Lost the Game, But Georgetown Sparkled

The team that would probably be voted most likely to upset the Campbellville aggregation this season, Oakville Oaks, were rocked back on their heels by a rejuvenated local club last Wednesday night and had to scramble to come out on top of a 3-2 decision.

The Oaks started great with a 2 hit, 2 run inning but from there on any that looked like a threat was promptly squashed. Oakville scored their only other run in the 3rd when Oak hitters put together a hit, walk and fielder's choice and error. Bernie Dore started for the locals and hurled for 3 frames. Lynn McLaren inserted himself in the 4th and handcuffed Oakville batters the rest of the way giving up just two hits, one in each of the 4th and 6th.

Though they outstruck the Oaks 6 to 4, Georgetown sent runners home in only the 2nd and 4th innings. A sacrifice by George Barber sent Ron Ritchie home with the first Georgetown run in the 2nd inning, a two hit frame, and Ritchie touched home for the second time on Barber's single through the middle of the 4th.

Shepherd and Glen May in the 6th, shared the Oakville pitching which struck out 9 Georgetown batters. McLaren fanned 7 in his four inning stint. Both clubs gave up four walks.

Nine Georgetown runners were left on base, while Oakville stranded 6. The only extra base hit in the contest was a triple by Oakville's Ross Dryden in the 3rd. He was tagged trying to steal home.

The Georgetown club has won one and lost six in their first season in the Halton League.

Want to know how to play the pretentious 14th hole at Brantford Golf and Country Club? Ask North Halton member, Mrs. Jim Cleave.

Playing in the Hamilton District Ladies Field Day as part of a five member Georgetown team, Shirley hit a five iron shot off the tee that traversed the 166 yards from tee to green in the air, hit on the front of the carpet and rolled the rest of the way into the cup for a hole-in-one.

The Ball was a Penfold No. 1 purchased from North Halton pro Russ Kelly earlier in the week especially for the field day. Though a par 3 hole, the 14th is known as one of the tougher holes in Brantford 18 with a well trapped green and narrow fairway.

Jean Mackenzie, Mrs. Graham Farnell, Mrs. Stuart Young and Mrs. Frank Wallace, comprised the rest of the North Halton delegation which finished out of the prizes. A hundred and twenty-five lady golfers took part in the day.

Pollock homered in the 1 hit, 1 run 4th; a single by Coolich and an error allowed 2 more in the 5th; Kennedy crossed the plate with a run on Redshaw's single in the 6th; nobody reached first in the 7th and in the 8th and final inning Coolich who got on via a walk, stole second and scored from there on Anderson's double, with the 12th run.

On the other side of the score sheet thirteen strikeouts by Oakville hurler Sawchuk kept Georgetown bats silent. First sacker Blake Inglis was the local batter who hit safely, once in the 2nd, a single, and a triple in the 9th which scored Jim James from first with the only Georgetown run.

At The Way Glen Gibbs started for the locals and was lifted for Jim McGill in the 6th. Sawchuk went all the way for the win.

Only two Oakville hitters went down on strikes, both by Gibbs, and five Oaks reached first on walks. Sawchuk allowed just four bases on balls.

Georgetown executed the only double play in the ball game.

CLUB MIDTOWN

ROCKIN' JAYS WILL RETURN

Fresh from a tour of the U.S. of A. the Rockin' Jays, a Brantford rock n' roll group, were surprise goodies at the weekly Club Midtown session in the Arena Rose Room, Friday, where they were a very large success.

Consisting of the three Johnson brothers and Bill Jones, the popular coloured foursome have been together five years and in that time have attained the heights of the industry. They are managed by Mr. Johnson, the boy's father.

They were signed for the engagement just the previous night, but word of their appearance got around so fast that they played to a good size crowd. Midtown executive are hoping to have the group back.

Proceeds from the Friday stint will go to the Midtown hospital room fund.

Minors to Play Toronto Stadium

Georgetown Day at Maple Leaf Stadium, announced in the Herald last week, centered a discussion at the meeting of Minor Ball executive at the home of the president, Bill Smith Monday night.

Tickets have gone on sale and are available from any of the executive or Minor Ball coaches at $1.00, a reduced rate. The bargain price applies to any purchaser whether they be a parent of a Minor group player or not.

After the twelve local Minor Baseball Group teams play their regularly scheduled games on the International League Diamond, the Georgetown party will picnic in centre field. All the young fry are guests of the Toronto Maple Leaf Baseball club later in the afternoon at the game between the Leafs and Syracuse.

About fifty cars will be required to transport the Georgetown Minor Baseball Group players alone.

A few new rules were also tossed around at the meeting and revisions made affecting each of the Minor groups.

Campbellville Steamrolls Over Georgetown 12-0

The Campbellville Merchant steamroller rolled over Georgetown's Barrager to Mos-sop to Inglis.

Dundas was scheduled to play here last night (Wednesday) and Bronte will be here next Wednesday, July 5th.

Both teams used three pitchers but only the changes made by Georgetown were out of necessity. Campbellville hurlers, Field, Eaton and Roberts each shared in the 12-0 win and collectively fanned 17 Georgetown batters allowing only a single and a double in the entire 9 innings.

Four Homers Offensively the Merchant machine rapped out four circuit clouts in their 16 hit attack that could not be stemmed. Georgetown's ace hurler Lynn McLaren was chased after 6 innings. Jim McGill left in the bottom of the 8th, and Duncan was inserted in the game with just a third of an inning left to go.

Ron Ritchie's double in the 2nd and a pinch hit single by George Doucette in the 8th were the only Georgetown hits. Moore, who went 3 for 4, Wingrove 3 for 5; Dredge, 2 for 4; and King who went 2 for 4; paced the Campbellville hitters.

There were only 5 walks in the ball game, 3 by Georgetown and Campbellville left 6 men on base to the Georgetown's 4.

One Double Play Home runs were blasted by Wingrove (2), Laking and E. Cairns, and Wingrove, W. Cairns and Ritchie clouted doubles. The only double play in the game was executed by
