him taken on the recent bus trip to Niagara. It was interesting to see all the familiar faces on the screen with the beauty spots as background. Two films were also shown with 'Retohn Farm' as the setting. It was educational for those unfamiliar with farm life. The meeting closed with a hymn and prayer. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

Congratulations to Susan Wheeler who passed with honors her Royal Conservatory Grade III piano examination and to Karen Kozack who received first class honours in grade II theory. Mrs. Alf Spence is their teacher.

The old shed at the rear of the United Church has been torn down and the basement excavated for the new addition. The men have been working very hard to get this long awaited project underway. The congregation met recently and unanimously approved the plans submitted by the building committee.

Mrs. E. Brumbycombe of Drayton is visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. Allen. This family brought Mr. Allen from England with them. These many years they did not know each other's whereabouts until last year. After fifty-five years they were reunited. While visiting here Mrs. Brumbycombe celebrated her seventy-seventh birthday at a little family get-together at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Everson.

Mrs. Jean Gardhouse of their hometown demonstrated Tupperware at a Guild meeting in St. John's Church Hall on Thursday evening last. Although not a large crowd, the evening was quite successful. Lunch was served by the members.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Bell of Sudbury visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. Atkinson over the week end with Mrs. Bell remaining for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart, Donna and Wendy and Mrs. J. C. Murray spent a few days near Huntville this week.

Mr. Albert Melowell and his daughter, and son in law Mr. and Mrs. Toddlers and son Tommy of Don Mills, visited on Sunday with Mr. Melowell's sister, Mrs. H. P. Lawson.

GLEN WILLIAMS

W.A. Meeting Held At Presswood Home

The monthly meeting of the United W.A. was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Presswood on Monday evening. The president opened the meeting with the W.A. hymn and prayer. The devotional was taken by Mrs. E. Engleby. The subject was "The Community". What does our church mean to our community? What witness is this little group of Christians bearing for our Lord? Are we letting Him make us the salt and the light of our community?

A number of items of business were dealt with. Mrs. John Wagstaff then showed a

NORVAL

Interesting Program Guides' Parent Night

The 1st Norval Guides and Brownies ended the season's activities with a Parent's Night on Wednesday evening June 28th in the parish hall. The address of welcome on behalf of the Guides was given by Miss Cheryl Cooley after which the Guides had their regular Guide opening. After forming the Horseshoe there was the march on of couples by colour bearers. Diane Cooley, Jeanette Engstrom and Gloria Shering followed by God Save the Queen. The Brownies welcome was given with their signal flag then they turned their backs and parents fastened on their babies' special WELCOME.

Mrs. E. Lee, district commissioner, thanked the three Norval Guides, Susan Engstrom, Wendy Hunter and Bonnie Fendley, followed by the march-off of colours.

The Brownies held their regular Brownie opening and although they are few in number, they make up for it in enthusiasm. It was a treat to see the eager and happy way the Brownies took their parts. They all wore their "great big Brownie Smiles".

Brownie award and badge presentations were made to Debbie Reynolds and Barbara Youmans their Golden Hand, Gwen Webb and Goldie Cue their Golden Bar, Marie Fendley and Debbie Reynolds, toy makers badges and Penny Reynolds and Gwen Webb their collectors' badges, also one, two and three year stars were presented.

The Guides put on a 3 act skit called "The Magic Polish" and a "Flag Skit" demonstrating the different flags that make up the Union Jack. They also put on a fashion show and it was hard to tell who enjoyed it the most, the Guides themselves, the Brownies or the parents and friends present.

The commentators were Lieut. Joan Crawford and Company Leader Cheryl Cooley. This was a humorous take-off on how Guides dress at camp. Diane Cooley demonstrated the Guide Uniform at Camp. Guna-Bru Kierajdalen the Morning Bell Ringer, Janice Carter the Morning Exercise Girl, Jeanette Finnamore was Nature Girl, Irene McLean the Sports Girl, Linda Shea was the Bathing Beauty, Bonnie Fendley the Cook, Donna Fendley the Camp Fire Girl, Wandy Hunter the Rainy Day Girl, and Diane Fendley

STEWARTTOWN

Village Orangemen Parade at Georgetown

Members of LOL 68, Stewarttown, joined in the parade on Saturday to celebrate the Glorious Twelfth, and the battle of the Boyne. A number of the villagers attended, as spectators. Noticeably absent was the Fyfe and drum band from LOL 68, which a number of years ago was out in full force, and attracted attention to the local group wherever the parade was attended.

Congratulations to Jacques line Barclay, who was successful in passing her grade 7 piano examination, Jacky is a pupil of Mrs. Gail Wheeler Spencer.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Herb Reid during the past week, were Mr. Glenn Mozzy from Manitowaning, Manitowling Island, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Cummins and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Herriman and family of Rochester, New York.

ing their holidays at their cottage on Lake Simcoe.

The pupils and their teachers, Mrs. Miller and Miss Ward of Hornby Public School, enjoyed a picnic at Hornby Community Park on Tuesday. After the dinner that was supplied by the pupils, races of all kinds were run and a ball game was played. The junior room presented a small gift to Miss Ward who is leaving to attend school. Congratulations to all the pupils who passed into a higher grade.

BALLINAFAD

JUNIOR CHOIR ENTERTAINED AT BEATON HOME

Mrs. Beaton entertained the members of the Junior Choir at the home of Mrs. Beaton on Friday afternoon. They sang an anthem at the service on Sunday morning when Rev. Norman Russ was a guest in the pulpit. He was present to officiate at a service of baptism for the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Kirkwood and the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Leg French.

On Wednesday evening of last week, the Sunday School teachers from the three churches on the Ballinafad charge were entertained at a dinner provided by the W.A. group of Church Hill and Ballinafad. The ladies of Melville were responsible for the speaker who was Rev. Gordon Lapp, Christian Education convener for the Hamilton conference. He gave a very challenging address on the "purpose" of Christian education which is "That every individual, at each stage of his developing life, may be led to know, to love and to serve God, as revealed in Jesus Christ."

He went on to explain that more is taught than what we learn or do and that in the teen years there was a particular opportunity to ask them to accept the gospel of Jesus Christ. The purpose can also be described as the total nurturing of children and adults in the teachings of the faith. Mr. Beaton led a sing song and also expressed the thanks of all present to the ladies for the lovely supper. At the close of Sunday school, the previous Sunday, Ross Shortill was presented with a Bible prior to his going to Regina to join the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. He has been superintendent for some time and will be missed in the Church and community, but we all wish him much success in his new venture.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Norton and family from Sudbury, visited with his brother Mike for the week-end.

Miss Mary Baker is spending a week with her sister in Toronto.

Miss Diane Swindlehurst spent three days at "H-C" camp at Humber Glen last week-end.

Summer holidays are in full swing once again for the children of the community. The end of the school term was celebrated with picnics at the Peacock and Blue Mountain schools on Wednesday afternoon. Reports were handed out and a social time was enjoyed by all present.

On Saturday afternoon, the Snow family held a gathering of the entire family to honour Mrs. J. W. Snow on her birthday and also for Miss Lydia Snow who is leaving shortly on a trip to Scotland.

Miss Beth McEnery visited for the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. E. Banks at Laurel and has now returned to Toronto to attend the Northern Vocational School for a course in Home Economics.

Mr. Tom Mack spent last week with his son Fred in Guilph.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McEnery visited on Sunday in Toronto with Mr. and Mrs. J. Simpson.
