HORNBY

Hornby L.O.L. 165 was well represented at the annual Orangemen's parade held this year at Georgetown. Donald Leslie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Leslie was leading the Hornby Lodge, with Carol Leslie, Audrey Murdoch and Roberta Murdoch carrying the flags. The parade that represented five counties was watched by quite a number of spectators along the route. Next year it is to be held in Peel.

Birthdays greetings to James Snow on July 12.

Irons-McMeekin Wedding in Norval United Church

Tall white standards of mums and poms decorated Norval United Church for the marriage of Bonnie June McMeekin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Laird McMeekin of Norval, to James Donald Irons, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Irons of Brampton, on May 20, at 3 p.m.

Rev. Lloyd Freel officiated at the double ring ceremony where the bride was given in marriage by her father. The organist was Mr. Ronald Laidlaw, of Brampton. During the service, Mrs. Clark Lyons of Norval sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Oh Promise Me."

The bride wore a full length long sleeved gown of off-white haquet taffeta with sweeping chapel train. The lace trimmed bateau neckline and matching motifs on the redingote effect skirt front were discreetly accented with sequins and pearls. Her waist length tulle veil was held in place with a tiny high standing crown of pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of white orchid and stephanotis.

The maid of honour was Miss Barbara Fraser of Brampton, and the bridesmaids were cousins of the bride, Miss Elaine Stevenson of Toronto and Miss Jene Dale of Brampton. They were dressed in identical short sheath dresses of heavy pale lavender brocade, with full-skirted overdresses of deep lavender organza. Their clip-on bow headdresses and shoes were deep lavender.

The junior bridesmaid, Miss Ruthie Williams of Brampton, a niece of the groom, wore a deep lavender sheath dress of organza over taffeta, with full overskirt, matching headdress and shoes.

All the attendants carried large arm bouquets of white carnations, pale mauve poms and purple iris.

John Irons, of Rexdale, brother of the groom, acted as groomsmen. Ushers were Brian Williams, cousin of the bride and Pat Williams, brother-in-law of the groom, both of Brampton.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride was presented with a horseshoe of health by David Irons, nephew of the groom. This gift was sent from Scotland by Mrs. John Barton, the groom's grandmother.

A reception followed the ceremony in the Church Parlor. Mrs. McMeekin received for her daughter in a sea foam green sheath dress of draped chiffon over taffeta, with matching shoes and clutch bag. She wore a white picture hat, white gloves and a corsage of white gardenias.

The groom's mother, Mrs. George Irons, wore misty white organza over a mauve and turquoise floral sheath dress with matching three-quarters length coat. Her outfit was completed by mauve hat and gloves and a corsage of white gardenias.

After the reception, the bride placed her white orchid corsage and bouquet beside her grandfather, Mr. Archibald McMeekin, 82, who died suddenly on Friday, May 19.

The bride left for the honeymoon trip to New Orleans in a two tone beige wool stroller suit with matching accessories, white ribbon hat and gloves.

Mr. and Mrs. Irons will be residing at 48 David St., Apt. 6, Brampton, where Mr. Irons is employed at Dixie Cup and Mrs. Irons at Industrial Acceptance Corporation.

MY ACHING FEET

ONE OF THE Junior Majorettes in the giant Orange parade Saturday feels the strain of the march-a-thon. Her face reflects the picture's title.

after a very enjoyable and interesting day.

On Wednesday evening July 5th a surprise birthday party was held for Mrs. M. Wishart on the occasion of her 73th birthday, planned by her husband.

Neighbours with their families and Norval Institute members and their husbands were present to wish her a happy birthday. Her daughter, Mrs. S. Smith of Toronto and her only grandchild Ronnie Smith also her sister Mrs. W. A. McGregor of Toronto, helped celebrate the happy occasion.

Some of the Institute members assisted in serving a delicious lunch of strawberry short cake, ice cream and birthday cake. A neighbour, Mrs. G. Todd, poured tea and an enjoyable social time was enjoyed.

One of the little guests, Gwen Webb, was celebrating her 9th birthday the same day. Many happy returns of the day to both Mrs. Wishart and Gwen.

Mr. and Mrs. Graydon Chester spent the July 1st week-end at Dr. and Mrs. K. McLaren's cottage near Point au Baril. Mrs. McLaren is Mrs. Chester's sister and a family reunion was held during the week-end.

