

TIGER AND THE LITTLE PEOPLE

EXEMPLIFYING THE ACTION in last Thursday night's tag-team semi-final, Farmer Pete makes door knobs out of Billy the Kid's ears and Major Tom Thumb gnashes his teeth at fallen Dandy Andy Moore. Referee Tiger Tasker wades through the middle separating them like a playground supervisor.

Aquatic Show Fails To Draw Audience

Public indifference has killed another local entertainment feature.

Aquatic nite, the vehicle to display the benefits of swimming classes, has been given the axe by officials because the public "stayed away in droves" Saturday when the first half of the semi-annual water show was staged at the Community Swimming Pool.

The second program would have been held later this month.

Here are the results of the competitions.

Fergus-Elora Visitors Win Lacrosse Gala Day

Gala Day was held at the corner of Sargent Road and Mountainview, last Saturday.

The first game was played by the Tykes, the age being 5 years in the group. They defeated the Tadpoles by a score of 6 to 3.

Dennis Norton sparked the Tykes, scoring 4 goals. Doug West getting the other 2. Score for the Tadpoles: Fred Ferguson 1 and Bill Dumper 2.

A boy wishing to join the Tykes group, came out to the lacrosse bowl Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. In a couple years some of these boys could be fine lacrosse players.

The second game of the day was the Blackfeet combine with the Moquios go against the Mohawk-Huron combines. Due to holidays, the teams were withheld and so the regular lacrosse team was cut down two and these boys who are coached by Harold Baird and Martin are playing some very fine lacrosse. Commencement time in September Georgetown should have a good "Wee" team.

Blackfeet - Ironquins defeated Mohawk - Hurons by the score of 4 to 2.

Scoring for Blackfeet - Ironquins were Gary Murray 2 goals, a Cracker 1 and John Golden.

For Mohawk - Hurons Larry Forth and Brian Mills 1.

The final game of the day was between Fergus-Elora and Georgetown. The score being 6 to 2.

The Fergus-Elora team got a flying start, scoring in the first play of the game and five minutes had passed were leading 2 to 0.

The visitors seemed to be at home on this big play.

Cy Wilson Leader In Cart Club Event

Cy Wilson, Bill McEnery and Pete Davies crossed the finish line in that order in the Modified A feature at the North Halton Cart Club track Sunday afternoon.

A Port Credit driver, Wilf Currie, led the field home in the A' class event, while Virginia Hutchinson of Oakville showed the way in the Powder Puff Derby for the ladies. Don Chase was the top carter in the new hobby class event. Barry Cleave took top honours.

Club president Bill McEnery told the Herald that the club is still open to anyone interested in joining. He said some prospective members were among the good turnout which watched the Sunday races. The club members also get together every Monday at the track.

800 Wrestling Fans See Title Defense

Whipper Watson Retains B-E Championship

"We'll try once more and then we'll call it quits." Co-promoter Sam Yanaky was noticeably disappointed when he told the Herald his "one more time" scheme half way through the Thursday night wrestling card which featured the midjets and Stasiak-Watson British Empire title bout.

Pretty Good Parley

Sam paused to look around at the 800 customers, a good crowd for a regular Reider hockey game, but small potatoes for B-E championship match. "We've given them the best we could (the Midjets and the Whip make a pretty good parley) and we can't do any more than that. We'll give it one more whirl and then maybe call it quits."

Slightly Battered

The indoor crowd put a little more into the coffers than the first Burke-Yankay mat spectacle but overhead consumed all the gate receipts and then some.

However, the crowd's acceptance and enthusiasm must have been some consolation.

Like the Dick Merrivether novels, every cliff-hanger on the card had a sunny ending. Big John Foti escaped bushy-faced Nikita Kalmikoff for half an hour to get a draw.

Dandy Andy Moore and Farmer Pete duped bad guys Major Tom Thumb and Billy the Kid; and in the main event Whipper Billy Watson engineered the Arvida Assassin, Stan Stasiak, into displaying his inexperience.

Middle-aged Watson was the cunning old pro in successfully staving off young Stanislaus and his designs on the B.E. crown.

