

Brings Gifts Over From England For Odd Fellows

It was both an honour and a pleasure for the local Odd Fellows lodge to welcome at their meeting Monday night Mr. Victor Vardigans, a member of the Manchester Unity of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in Norwich, England.

Mr. and Mrs. Vardigans are presently visiting at the home of their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Bill Chaplin, College St. Mr. Vardigans brought greetings from his own lodge, Loyal Travellers Rest Lodge in Norwich and presented several gifts sent by the members.

A beautiful hand-made table cloth in red linen fringed in gold and bearing the Odd Fellows crest, three links was the gift of a Rebekah member. Two desk sets in ebony and silver were the gifts of Loyal Travellers Rest Lodge and the local chapter of Past Grands of Norwich England.

Noble Grand Walter Thompson thanked Mr. Vardigans for the presentations and asked him to convey the thanks of Orion Lodge to the members in England.

At the close of the meeting, their final one till Aug. 28, members enjoyed a social evening.

Every one starts life as a baby and the smart one outgrow it.

Mission Work Stressed By Minister to Ladies

The associate members of the Evening Auxiliary were present at the June meeting held at the home of Mrs. H. Sanderson.

Four associates and eleven members answered roll call with an account of their first dates. A business discussion followed with approval for a donation of ten dollars to the Vacation Bible School. A note of thanks was read from the W.A. acknowledging the assistance from the Evening Auxiliary in procuring accessories for the washroom in the church basement.

The clothing bale for overseas relief will be packed this

Thursday evening.

Mrs. E. McEnery, associate members secretary, called on Mrs. C. Snow to present the devotional. Mrs. Snow based her comments on the first chapter of Deuteronomy and also read "This Too Shall Pass" by Padre Young. The group then adjourned to the church and was addressed by Mr. C. Beaton.

Mr. Beaton spoke on the importance of missionary work and commended the Evening Auxiliary for its support of the scouting program. As the sponsors of the cubs and scouts, the Evening Auxiliary of the W.M.S. is carrying its work into the world, as did the early missionaries in the beginning of the Christian Church.

Mr. Beaton then introduced the special guest, Mr. Quen Lee, a high school teacher from Hong Kong, now studying at Emmanuel College for his degree as Bachelor of Religious Education.

Mr. Lee pointed out the relationship of Hong Kong to mainland China, the chief work of the church in Hong Kong and what Canadians can do to help. He showed interesting slides as well, showing scenic views and buildings of Hong Kong.

Mrs. J. McEnery expressed the appreciation of the group to both Mr. Beaton and Mr. Lee.

Mr. Beaton closed the meeting with prayer and a social hour followed. Lunch was served by Mrs. C. Beaton. Mrs. A. Lawr assisted the hostess.