Sandra McIntosh of Simcoe, Ont., is spending a week of her holidays with her cousins Barbara, Brian and Blair Youmans.

Mrs. S. Carr and young daughters Dana and Cindy of Toronto, spent a few days visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pomeroy. Julie Pomeroy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pomeroy returned home with them for a short holiday.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moyer were their grandchildren Mary, David and Mark with their parents Mr. and Mrs. A. Reinhardt of Brantford, Ont., where Mr. Reinhardt is the Royal Bank manager.

We welcome to the village a new hairdressing salon located in the Kirk Kraft Carriage House Apts. Miss V. Nelson, hair stylist, moved from her salon on Bloor St., Toronto, into the renovated lower apartment at Kirk Kraft Apts. A lovely new living room has been added at the back of the apartment overlooking the scenic Credit River and the hairdressing salon is located at the front.

The village has long been in need of a hairdressing establishment as there has been none since Mrs. C. Grimwood moved from Norval several years ago.

Two Nurses Join Halton Health Unit

Two public health nurses, Marie Capponi and Helen Murphy, joined the staff of the Halton County Health Unit last week.

Miss Capponi trained at St. Joseph's Hospital in Hamilton and served as staff nurse and head nurse of the emergency ward there before taking the post graduate course in Public Health Nursing at the University of Toronto.

Miss Murphy graduated from St. Michael's Hospital in Toronto and was both a private duty and general duty nurse. She also took the University of Toronto Public Health Nursing course.

Sewage Plant Creates Heat From Gases

A by-product of the digestion process at the new sewage treatment plant creates one economy in operating the plant.

