

Pearl Necklace Parting Gift to Veteran Teacher

Colleagues Honour Miss Marie Lindsay

A testimonial dinner to honour Miss Marie Lindsay, was held Monday evening at Hilltop Lodge, Erin. Miss Lindsay is retiring after having taught public school for forty years. She has been a member of the staff of Chapel Street School since 1925.

Some fifty colleagues, former colleagues, friends, and members of the Georgetown Public School Board and their wives gathered to congratulate Miss Lindsay on her fine teaching record, and to wish her health and happiness in the leisure years ahead. As a memento of the occasion, Chairman of the School Board Edwin Wilson, presented Miss Lindsay with a double strand of cultured pearls.

Dedicated Teacher

R. F. Bornholdt, Inspector of Public Schools, Halton Inspectorate Number 1, paid tribute to Miss Lindsay as a really dedicated teacher, and as proof of his sincerity, read out to the gathering, the complimentary remarks contained in his April Inspector's Report, which would normally be a top secret document as far as the teachers are concerned.

V. M. Stein, Principal of Chapel Street School, bespoke his regret at losing Miss Lindsay from his teaching staff, and expressed his appreciation of her talents and co-operation with him and with the other teachers at all times over the years.

Best Wishes

Miss Hazel Harrison, a former associate of Miss Lindsay's on the Chapel Street School staff, P. B. Harrison, a former Secretary - Treasurer of the Public School Board; and Mrs. Walter Biehn, one of Miss Lindsay's early pupils, expressed their wishes for Miss Lindsay's future happiness.

In acknowledging the tributes and good wishes extended to her, Miss Lindsay reminisced a little, with lightness and humour, about her early teaching days, and also mentioned her gratefulness to other staff teachers and principals through the years, who were a never-failing source of advice and help when needed. Upon her retirement this June, Miss Lindsay will be making her home in Milton.

Several Messages

Don Powers of the Georgetown Public School Board chairman for the occasion, read several messages of good-will from guests who were unable to be present. These included letters from Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Skuce, former Public School Inspector; Miss Georgina Young, Milton; Miss May Langan, Miss Beatrice Hurme and Mrs. Mrs. Harold Henry; all former teaching associates; Miss Lindsay's aunt, Mrs. William Lindsay, Milton, and Mayor and Mrs. Ern Hyde.

Bornholdt, Miss Luena Campbell, Mrs. Joseph Dwyer, Miss Hazel Harrison, Mr. P. B. Accident Mars Rodeo Queen Contest Off

The Rodeo Queen Contest is definitely off, Jaycee President Mike Armstrong stated Monday night, when he took the four slightly injured girls to Brampton Hospital to visit Tricia Heywood, the most severely hurt.

On behalf of the Jaycees he gave all the girls bouquets of roses, and satin bound bride's books, donated by McClure's Furniture. Inside the book was a Twenty Dollar certificate good on a living room, bedroom or dining room suite.

The fate of the other gifts that were to be presented to the girls, but there is a possibility they will be returned to the donors.

While it was planned to have all the girls photographed around Tricia's bed, this idea was abandoned when Tricia did not feel well.

Pictures in the 'Salute to the Hospital' section of the Herald are the work of Peter Jones, Georgetown.

Georgetown's Rotary, in their tradition of service to Senior Citizens, scored another first in their work in this field. They have taken on the important job of transporting the senior citizens to the Hospital by car on Sunday morning. At a recent meeting the details were finalized and response is terrific, according to one Rotarian. Any of the elder citizens of the community may see the hospital at their leisure between the hours of 11 and 1 p.m. on Sunday. It was felt that with the expected crowd on Saturday, this would mean a more comfortable tour for them, and they will be able to proceed at their leisure.
