled town men to start construction of the long overdue baseball diamond in the park.

The diamond will be regular size and will be used regularly by the three ball organizations under the Georgetown Baseball Association. Rain has delayed the work.

Dart Teams Enter Galt Competition

The local ladies dart club is sending four teams to Galt on June 10th to compete in a tournament there. Last Thursday O'Keefe Viennas retained their first place lead, taking five points in their game in St. George's parish hall for a total of 29.

Unlucky each took 3 points to increase their totals to 25 and 19, while Zeros lone point dropped them to fourth place and an 18 total. Cotton Bros. scored three points and now have a 14 point total.

OUTDOORS SPORTSMEN

By Fred Darby

With the fishing season in full swing, the question again arises: "Can an owner of a property stop you from fishing a river that runs through his property by either walking down the river or fishing from a boat if the river is navigable by boat?"

I wrote to the Dept. about this, but as yet I have received no answer. I also wrote to the questions and answers editor of the Toronto Daily Star.

From this letter I received the following answer in part. No person shall hunt or fish or with any gun or sporting implement, fishing rod, or tackle in his possession, go upon any enclosed or unenclosed land or water after he has had notice not to hunt or fish thereon by the owner either by word of mouth, in writing or by posters or signboards so placed that they may be observed from any point of access to the land.

So it would seem that someone has given away or sold out that given instance, or an I wrong in thinking that the natural fish and game of Ontario or Ontario, belong to all Canadians, young and old alike. Or maybe all the rivers stocked with fish by the Dept or private clubs or the pleasure or other upland game birds, raised and released by these clubs, are a reward that these owners receive for buying property with rivers, or woods on.

If this is true, here's a word to the wise. Any person found contravening the above mentioned law may be apprehended without a peace officer, or by the owner of the land on which the contravention takes place, or by the servant of, or any person authorized by, such owner, and be taken forthwith to the nearest justice of the peace to be dealt with according to law.

Now this word to the wise, can be taken two ways. First, if someone tells you he is the owner you had better leave your favourite fishing hole or rabbit law - he may JUST be the owner. Second, if you find someone using your favourite fishing hole or pheasant grounds, tell him he is trespassing and that he better leave then you'll have it all to your self.

Don't laugh, that's what the law says.

Don Powers, chairman of the rifle range at the Georgetown Anglers and Hunters Club reports that the range is now open to all interested parties. The shooting starts at 6:30 p.m. every Tuesday, the minimum age is 14 years unless sponsored by a club member or with parent or guardian by the club.

The club is also registered with the Dominion Marksmen 22 rifle competition with pins and crests awarded for qualification scores.

While I am on the subject of shooting, I'd like to do a little more preaching to mothers and fathers who have sons and daughters who might be interested in guns.

