

LIVING IN MILTON

MARRIED IN GEORGETOWN'S Knox Presbyterian Church, April 29 were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Smith, who are residing at 198 Martin St., Milton. The bride is the former G. Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Thompson of Georgetown.

Ontario Vice-President Speaks to Businesswomen

The Georgetown Golf and Country Club was the setting for the final meeting of the season of the Georgetown Business and Professional Women's Club. The president Mrs. Earl Hornby conducted a short business session following the delicious turkey dinner at the dinner table which was attractively decorated with white peonies and pink snapdragon provided by Mrs. Walter Rigg.

Leaving Town
Prior to closing the president expressed the good wishes of the club to Miss Bobbie Kelly who is leaving town to teach in Pembroke. Miss Kelly was invited to attend a meeting later in the year to tell the members about her trip to Africa and other points this summer.

Tentative Date
Minutes of the previous meeting and executive meeting were read and the treasurer's report. A tentative date was set for the annual nearly new sale, on September 29th and 30th. All members were urged to keep this date in mind and to collect clothing and saleable articles during the summer.

Individual Honours For Revolver Club
The Georgetown Revolver Club team finished out of the money at the 1961 Southwestern Ontario Pistol Championships at Lambeth last month. It was disclosed this week that a number of individual honours and trophies were copied by the team members.

Premier Opens EX
Premier Leslie M. Frost of Ontario will officially open the 83rd Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto, Aug. 18.

Graduation Supper Follows Bus Trip
Grade 8 students, attending Stewarttown school enjoyed a bus trip last Thursday. Going by way of Brampton, they toured the American Motor plant then travelled on to Toronto, to Riverdale Zoo. On their return to the school in the evening, they were served a graduation supper by members of Home and School group.

Brian-Sinclair, public speaking winner for the school, was presented with the shield, donated by Equestrian Women's Institute. The presentation was made by Mrs. C. A. Grant. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Congratulations to Bill de Vries, who graduated with honours, in the Farm Mechanical Course at Kemptville Agricultural College. He is a former student of Stewarttown Public School, and Georgetown High School.

Mrs. L. DeVries of Kitchener visited with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Armstrong during the week. Congratulations to Marilyn Murray who celebrated her sixteenth birthday on Sunday and to Robert Harris who was 15, on Tuesday.

Mrs. Tom Smith of Saskatoon, the former Lavinia Reid, who is a niece of Mrs. W. H. Reid, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Herb Reid, and also Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Carhart. Mrs. Carhart and Mrs. Smith are first cousins.

Mrs. C. Meredith and Mrs. E. Karn of Limehouse and Mr. Wm. Long of Ottawa were also visitors with the Reids, during the past week.

On reading an old cash account of Halton County, it was interesting to note, that up to the year 1857, all accounts were written in £, s and d, and in the year 1858, $ and cents were used for the first time.

New Town Doctor, Wife Honeymoon in Antigua

Joan Audrey Garth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie William Garth, 72 Jopling Avenue West, Islington, became the bride of Dr. Bernard Joseph Bebenek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Bebenek, 78 Rivercrest Road, Toronto, in Islington United Church on June 23rd at seven o'clock in the evening. The church was decorated with two large baskets of white and pink roses and carnations, there were white bows on the pews. Rev. Stewart B. East officiated at the double ring ceremony with Mr. Black at the organ and Mr. Thomas Common, singing The Wedding Prayer and Because.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white silk organza over taffeta, designed with a full skirt swept into a chapel train. The bodice, appliqued with lace flowers had long slim sleeves and tiny buttons down the back and a large organza bow. A small crown held her finger-tip veil and she carried a white cascade of roses and carnations with stephanotis.

Mrs. Sully Perkins was matron of honour with Mrs. Elaine Kerr and Miss Frances Toye as bridesmaids and Miss Susan Maddock junior bridesmaid. All the attendants were gowned alike in white silk organza over taffeta with full gathered skirts with embossed flowers on the organza overskirt. The cummerbund waist band was topped with a gathered bodice. Each wore a seed pearl necklace and earrings, white shoes, gloves and flowered hats. They carried white nosegays with pink rose buds and white carnations.