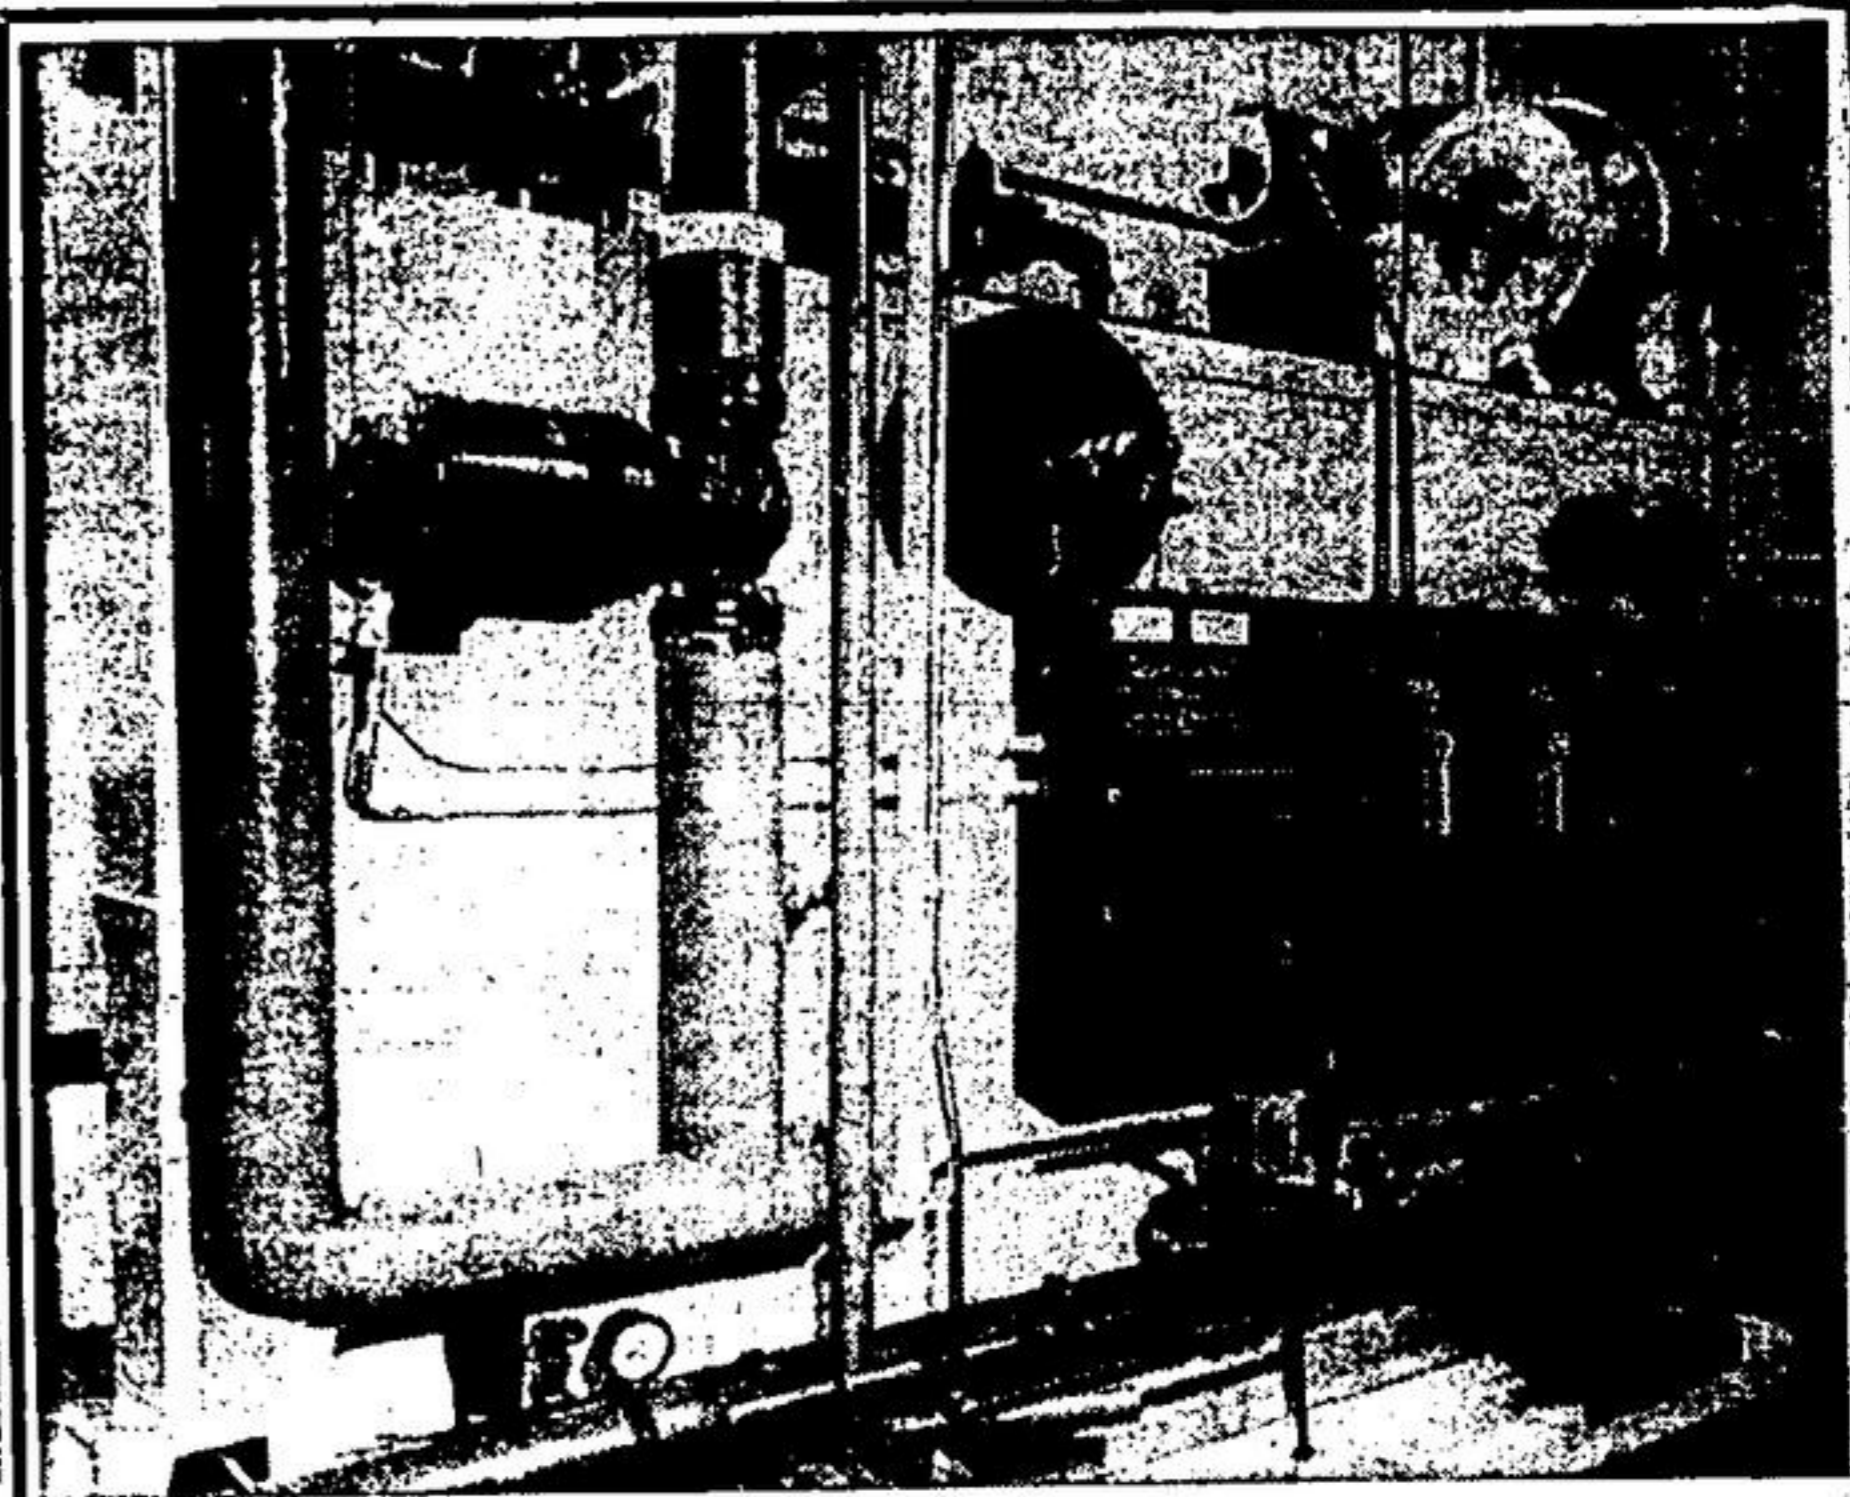

During the process, methane gas is formed. The gas is piped to the boilers for fuel, supplying heat to the digesters, which in turn produce more gas to keep the process a continuous one.

A relief valve near the building releases extra gas, which is burned off there when necessary.

Stratford Man Heads Staff at New Sewage Disposal Plant

A Stratford man, Charles Fiddy, is entrusted with operation of the new million dollar plant which will dispose of sewage for Georgetown's ten thousand residents.

Assisting Mr. Fiddy is a local man, Philip Carney, who was a member of the town work staff prior to taking a new position with the Ontario Water Resources Commission, which operates the plant.

On the opening of its modern sewage treatment plant, United Steel welcomes Georgetown and its municipality to the long list of users of United Steel Sanitation Equipment.

Procter & Redfern, Consulting Engineers, selected the Pacific Flush Tank Digester Heater and Heat Exchanger supplied by United Steel. This equipment automatically controls the temperature of the wastes in process as well as the temperature for hot water radiators in the control buildings. Another precision installation by United Steel.

NORVAL Norval Institute Picnic At Pioneer Village

The Norval Women's Institute held their annual picnic on Thursday, July 6th to Pioneer Village at Black Creek Conservation Area. The cars left the village at 11:30 a.m. and arrived in time for noon lunch of chili con carne, tea biscuits, potato salad, sandwiches and a good variety of pies with everyone enjoying second helpings.

The weather was perfect and the grounds at Pioneer Village are ideal for a picnic.

There was a good turnout of Institute families and they thoroughly enjoyed the guided tour through the log cabin, the gentleman's house, the old time store, barn and school house, to see just how our ancestors had to live and how very ingenious they were. A church will soon be ready to add to the tour and improvements are steadily being made.

Before returning home a tour through the museum in an old barn across the road was enjoyed and the children took quite an interest in the old time fire engine, the wood working tools, the meat-processing equipment and the butter making exhibit in the basement of the old barn and they had a short ride on the wagon pulled by a team of horses that you can ride on from Pioneer Village across the road to the museum and back again. The cars returned home about 5:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Irons will be residing at 48 David St., Apt. 6, Brampton, where Mr. Irons is employed at Dixie Cup and Mrs. Irons at Industrial Acceptance Corporation.