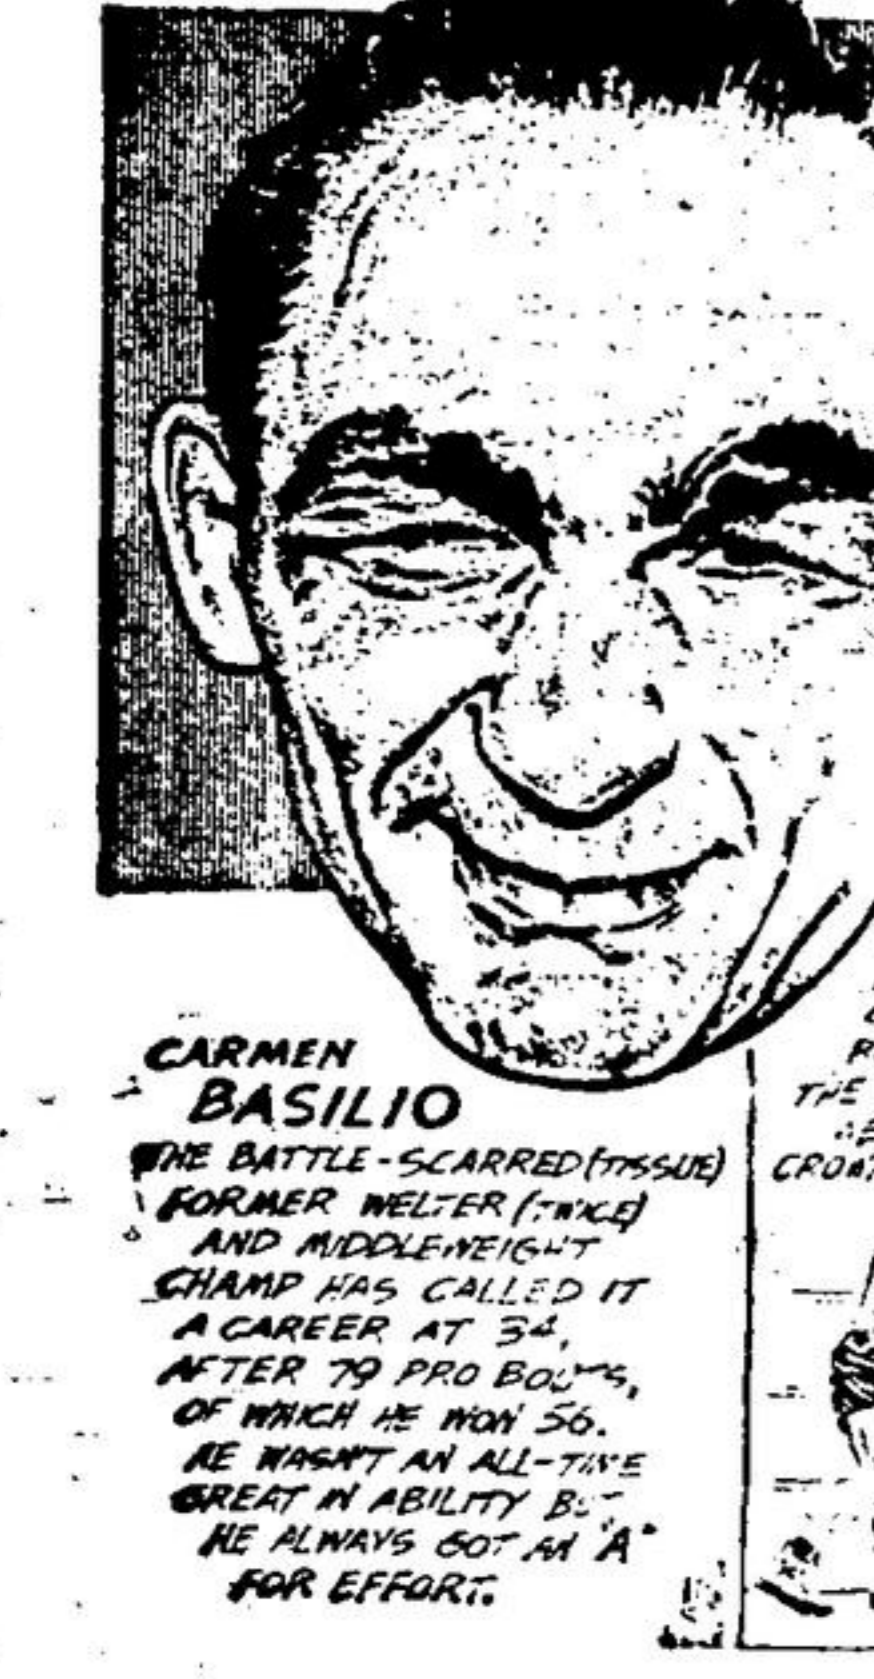

The only danger in guns or any dangerous weapon is the ignorance shown by its use to the danger of such a weapon when used without care.

This can be remedied with instruction on the safe handling of such dangerous weapons.

Remember, this Saturday drop up to the GA&HA Monster Shoot - it should be a lot of fun.

RING CAREER ENDS

By Alan Maver

Considering the meagre training the girls have been able to do owing to the poor weather conditions this spring, their showing was quite creditable. With good weather, the girls are hopeful of getting into better condition and gaining a few top spots in the District Inter-School meet on the 29th of this month.

Would Extend Conservation Program to All Rivers

Ottawa (special to the Herald): The hope that the federal government's water conservation program will be extended from year to year to other river systems was expressed in the House of Commons this week by Sandy Best, Conservative member for Halton.

"In our own county of Halton we have numerous river systems. Indeed, we have all or parts of four river valley conservation authorities. I refer to parts of the Grand, the Credit and the whole of Sixteen-Mile Creek and Twelve-Mile Creek authorities," Mr. Best explained. "We have been adding to our population sometimes at the rate of 10,000 people a year in Halton County. Because of the tremendous growth of our towns and since the number of people commuting to Hamilton and to metropolitan Toronto grows constantly, it is important that our water systems, our parks and our farm lands be protected to an even greater extent for agricultural, recreational and safety purposes."

"I only hope that this program will be extended from year to year to other water systems as applications are made by municipalities and provinces or whoever may wish to initiate such contributions and such planning," Mr. Best said.

Later, the member for Halton took part in a debate on the importance of development of Eskimo handicrafts and art and the steps the government was taking to improve the living standards, health and education of the Eskimo.

To wash silver-backed brushes, apply masking tape to the edge of the brush where the silver wraps over the bristle backing to prevent water damage. Wash carefully in detergent suds taking care not to get the backs wet. Pat dry with a towel and let stand on the bristles until thoroughly dry.
