Baha'i Temple, Wilmette, Ill.

This is the first Baha'i Temple of the West, dedicated in 1953 and located just north of Chicago on the shore of Lake Michigan.

The first Baha'i Temple is in the U.S.S.R. and was completed before the Bolshevik revolution. Other Temples are in Australia, Africa and Europe.

The design of all Baha'i Temples is symbolic of the fundamental Baha'i Principles of The Oneness of God, of Religion and of Mankind. Services consist of extracts from the Jewish, Christian, Moslem and Baha'i scriptures.

MEMORIAMS
EVES — In loving memory of a dear mother Edith Eves, who passed away July 3rd 1954.
There is no parting from those we love.
No distance can divide
For to-day in memory's garden
We still walk side by side.
— Lovingly remembered by
Ida and Albert.

EVES — In loving memory of a dear Nanna, Edith Eves, who passed away July 3rd, 1954.
I treasure still, with love sincere,
Beautiful memories of one so dear.
— Lovingly remembered by Granddaughter, Brenda.

DOUBLE DONORS — Peter Jones, Georgetown

MR. AND MRS. Wally Magdy, 49 McIntyre Cres., are the type of people they like at the local Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic. Both Mr. and Mrs. Magdy make a point of giving to the blood bank when ever the opportunity is there. With the couple here is Red Cross nurse, Miss Maria Witman who accepted their precious gift.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Mr. Tom Leslie, R.R. 4, spent a very enjoyable week-end at his uncle, Mr. Percy Leslie's cottage at Acton Island, Bala. While vacationing last week Mrs. Andy Crichton, 5 Charles St. spent a few days in Orillia with Warrant Officer and Mrs. William Fenemore.

A.M.B.A. Jack Irwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Irwin, 76 River Drive, is home on leave from Stadacona, Halifax, Nova Scotia, where he is a medical assistant in the navy.

Misses Dorothy Shumeman of Stratford and Jean Bird, R.R. 3, Georgetown, flew by jet on Sunday morning, July 2nd for Calgary, Alberta, from there they will go to Banff to attend the summer school.

Miss Susan Trott, 27 Norton Crescent, and Miss Sharon Gorth, 38 Delrex Blvd., left Georgetown on Friday, for a 12 day vacation at Camp Oneida, a reward from their parents for passing Grade 9.

Mr. Carl Chesney and his father, of Cleveland, Ohio, spent the week-end at their cottage in Willow Park, Norval. The Chesneys previously lived in Norval.

Former Georgetowners Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Watt and son Wayne and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stockford, of Downsview are holidaying at their cottage at Minden. Stanley Lorusso, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Lorusso, John St. E. was in Parry Sound for the weekend with his uncles, Rocco Lorusso, also of town, Alvin Hives of Mount Dennis, and his cousins Michael and Keith.

Mr. and Mrs. Max English, 5 Weber Dr., had as their guest last week Mrs. English's aunt Miss Frances Garrison from Louisville, Kentucky. She left on Thursday to visit Mrs. English's brother and family in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Myles Gison and daughters, 37 King St. E. attended the McMaster reunion held at Utopia last Sunday. This was the first reunion held by the descendants of James McMaster who settled in Essa Township on his arrival from Ireland some 133 years ago.

An old family friend, George Johnson of Chicago, Illinois, renewed acquaintances when he spent the weekend at the home of Mrs. Charles Crawford, 18 George St. Accompanied by his son Jonathan, Mr. Johnson who is a retired school teacher, was in Canada to attend the Kiwanis convention this week in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Welch and family of Chicago were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Irwin and family, 76 River Dr., for a few days last week. They were neighbours of the Irwins when they lived in Chicago. Jack Irwin went back with them to spend a few days with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Charyse and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cordaro, 45 Main St. N., left Saturday night for the west. Travelling by CNR, they are bound for Vancouver where they will attend the Jehovah Witness assembly this week. They plan to visit Victoria and other places of interest. Accompanying them is Mrs. Cordaro's son Flight Sergeant William Preston of Trenton.
