

CAESAR AND COMPANY

BACKING UP the singing stars Del Shannon and Freddie Cannon when they make their appearance at the mammoth dance show here June 9th will be Little Caesar and the Consuls, whose many performances here have made them familiar to Club Midtowners. Since their first visit here, which was also their first appearance out of their home town Toronto, they have become Canada's top rock and roll group.

News of the District

New Limehouse School Will Have 6 Classrooms

The new Central School for Esqueping school board area number one to be erected at Limehouse is expected to contain six classrooms and will be erected on property to be purchased from Fred Brooks on the 5th line just north of the village.

First preliminary plans for the school were presented to the board Tuesday evening, May 16th, and were discussed at great length by the members. Architects for the project are Barnett and Rieder and the necessary changes in the plans will be finalized at the next board meeting.

After tentative estimates are received, township council will be advised for debenture purposes. Mrs. Douglas, secretary of the Home and School Ass'n, was present to advise the members of the Association activities during the past few months.

Expected registration for the September term was reviewed and it was agreed to engage two new teachers to handle the overflow. These teachers will continue to teach in the new Central School on completion of the building.

Halton Institute Ladies Gather At Georgetown for Annual Meeting

The afternoon session opened with singing of O Canada. Two musical numbers were enjoyed and the past Presidents were called to the front for the pinning on of a lovely corsage, as a token of appreciation. One lady, Mrs. George Agnew, Milton, having been a member for 55 years.

The guest speaker Miss Ethel Chapman, Toronto, was introduced by Mrs. V. Norris, and in contrasting present times with those of sixty years ago, said that the job of creating a pleasant home atmosphere was timeless, and worthy of the best efforts of every woman.

New officers were elected, and it was moved that the W.I. carry on with the cozy corner at Milton Fair. Mrs. Clark Pegg, Nelson, curless convener graciously thanked all who had contributed to the success of the day. Meeting closed with the singing of God Save the Queen.

GLEN WILLIAMS
Walter Luenberger Now in the Army

Mrs. Alvin Starret left by plane for Calgary where she will visit with her son, Victor and family. Mrs. Victor Starret plans to fly east while Mr. Starret Sr. is there, as there is illness in her family.

Walter Luenberger recently joined the Canadian Army. He will be stationed at Camp Petawawa.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Wheeler recently attended the Postmaster's Convention in Peterborough.

PROCLAMATION!
by HIS EXCELLENCY
GOVERNOR GENERAL G. P. VANIER DSO, MC, CD.
Now as perhaps never before, Canada's future progress, prosperity and security are dependent on the educational level, the technical knowledge and skills of our people.
To those in the labour force it means upgrading their skills for changing employment opportunities.
To the youth it means they must remain at school longer.
To employers it means training opportunities must be expanded.
According to His Excellency's wishes, I am happy to proclaim,
COMMONWEALTH TECHNICAL TRAINING WEEK
MAY 29th to JUNE 4th
E. T. (Err) HYDE, Mayor