Big Men

The autograph seekers inadvertently set the stage for the big one. Watson, the epitome of patience, stood hip deep in Richmond extended his league lead by defeating the luckless Columbus Jets 10-2. Buffalo and Toronto each had five hits with extra bases going to Wolf Schmidt and Jerry Neil of Buffalo. Bob Inglis had two hits for Toronto. Wayne Guzak scored three times for Richmond while Gary George and Ralph Alcorn brought home the only Columbus runs.

The Tigers of the American League took over first place by defeating the Orioles 6-4 and at the same time the Yankees whipped the slipping Twins 13-5. Jim Graham had his Orioles playing good defensive ball and although they pulled off two double plays they were unable to match the Tiger hitting. Bruce Sencski, catching for the Tigers, hit two for three. Rodney Alcorn pitched for the Orioles. Guzak the winner for the Tigers. The Yankees ran up a seven to three lead in the first inning as the Twin batters could manage only two hits off Yankee pitcher I. Short.

The big gun for the Yanks was their first baseman, Neil who had a perfect evening of 4 for 4 at the plate. Jerry Nash hit a double for the Twins.

The National League Giants wrapped up first place last week with a close 4-2 win over the Braves. At the same time the Cards were defeating the hapless Pirates 12-8. Although in trouble only once, the Giants came up with two fine double plays to cancel Brave rallies. Mike Tyler was the key man in both plays with good assistance from Jim Stamp behind the plate and John Quackenbush at first. Dick Lenz of the Braves hit two doubles driving in both Brave runs. Stan Barrett of the Giants also hit a double, driving in two runs and scoring the winning run on Fred Yates' single to right field. In the Pirate-Cardinals game Bob Marchand hit two for three and Stan Kynersley hit a triple, both for the Pirates.

The play-offs have been scheduled to start Thursday, Aug. 10 with the first place team playing the third team in the standing. The following Tuesday, Aug. 13 the second and fourth place teams will play. As the standings are not definite, be sure to check with your coach or manager when you play. Let's have everybody out for the play-offs.

Smoke Damage When Grease Catches Fire

Mrs. Ed. Robertson TR 8-2289

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bailey was badly damaged by smoke and the paint burned off their cupboard doors when a frying pan of grease caught fire last Thursday evening.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Archer on their twenty-eighth wedding anniversary on August 5 and to Mr. and Mrs. William Bailey who will be married twelve years on August 6.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bradley and family enjoyed a holiday week-end in the Haliburton district. Mr. and Mrs. Orville Grexton and family were on a camping trip last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Hall and son Peter spent Sunday at Wasago Beach.

The local beekeepers started to extract the new honey this week.

Nora Hearnies who is holidaying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Howden had the misfortune of stepping on a nail last Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Sampson of Kingston were home for the week-end. They were presented with a desk and chair from the congregation of Hornby United Church at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Sampson on Saturday afternoon.

A new bridge is being constructed on the Seventh Line in Trafalgar near the farm of Edgar Featherstone. The detour is through his farm.

Stasiak's bulk was on top of Watson almost as soon as he hit the canvas and the bout was even at one fall apiece.

The third fall started like a Patterson - Johansson rematch with both gladiators using his fists to play the other's swan song on a sweaty cranium. The challenger's purple tactics so enraged Watson he resorted to throwing his weight around — and Stasiak's. Three times the young French - Canadian soared over the top rope, out onto the arena floor with all the gracefulness of a Sherman tank. It was the prelude to the end.

Misfired

Incensed at being a human volley ball Stasiak eluded the Whip's 4th try and worked into position for another paralyzing knee drop. Stasiak picked the champion up with the glaring intention of covering himself with glory. Two seconds and one stumble later he had covered himself with Watson.

Referee Tiger Tasker three counted and the successful title defense was official.

Gimmicks crept into the Lallup tag-team semi-final which perpetrated a major theft in stealing a big part of the show from the main events.

Subs Sparkle

Dandy Andy Moore and his partner Farmer Pete subbing for Little Beaver, and Billy the Kid and cohort Tom Thumb subbing for Fuzzy Cupid. New through the air like a quartet of Mary Martins. Moore and Pete employed one of Pete's slippers in a hot potato act in which they threatened to pop either Bill or the Major on a first come first served basis, while the Kid and partner tried to get in their licks with a clothes pin. It ended firmly clamped on William's much maligned schnoz.

Moore and Farmer Pete took this one two falls to one.

The John Foti - Nikita Kalmikoff pre-lim bout went 30 minutes to a draw.
