

FROM THE CONGO TO DELREX

REV. AND MRS. GEORGE BEACHAM and their two sons Donald and Stephen are Georgetown residents now. Mr. and Mrs. Beacham have served for ten years in the African mission field and recently opened a new mission station there among a tribe of natives never reached by Christian missionaries before. They are making their home in an apartment at 7 Gray Gafe and Sunday Rev. Beacham will occupy the pulpit at Maple Ave. Baptist Church.

Norval Girl Is Bride Of Bagotville Airman

A floor length gown of net over taffeta was chosen by Diane Elizabeth Shering daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Shering of Norval, for her June 24th marriage to Thomas James Johnson, son of Mr. Thomas James Johnson, of Brampton and Mrs. Jack Roy of Willowdale.

Standards of white gladstoles stood beside the altar in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Norval as Rev. Ronald Stubley presided over the double ring ceremony at 3 p.m.

The bridal gown featured a lace bodice, long lily point sleeves and back interest of layers of lace and net, scattered with mother of pearl sequins. The veil was shoulder length and she carried a bouquet of white roses centred by a mauve orchid.

Health with matching chiffon coat. A corsage of tallinn roses completed her ensemble.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson travelled north to a summer cottage at Lake Simcoe for their honeymoon, after which they flew by TCA to Chicoutimi, Quebec. Mr. Johnson is in the Air Force and is presently stationed at Bagotville, Quebec. The bride's travelling costume was a white two-piece suit, complemented by mauve accessories and a mauve orchid. She was formerly employed in the medical record office of Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton.

Enquiring Reporter WHAT DO YOU THINK?

Do you feel all the school promotions should be printed in the paper?

Mrs. S. Alcorn, 21 Mackenzie Drive. "It seems like an asinine waste of space to me."

Mrs. E. Zuber, Delrex Blvd. "Who reads them?"

Mrs. G. Clark, Stevens Cres. "I don't think it is necessary."

Mrs. R. McGrath, Stevens Cres. "I don't think it matters one way or the other."

Bob Bingham, Hewson Cres. "I don't think it's anybody's business, each person finds out his own results at school."

WORDS OF THE WISE

Seize the first opportunity to act on every resolution you make — William James.

Honoured Guest

Honoured guest was Lt. Col. Alex Noble of Norval, who is 94 years old. Youngest of the 122 guests was the bride's brother Bobby, 18 months old.

Dressed Alike

Maid of honour was Miss Patricia Ingram, cousin of the bride, and the bride's and groom's sisters, Miss Gloria Shering and Miss Judy Roy were bridesmaids. The attendants were dressed alike in blue organza over blue print polished cotton, styled with scoop neck lines, large puffed sleeves, full skirts and matching cummerbunds. Their hats were made of the same material and they carried pink carnation bouquets.

Mr. Shering gave his daughter in marriage. Organist was Mrs. Robert Crawford, Jr. Miss Gaye Jackson as soloist sang "O Perfect Love," prior to the service and "We Lift our Hearts to Father" during the signing of the register. Miss Jackson is a cousin of the bride from Weston.

Groomsman was Robert Pollard of Brampton, cousin of the groom. A cousin and brother of the bride, John Jackson of Weston and George Shering Jr. acted as ushers.

Pink Corsage

A reception followed the ceremony in St. Paul's Parish Hall, Norval. Mrs. Shering wore a sheath of blue nylon over silk brocade with matching three-quarter length coat and white accessories and a pink corsage. The groom's mother received for her son in a lime green

NORVAL Village Highway Road Ready For Surfacing

Mrs. Edward McLean TR 7-3182

The highway through the village is greatly improved with the sewers all in and the road almost ready for surfacing but the walking is still quite hazardous with no sidewalk at all in many places.

The bridge over the race that ran to the old grist mill and the old mill have been removed and the race filled-in and at present there is still a detour there. The bridge will be laid over the highway in some other place.

There is to be a new bridge built at the foot of the West Branch hill as you enter the village from Georgetown and the sharp corner improved. Work has not begun on this project yet but is long overdue as this corner has been the scene of a good many accidents.

Work is still progressing on Laird's Hill where the hill has been greatly cut down and the curves eliminated, but the road is not ready for traffic yet in some places on the hill and the old road is still being used.

The Norval Presbyterian Church W.M.S. and Mission Band held their picnic on Tuesday afternoon, July 25th on the church lawn.

The president of the W.M.S. Mrs. Clure Archdekin opened the afternoon with a short devotional followed by a story read by Jane McClure, Lorene Archdekin, Wilma Eccles and Bonnie Fendley and the singing of some children's hymns.

The afternoon was spent in games and contests. Those in charge of the Mission Band games and races were Nancy McClure, Margaret McClure, and Janice McClure. Mrs. Clure Archdekin was in charge of games and contests for the W.M.S. members.

After the sports events, a lovely lunch and ice cream was served by the lunch committee of Mrs. Harold McClure, Mrs. Andrew McClure and Mrs. I. Reynolds.

On Saturday, July 15th St. Paul's Anglican Church, Norval, held their Sunday School and Congregational picnic at Terra Cotta Conservation Park.

After the arrival of the cars at 12 o'clock the children enjoyed a swim then the usual bounteous pot-luck lunch was served by the Ladies' Guild, after which races and games were held. All the members of the Sunday School up to the age of 10 years received a prize.

Winners in the races were: Jr. Boys — Douglas Ward, Gordon Fendley. Jr. Girls — Cathy Carter, Betty Burton. Sr. Girls — Carolyn Fricker, Gloria Shering. Mystery Game — Mrs. F. Hutson. Ladies Contest — Mrs. F. Woollett, Mrs. Wm. Taylor. Gentleman's Race — Mr. Arlinus Burton.

After the sports events the rest of the afternoon was spent in swimming.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Crawford, Sr. Jack and Patricia spent a week of their holidays at their son Bob's cottage at Dorset. Patricia is staying another week with her aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Crawford of Bob's cottage.

Social & Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Don Wingrove and sons Graham and Grant, 15 Durham St. have returned from a vacation which they spent at Lake Sesekekini near Kirkland Lake.

Returning after two years in Pakistan, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Warren and children David and Tina are back in their home at 17 Edith St. Mr. Warren was in Pakistan to set up a department of industrial design at Lahore University. They came home by ship, stopped ten days in London and returned to Canada on the S.S. Corinthia.

Former Georgetowners Mr. and Mrs. John Bell of Montreal were recent visitors in town. They stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Salter, 32 Maple Ave. W. and also visited with his mother, Mrs. B. M. Bell, 52 Main St. S., later going to Sarnia to see their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Myrvold and their young granddaughter. Their younger daughter Jocelyn is in Europe this summer, travelling with a student group which will visit several continental countries.
