WORDS OF THE WISE

The man who is consumed by hate is not only a misery to himself, but a source of misery to all around him, not because of the menace he offers to our interests but because he debases the atmosphere we breathe and debases the currency of our kind. — A. G. Gardiner

Dr. Bevenek New Doctor With Williams, Thompson

Another new Georgetown doctor, Dr. Bernard Joseph Bevenek, will begin his practice here in July.

Currently on the intern staff of Toronto Western Hospital, Dr. Bevenek will join Dr. C. A. Thompson and Dr. C. V. Williams in their Main Street offices where for the past few weeks workmen have been renovating the premises. All three offices will be downstairs.

A Toronto Western nurse, Miss Joan Garth, will become Mrs. Bevenek on June 23rd when he completes his internship.

STEWARTTOWN

Church "Hymn Sings" Proving Popular

Visitors from Guelph, Brampton, Georgetown and Newmarket attended the "Hymn Sing" in St. John's Church Sunday evening. These have been held the 2nd Sunday in each month for sometime and have proved quite popular, under the capable leadership of Mr. Tim Barnes, with Mrs. J. E. Maxwell as organist. On several occasions members of the choir have taken special parts. The Rev. J. E. Maxwell opens and closes with prayer. Quite an informal evening, where those who attend sing the hymns of their choice. They will be discontinued during July and August but it is hoped to resume them in September.

Mr. Cecil Walker, who has taken a position in Waterlooville, New York, spent the week-end with his family at home.

A number of Stewarttown folks attended the Rodeo in Georgetown on Saturday and reported a good time.

Mr. Hilliard of Orangeville arrived Sunday to spend a few days with her son and his family Mr. Bert Hunter.

Mr. Robert Vickers and son Larry of Toronto, visited with Mrs. H. P. Lawson on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob McDonald and family visited with Bob's grandmother, Mrs. Emily McDonald, R.R. 4, Acton, who celebrated her 80th birthday on Sunday. There were 77 guests present among whom were 3 members from the Georgetown Girls' Pipe Band, who played during the afternoon.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lawson on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Epps, family Candy and Kerry of Guelph.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Ineson and family of Islington visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Atkinson on Sunday.

MILTON

Milton chief of police Ray Andress has challenged Assistant Commissioner Ward Kennedy of the Ontario Provincial Police to give him evidence of book-making activity in Milton in answer to a recent charge by the police official.

ACTON

Acton District High School Board was handed a limp bouquet last week when the school inspector G. E. Johnson informed pupil's average marks in 1960-61 are the highest he has seen there. He said improvement could be made, however, in comparing Acton to other schools in the area.

Work like sixty in the '60s and you won't have to work like sixty after you're 60.

THE DISTRICT at a Glance

BRAMPTON
Councillor Lila Trout was successful in having a by-law passed limiting the number of gas stations in Brampton. Voting was four in favour and three against. The new limit is one to every 500 population.

STREETSVILLE

When golfers Merv Jones and Gord Campbell hit into the rough on the seventh hole at Lakeview Golf they had no idea just how rough it would be. The ball bounced off golf club property and when they went to retrieve it they were charged with trespassing by the owner and taken to court. It also cost them a 2 stroke penalty.

BURLINGTON

Fluoridation of Burlington's water supply was approved Monday by town council. A motion which would have sent the fluoridation issue to the electors at the time of regular municipal balloting in six months was supported only by three councillors.

ORANGEVILLE

On Saturday June 24th, the ratepayers of Caledon Twp. will decide whether or not they wish to form a township school area. The new board would eliminate 18 scattered boards.

OAKVILLE

Oakville's town fathers voting unanimously to endorse the proposal in principal, agreed Monday night to underwrite an experimental Colborne St. mall to the extent of $1,500.

MILTON

Milton chief of police Ray Andress has challenged Assistant Commissioner Ward Kennedy of the Ontario Provincial Police to give him evidence of book-making activity in Milton in answer to a recent charge by the police official.
