ST. PAUL'S, ST. ALBAN'S CONFIRMATION

CANDIDATES for confirmation from St. Paul's and St. Alban's Anglican Churches in Norval and Glen Williams were confirmed at a service at St. Paul's recently. With the classes here are Rev. Ronald Stubbley, parish minister, and Bishop Bagnall, of the Niagara Diocese.

Remembrance Service Held In Glen Cemetery

John T. Armstrong was the guest speaker at the seventh annual Glen Remembrance Service held Sunday in the scenic Glen Williams Cemetery overlooking the village. Illness prevented Harold C. McClure from taking his regular role as Master of Ceremonies at the open-air program, however Mr. Armstrong filled in capably. Rev. Ronald Stubbley of St. Alban's Anglican Church was the guest minister.

After the call to worship and invocation the congregation sang the hymn "Lead Kindly Light." A euphonium solo by Bandsman Norm Long, Holy, Holy, followed a responsive reading of the 23rd Psalm led by Mr. Armstrong, and after the Scripture reading by Rev. Stubbley, the band played the selection, "The Zenith Overture."

A moment's silence in memory of the dead, and prayer, was followed by the hymn "Faith of Our Fathers."

In his address, Mr. Armstrong told the congregation that the former residents of the community interred there were "not really dead but still alive in the homes and churches they built, ideas they founded, and deeds which benefit us today."

Rev. Stubbley pronounced the benediction and the service concluded with "The Queen."

A wide spreading maple tree shaded the assemblage from a scorching afternoon sun. Proceeds from the service assist in the upkeep of the cemetery.

UNITED W.A. Church People At Hornby Anniversary - St. John's Church service was cancelled Sunday morning, to give the members of the congregation the opportunity to attend the anniversary services at St. Stephen's church in Hornby.

The Reverend J. E. Maxwell, rector, was in charge of both services, with the Reverend N. H. Braeken, rector of St. Augustine's Church, Leaside, as guest preacher for the evening service. Members of St. John's Choir assisted at both services.

On Wednesday evening, May 31st, a miscellaneous show was given for Miss Diane Shering by Miss Elsie Donaldson, Mrs. Lloyd Sedore, Mrs. Ormie Carter, Mrs. Fred Fendley and Miss Colleen Grady in the parish hall.

Mrs. O. Carter conducted an interesting "Know Your Magazine" contest followed by the bride-to-be opening her many gifts assisted by her sister Miss Gloria Shering and Miss Elsie Donaldson. Diane thanked her numerous friends for their gifts after which a delightful lunch was served by the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Reid and children, attended the 40th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Weir Reid of R.R. 2, Norval. The celebration was held at the home of their eldest son John at R.R. 1, Erin.

Happy Birthday to Walter Reid, 2nd son of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Reid, who celebrated his 6th birthday on Monday.

Father's Day was observed in a great many homes, with the families returning home to pay their respects to "Father."

Three Presbyterians Preaching for Calls

The Norval Presbyterian Church is hearing a list of ministers for a call to the Norval and Home Church charge. Last Sunday, June 11, Rev. Douglas A. Wilson, B.A. of Sydney Mines Nova Scotia, conducted the worship service. On June 18th Rev. J. E. Taylor of Tottenham, Ont. preached for a call and on Sunday, June 25th the minister will be Rev. Hugh Jack, B.A., B.D., of Huntsville, Ont.

On June 27th there will be a congregational meeting to decide if they will call one of these ministers from this list. We hope that a minister is secured soon as it will be nice to see folks living in the manse once more.

Miss Joyce McLean took part in the piano recital of the pupils of Mrs. Evey Byram held in the Conservatory Recital Hall Toronto, on Monday evening, June 12th. Joyce played "Rondo Alla Turca" by Mozart.

We extend our sympathy to Rev. and Mrs. Lloyd Freel and family on the death of Rev. Freel's mother after a lengthy illness. The funeral was held on Thursday afternoon, June 8th in Stouffville, Ont.

On Wednesday evening, May 31st, a miscellaneous show was given for Miss Diane Shering by Miss Elsie Donaldson, Mrs. Lloyd Sedore, Mrs. Ormie Carter, Mrs. Fred Fendley and Miss Colleen Grady in the parish hall.

10 and 25 YEARS AGO ECHOES

From the Pages of The Herald, June 20, 1951 and June 24, 1936

10 YEARS AGO Tragic news was received by his parents on Monday afternoon of the death in a flying accident in England of Flight Lieut. Gordon Alexander McDonald. A jet plane which he was piloting crashed shortly after taking off.

A prominent Georgetown businessman, David Saxe, died suddenly at Toronto Western Hospital early Friday afternoon. He was rushed to hospital after suffering a severe heart attack Friday morning.

Replacing Constable Vic Smith who left for Ottawa last week to join the Mounties, Constable Leonard Chambers arrived in town last Friday to serve with the Georgetown detachment, Ontario Provincial Police.

Gordon Spence, Georgetown was elected deputy grand master of Credit District, IOOF, when members of the order convened at the Royal York Hotel last week.

A piano recital was presented by the pupils of Mrs. Main in her home on Durham Street, Friday. Taking part were Kathleen Boyle, Joan Main, John Farmer, Jennie Farmer.

The first reunion of the 164th Overseas Battalion, composed of Halton and Dufferin men, took place in Georgetown last Tuesday when many old comrades met for the first time since the Great War.

A new partnership has been formed in the plumbing and tinsmithing business in town. Mr. F. L. McGilvray has taken Mr. A. B. Parr into partnership and the new firm will be known as McGilvray and Parr.

CYRIL CLARKE UNION HEAD

Cyril Clarke was elected president of Local 14161, United Mine Workers of America at elections held Monday night in the Legion Hall.

Officers Elected Union members, who are employed at Smith & Stone, Ltd., voted Albert Whitney as vice president; Mrs. Betty Jamieson, recording secretary; Mrs. Gerald McGrae, financial secretary; Bruce Harley, sergeant-at-arms; Thomas Clark, chief steward. The negotiating committee comprises Jim Sargent, Reg. Hoare, and Wesley McLellan. Trustees are Rene Martin, William Collier and Fred Tucker.

Following the election, the new executive was installed in office by Douglas Fendley.

BALLINAPAD

Rev. James Kirkwood Communion Officiant

Rev. Jas. A. Kirkwood was a very welcome guest at the Ballinapad Church on Sunday morning. He assisted Mr. Beaton at the regular service of worship by conducting the communion and baptismal services.

Miss Helena Hiltz is nursing at the Hamilton Sanatorium at the present time and she will be graduating from the nursing school where she has been training, early in July.

The W.A. met for their June meeting at the home of Mrs. Perryman on Tuesday afternoon of last week. The roll call was answered by telling "where I would like to spend a vacation." Several items of business were discussed and the social committee, assisted by the hostesses.

THE GEORGETOWN HERALD Thursday, June 22nd, 1951 PAGE 12

Mrs. F. W. Shortill visited for a week with her sister Mrs. Till in the Orton district.

Mr. T. Mack attended the celebration at the Ospring School on Sunday and also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Breeschoten in their new home in Roskwood.

Mrs. George Ady from Calgary is visiting for a month with her son Mel on the 6th Line.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the family of Mr. and Mrs. E. Perryman in the very sudden and accidental death of their son, E. Perryman, who was killed in a flying accident in England of Flight Lieut. Gordon Alexander McDonald. A jet plane which he was piloting crashed shortly after taking off.