Mr. Don Cullen, 37 Oriole Road, was groomsmen, Dr. Kenneth McCauley, R.R. 2, Georgetown, Dr. Victor Kerdyak, Mr. David Garth, 72 Jopling Ave. W. and Dr. Walter Bulchak, 321 St. Clair Ave. E. were ushers.

The wedding reception was held at the Old Mill where Mrs. Garth received for her daughter in an egg-shell white chiffon gown embellished with shaded red roses, matching red shoes and flowered hat, long egg-shell gloves and evening bag on which she wore a gardenia corsage. She was assisted by Mrs. Bebenek the groom's mother in an emerald green gown fashioned of lace over taffeta, the bodice of which was embroidered with sequins. She wore matching accessories and a corsage of white roses and carnations.

Dr. and Mrs. Bebenek are spending their honeymoon at Antigua Island, British West Indies. For travelling the bride chose a navy blue light weight suit with a low cut neckline with wrap-around collar, loose fitting jacket with three quarter length sleeves, the skirt was pleated. A white hat and gloves, pale pink shoes and matching purse and a corsage of pink carnations completed her ensemble.

Dr. and Mrs. Bebenek will live in Georgetown where he is associated with Dr. C. V. Williams and Dr. Alan Thompson. Mrs. Bebenek has been a registered nurse at the Toronto Western Hospital. Prior to her marriage the bride was honoured at a luncheon and nine showers.

Here in 1959 Mrs. Caria Bonsel and her husband arrived in Canada from Holland in 1955 and lived in Toronto till 1959. They moved to Georgetown in February 1959. Mr. Bonsel is employed with Great Lakes Overseas (Canada) Ltd. Steamship Agents in Toronto. Last May Mr. and Mrs. Bonsel became Canadian Citizens. They are St. Andrews U.C. members.

Local Residents at Robinson Reunion
Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robertson, Nancy and Jack and Phillip Brush were among the fifty three who attended the Robinson Reunion held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Robinson in Norval on Sunday.

AMBULANCE VOLUNTEERS HOLD PICNIC
The Jaycee officers for the upcoming season were inducted at last week's meeting. The executive are Michael Armstrong, president; Don Wilkes, vice president; Jack Heslop, secretary; Vern Inglis, treasurer; and Directors Gord Sampson, Sandy Mackenzie, Barney Woodward, and Bill Sunnucks.

The new president of District 6 addressed the group, mainly outlining the District plans for the coming year. The 'Win a trip for two to Jamaica' tickets are selling well, it was reported, and members are enthusiastic about the scheme.

BALLINAFAD Gives Prize Awards At Piano Recital

A recital by piano pupils of Mrs. Dorothy Scull was given in Ballinafad United Church on Monday evening, June 19th.

Following fine performances by the children, Mrs. Scull spoke a few words to parents and pupils about lessons being resumed in the fall term, and she presented several awards. First prize for practice chart was won by Kathryn Sinclair and second by Ann Shortill. Kathryn also won an award for the highest mark, 92, in her Grade 3 exam and the highest mark in Grade 2 was 86, obtained by Wendy Wood.

A prize was also given for a weekly lesson record which was won by Bonnie Beer. Mrs. C. Snow thanked Mrs. Scull and on behalf of the Ballinafad district presented her with a lovely gift.

Those taking part in the recital were Cathy Johnson, Wendy Wood, Ray Gilmore, Marilyn Johnson, David Godson, Kathryn Sinclair, Peter Godson, Carolyn McEnery, Linda Gilmore, Douglas Fowler, Louise Snow, June Given, Marion and Norman Huxley, Anne Shortill, Steven Wolfe, Glen Marshall, Bonnie Beer and Lynn Raeburn.
